

Methodist Circles Meet On Thursday

On Thursday, March 13, the four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church held their regular monthly meetings. Ruth circle met for dessert with Mrs. Walter Herndon of 523 North Ninth street. She was assisted by Mrs. W. D. Elliott. Eighteen members attended, and Mrs. L. A. Brannan joined the group. Devotions were led by Mrs. L. K. Phelps, and Mrs. J. C. Hunt, circle chairman, presided over the business meeting. The circle is planning, as a new project, to help the Jessie Lee home in Alaska, but nothing definite is known yet. Hostess for the April meeting will be Mrs. George Boyd of 1527 Kane.

Esther circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Bechtel, 719 Eldorado, with Mrs. O'Connor assisting. Three guests were included among the 17 present. They were Mrs. Bruell, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Earl Redman, president of the general society. Mrs. John Beach conducted the devotional service, and Mrs. Holloway, chairman, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. E. L. Balziger was welcomed back after her illness. For decorations and refreshments. Mrs. Herndon used the St. Patrick's day motif. Mrs. Victor Anderson will be the April hostess.

Nancy circle met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Putnam of 1956 Huron, and in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. W. T. Withrow, Mrs. E. W. Mabee presided. Two members were appointed to help with the dinner for the zone meeting on March 27. They are Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. Charles Howrey. Miriam Smith led in a discussion of racial problems. Miss Smith will be the hostess in April.

Mrs. Stanley Bechtel was hostess to Martha circle and was assisted by Mrs. Charles Johnson. Mrs. Bechtel led the devotions, and Mrs. W. D. Carleton was in charge of the business session. Mrs. A. W. Cowman told of Pearl Buck's life in China. For the April meeting the hostess will be Mrs. George Gilster.

All circles will unite in work on the fall bazaar, and members are already planning the articles which they will contribute.

Contract Club

The Thursday Contract club met at the home of Fannie Thompson of 1334 Owens on March 13 for dessert and cards. There was one guest, Grace White. Idoline Schupp received the award for high score. Arlene Schubert, second and Stella Dryden were given the special award. Bertha Hewitt of 2225 Darrow will be hostess on March 27.

Girls' Society

The Junior Girls' Friendly society of St. Paul's Episcopal church met last Wednesday in the parish house. Darlene Gulley, vice president, had charge of the meeting. The girls worked on dolls for hospitalized children.

This afternoon the girls are meeting for a potluck supper. Kathleen McIntee is chairman.

Present at Wednesday's meeting were Sharon Miles, Kathleen McIntee, Marlene Sue Owens, Jana Lynn Langslett, Sue Sessler, Darlene Gulley, Geraldine Lee and Jane Stahl.

Friendly Society

Members of the Friendly circle met Thursday, March 13, at the home of Fannie Goddard of 2441 Garden for luncheon, business meeting and to work on scrapbooks for a children's hospital. One scrapbook was completed, and several infants' garments for the Red Cross were also made. The club is considering sponsoring a Girl Scout troop, and it was voted to give a donation to the Red Cross drive at this time. Eleven members were present and one guest, formerly a member, Helen Eiting. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

Card Party

A card party, sponsored by the Modoc Point home extension unit was held Friday evening in the former Lamm Lumber company hotel dining room. Six tables of pinocle were in play, as well as bridge and hearts. High scores went to Mr. and Mrs. Pell, Mrs. Sam Rife, Bill Rickers and Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson.

Proceeds will be used as the unit's contribution to the building fund. Another similar affair is planned for the evening of March 31. It will be sponsored by the community with proceeds to go to the Red Cross.
