

Langell Valley

Mrs. Mary Dearborn of Bonanza entertained with a luncheon on Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Lester Leavitt.

Mrs. Reginald Thomas is very ill at Hillside hospital. Friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown were dinner guests at the Leavitt home on Wednesday.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the relatives of Mr. Whitby, who passed away after a long illness.

Mrs. Birdie Burke left last week to visit relatives and friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Leavitt and Mary Anne spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Al Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Ross were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burnett and family of Klamath Falls were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ross of Klamath Falls and Pete Hodges of Bonanza were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the Leavitt home.

Mrs. L. W. Monroe arrived Saturday from Cave Junction to be with her daughter, Mrs. Reginald Thomas, who is ill, and to care for the Thomas children.

Buddy Rueck is home this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueck. Buddy just returned from overseas and is now at Camp Beal.

Mrs. Edna Olson spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boggs. Mrs. Olson is the welfare administrator for Lake county.

Mrs. Betty Pepple and Mrs. Mary Dearborn of Bonanza were luncheon guests March 13 at the home of Cora Leavitt. Later they went to the Guild meeting at Bessie Frazier's home.

Clarence Gilman came down from Oakridge to spend the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Effie Gilman and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nellie Quick of Malin spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan. Sullivan is flooring his barn and bought a new milking machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift and Hazel are spending a few days in Portland and Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Van Buskirk and children of Tulelake spent Sunday with her uncle, I. B. Morris and family. They also stopped to see the Bill Burdett.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Balin of Henley were Langell valley visitors last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott House spent several days at Medford visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown were dinner guests at the Owen Pepple home on Friday evening.

Nancy Burns of Central Valley is visiting at Merrill with her sister, Mrs. Claude Shuck and family. Nancy was recently discharged from the armed forces where she was a lieutenant and served four years as a nurse.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Burns, former Langell valley residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowen spent Sunday at Alturas.

Little Susan House is recovering from a recent tonsillotomy. Susan is the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. House.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett are remodeling their ranch home and expect to move into it this week. They have been living in the Rev. J. Henry Thomas cottage since their fire September 1.

Chiloquin

Lt. Patricia Zimmerman, WAC, who has been a dietician at Pery Jones hospital in Battle Creek, Mich., is home on a short leave before heading for a replacement depot in Yokohama, Japan.

"Pat" arrived on Wednesday but must leave next Friday, which gives her only a limited time to visit her many friends and her parents, Mayor and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman.

Ethel Zimmerman came from Portland, where she is employed to spend the week-end with her sister and parents.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gienger left on Friday morning for a motor trip east. Following the Burns-Boise highway they will let road conditions dictate the route they follow to reach Chicago where they will meet their daughter, Norma Lee, a sophomore at Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill.

During Miss Gienger's spring vacation the trio will tour south from the "Windy City" to New Orleans and back. After a short visit at the campus where their daughter is studying pre-medicine, Mr. and Mrs. Gienger will return to Oregon.

Mrs. Nels Nicholson has gone to Dillard, Ore., to spend the week with her husband who has been employed there for several months. During her absence her older daughter, Mrs. Ruth Duke, is here from Portland to stay with her sister, Jane. After school is out Jane and her mother will join Nicholson in the "cantaloupe center."

Oneta Ryder, senior at Dorris high school, was a Thursday guest at the local school visiting with former classmates.

Art Small of Kalispel, Mont., whose name is well known among growers of certified seed potatoes, was a visitor at the Wolff ranch this week. While he was here he and Jack, Gerry, and Henry Wolff attended a potato meeting at Merrill. When he left on Wednesday, Small was headed for Redmond and the Oceanside test plot for seed potatoes before returning for spring planting in Montana.

Visitors at the Klamath Agency home of Mr. and Mrs. William Livesay are Livesay's brother, Robert, and his wife from Vallejo, Calif. Mrs. Livesay has been here a week but was joined by her husband only last Sunday.

Sally Blockinger arrived this weekend from her Tacoma, Wash., school to spend her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Blockinger.

A St. Patrick's Day dance was given on Saturday night in the Veterans' building with Dick Varnum's Serenaders providing the music.

Mrs. Goss Faulkner and Mrs. Orville Elliott both of Klamath Agency were joint hostesses at the home of the latter when they entertained the regular meeting on Monday evening of the Altar Society. A St. Patrick's Day theme was used when refreshments were served to Mrs. Severitt Dolphus, Mrs. Dwight Sours, Mrs. Earl Kensler, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Clyde Lake, Mrs. William Priebe, Mrs. Harry Ravizza, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Claude Parazoo, Mrs. Joe Monks, Mrs. Merton Porter, Mrs. Jess Rousseau, Mrs. George Courtright, Mrs. Lee Peters, Mrs. Floyd LaPointe, Mrs. Bert LaPointe and the hostesses.

The Altar Society sponsored a card party in the basement of the Catholic church on Friday evening, March 14. The green shamrock of Ireland was used as decoration for tables and refreshments. Dwight Kirchner won the award, Mrs. Thomas Heminger received the bridge

Taylor will work for Spangler Lumber company.

Jack Harrison returned home the first of March from a business trip which took him to Texas.

Lila Cox who has been working in Klamath Falls is spending some time here with her mother, Mrs. Harry Obenchain.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Angus made a trip to Nebraska last week. They were accompanied home by Angus' mother who plans to make her home with them.

HELP EASE ACHING CHEST MUSCLES RUB ON MENTHOLATUM quick!

"COLD BUG" GOT HIM?

ON YOUR OLD BATTERY

TRADE-IN!

BATTERIES TO FIT ALL PASSENGER CARS

18 MONTHS GUARANTEE AVAILABLE ON BUDGET TERMS

Group 1 15⁹⁵

Group 2 17⁹⁵

Forestone

6th and Pine Phone 3234

This is Adala Wilkenson, twirler with the Young Oregonian troupe which will be seen in action here April 5 at KUHS auditorium in a big free entertainment sponsored by the Klamath Falls Elks lodge.

score while Mrs. Vern Smith took first honors in pinochle for the evening.

Special delegates to Washington, D. C., from the Klamath Agency flew east this past week. Superintendent B. G. Courtright left on Monday in order to have time for a Chicago stop.

On Tuesday Mrs. June Poitras and Jesse Kirk left the Klamath Falls airport to fly directly to the national capital.

Major Belle Lane, retired from the Salvation Army, has been a guest at the Rev. Harley Zeller home at Williamson River for a week.

Major Lane, who has spent the winter in California, is en route to Spokane and Twin Falls before returning to her Minneapolis, Minn. home.

Mrs. Jean Blake, music teacher at Gilchrist but formerly of Chiloquin was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lott.

Mrs. Lott and Mrs. Blake were luncheon guests on Saturday at the Klamath Falls home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Telford.

On the sick list this week were a number of local people. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts both checked in at Klamath Falls hospitals as did Guy Steiger. Mr. Steiger with his wife accompanied him, left on Thursday evening by train for Portland where he will receive medical treatment from a specialist.

Sally Johnston, eighth grader, is another who has been seriously ill. She was to have taken part in an academy recital on Sunday afternoon but was unable to attend.

The Rev. James Zeller will complete the school year as a junior high school instructor, filling the vacancy left by the resignation of George Courtright. Mr. Zeller received his training at Willamette university in the capitol city of Oregon and has been pastor of the local Methodist church since last summer.

Illness hit the ranks of the teachers this past week as Miss Hilda Olsen and Mrs. Les Hoback, commercial subjects and third grade teacher respectively, were absent from school. Mrs. Allan Galbraith and Mrs. Gerry Wolff were called upon as substitute teachers.

Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren this past week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greer and daughter, Margaret Lee, former residents but now of Medford, Ore. The Greers came over with the intention of driving home a new Chevrolet, discovered they arrived a week early, so their many friends will have an opportunity to see them again next week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans of Woodland, Calif., are the parents of a baby boy, their second son, born last week. Both Mr. and Mrs. Evans were former Chiloquin residents before their marriage.

Walter Pohll, called to Sacramento by the illness of his son, returned on Saturday evening with the knowledge that Norman is recovering from his recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peters and young children Shirley and Roger are moving this week from Spokane, Wash., into the South Chiloquin home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Newton Winkle.

A preteen age party was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Folk Haddock with their young daughter, Ellen, acting as hostess. Invited for the fun were Ellen's sister, Jane, Marlene Johnson, Mary Jo Graves, Barbara Weddle, Wayne DuBois, David McKell, Charmaine and Fern Coor, Harry Koslosky, Joanne Keyser, Jacqueline Shorey, Claudette Parazoo, Richard West, Richard Clark, and Floyd Hescok.

The women's group of the Methodist church had its regular meeting last Tuesday evening with Mrs. Walter Collins acting as hostess. Present for the discussion and refreshments were Mrs. Anton Zadina, Mrs. A. E. Clark, Mrs. Gerald Reed, Visiting friends here last Tuesday from Klamath Falls were Mrs. Harry Baum, a former local resident, her sister-in-law Mrs. J. Hooper and her daughter.

Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Sarah Stocum, Mrs. James Van Wormer and son Douglas were Klamath Falls visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler spent Thursday visiting friends in Tulelake.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. MacQuiston returned the latter part of the week from Klamath Falls, where Mrs. MacQuiston had been under the care of a physician while suffering from a severe attack of illness. During their stay in Klamath Falls the MacQuistons stayed at the Hall Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun and the latter's mother, Mrs. Henry Orth, were overnight guests in Klamath Falls Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Orth's mother, Mrs. Viola Leever.

Word was received here Monday of the death of Jim Dixon in Florida, where he had been spending the winter and spring with his two brothers, William and Gary. Details of his final illness have not been learned here yet, but Mr. Dixon was visiting here last fall at the home of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dixon, and at that time was in excellent health. He was for many years engaged in stock raising and ranching here with his brother, R. S. "Seth" Dixon. Funeral services will be held in Roseburg this week, according to information received.

Fort Klamath now has another grocery store, with the opening Saturday of Margaret's Grocery, owned and operated by Mrs. Margaret Watson in the former Riessen building. A complete line of groceries, fresh meats, fruits and vegetables will be carried in stock.

Wishing her success and congratulating her on her venture into business on Saturday a group of friends presented Mrs. Watson with several dozen lovely cut flowers. She wishes to express her thanks and appreciation to all who by their patronage and good wishes contributed to make the opening of her grocery store a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry King and daughter Sharon of Merrill Wis., have moved to Fort Klamath to make their home, and have rented an apartment at the school house. Mr. and Mrs. King were visiting here last fall with C. J. Brice, his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder, former Wisconsin residents and liked this locality so well that they decided to sell their property in Wisconsin and come to Fort Klamath to live.

T. J. Hawkins was a Fort Klamath visitor Saturday and returned the same day to Corning, Calif., accompanied by Ord and Bud Pritchett, his ranch employees here. The men will be engaged in building cattle corrals at Corning prior to shipping the stock by truck to Fort Klamath to the Hawkins ranch for the season's pasturing.

Mrs. Harley Zeller, her houseguest, Major Belle Lane, Mrs. Allan Galbraith and guests Mrs. Carufel, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. Floyd Ohles, Mrs. John Lott, Mrs. Lela Hutton, Mrs. Folk Haddock, Mrs. Kermit Keyser, Mrs. M. O. Hayes, Mrs. Fred Markwardt, Mrs. Cyril Cook, and the hostess.

City Delivery Service, Ph. 8417.

TRUCKS AND PICKUPS FOR RENT You Drive-Long, Short Trips Move Yourself-Save $4 STILES' BEACON SERVICE Phone 8304 1201 East Main

LOOK TO ROGERS FOR FAMOUS NAMES

Nationally Advertised-Nationally Known!

SHAEFFER ELGIN BULOVA BENRUS GRUEN GENERAL ELECTRIC WALTHAM TELECHRON HELBROS INTERNATIONAL STERLING

HOLMES and EDWARDS 1881 ROGERS EVERSHARP WM. ROGERS and SONS HEIRLOOM DIAMONDS SUNBEAM REMINGTON RAND PARKER MANNING BOWMAN SHAVE MASTER SETH THOMAS LONGINES 1847 ROGERS BROS.

AT THEIR LOWEST CASH PRICE! CONVENIENT DIVIDED TERMS!

No money down... payments as low as $1.25 weekly. No interest or extras.

ROGERS JEWELRY CO.

837 MAIN

Klamath Falls ARMY STORE

TENTS CANVAS CAMP GOODS AUTO SUPPLIES SPORTING GOODS

320 South 6th Between Walnut and Oak. Phone 9206
Mail Orders Promptly Filled—Add Postage—No. C.O.D.'s

Camping Needs!

NEW SHIPMENT SLEEPING BAGS DOWN FILLED REDUCED! Rec'd 12⁹⁵

100% WOOL SLEEPING BAG WITH WATER-REPELLENT OUTSIDE COV. ER, 2 piece outfit at this Amazingly Low Price. Complete. Rec'd 4⁹⁵

One-Man Life Rafts Very compact, CO. cylinder, sail, hand pump. Reclaimed, only $14.95

Portable Phonograph $19.95

American Gas Co. LANTERNS Built to Gov't specifications, new. $7.95 and $8.95

Coleman Compact Camp Stoves New $9.95

One-Man Navy HAMMOCKS With Clews $3.95

Air MATTRESS New Stock Size 26"x76" $17.95

Army Air Corps SLEEPING BAGS Down Filled, Water Repellent, Outside Cover, New $32.50

Navy MESS TRAYS Stainless Steel $1.35

Stainless Steel Knives, Forks, T-Spoons, Table Spoons, Sold in Smaller Quantities. $1.49

Canvas Water Buckets Collapsible, 69c Each

Mountain Pack Boards Pack in on that early fishing trip Rec'd $2.95

Galvanized New WATER CANS Only $1.25

ARMY CANVAS COTS Good Condition, Reclaimed $2.95

PILLOW CASES Good Condition, Large Size Rec'd 6⁰⁰ $2.70

FLITE COVERALLS Very Good Condition Rec'd $2.95

BED SPREADS Make Good Seat Covers, Just a Few Left. Rec'd 95c Each

Mae West LIFE JACKETS Just Like New. Includes 2 CO2 Cartridges. Rec'd $1.95 Each

CANVAS New and Reclaimed, All Sizes 6c to 12c Square Foot

BUNK BEDS (De Luxe)* with springs. Reg. $16.95 $10.50

Time To Do That Spring Painting Gal. Cans 5 Gal. Field Drab 1.25 8.95 Red 1.89 8.95 Green 1.89 8.95 Brown 1.89 8.95 Battleship Gray 3.95 17.95 White 3.95 19.95 LTZ

Coping Saw . . . 79c Coping Saw Blades . . . pkg. 29c 6-lb. Maul, double face . . . $2.25 6-lb. Maul, single face . . . $1.95

Everything Sold On Money-Back Guarantee

Bly Elmer Garey and Ralph Fouts returned home March 10 after a two weeks' business trip to Alabama. Fouts went to Portland from here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obenchain, Bly ranchers, returned home March 6 after spending two days in California. They attended the Graham scientific school of breeding at Sacramento for a week.

George Fullerton and Walter McGinnis were business visitors in The Dalles this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and sons of Pasakenta returned here last week to make their home.

BATES SHOES They're Here! SPRING SLACKS

Sizes 28-42 from 12.50

Now available are 100% wool Gabardine, Bedford cord, Flannel and Herringbone slacks in all colors.

Drum's Manstall

Established 1918 733 Main BOTANY TIES