The largest affair of the year and the highlight of birthday week for the Camp Fire Girls will be the grand council fire of the Klamath Falls council at 7:30 p. m., Friday, in the Fremont school auditorium. Girls will present a program in addition to receiving awards and special badges for their year's work.

Motif of the council fire this year is the general theme of the Camp Fire 35th birthday week, "Going Places," and the girls have based their program on the United Nations charter. About 175 girls from Klamath Falls and outlying communities will attend, some in ceremonial gowns and others in regular Camp Fire uniforms.

The program features and sequence are the entrance to "The Walking Song"; an address by Mrs. J. W. Leonard, Camp Fire executive director; The Camp Fire law; solo by Harriet Lavenik; presentation of symbols of the four corners of the earth in which Charlene Loomis will represent east, Coralle Blickenstaff, south; Mary Egan, north, and Bonnie Goode, west; awarding of ranks and special badges; "The Weggis Song"; the preamble to the United Nations charter, read by Mrs. Leonard; and the recessional to the tune of "America, the Beautiful." Beverly Kohn will be pianist for the evening.

Flu Epidemic Lessens Here

Influenza and severe colds which reached epidemic force in Klamath Falls and the basin area had subsided this week and the city schools reported normal attendance again this week. Hospitals also reported less flu and pneumonia patients as good weather invaded this section.

Public Housing Job Ended For Oregon

PORTLAND, March 20 (AP)—The federal public housing authority has completed its work in the veteran's emergency housing program in Oregon.
So said Jesse Epstein, Seattle, regional director, here yesterday. He added that the FPHA had provided 3726 temporary units for 16 educational institutions and 24 cities in the state.

It was the first of the programs to be completed in the five states of the region.

Admitted—Jim Higgins, employe at Weyerhaeuser Camp 4, was admitted to Hillside hospital late this morning for treatment of pulled tendons in the leg.
