Many a college student hopped aboard the nearest bus, train, car or plane this week to spend spring vacation at home. A number of Klamath Falls students from colleges having vacations now have arrived in the past few days, worn out from a week of final exams and with plans for the immediate future centering around sleep and lots of it! Their bliss will be short-lived because most of them will be heading back to campus and classroom the end of next week.

Marcelyn Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wiggins, arrived last night from the University of Oregon, as did June Bosworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Eleanor Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, and Mary Lou Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton.

Maryellen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright, came home Friday evening from the university. Mildred Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Williams, arrived earlier from Eugene, on Thursday evening. Joan Campbell returned home early Saturday morning from the university to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell.

Margie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Clark, and Maxine Liskay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Liskay, came home together from Oregon State college at Corvallis Thursday night. Joy and Bob Kent arrived from OSC Wednesday evening to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent.

Also here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Palmer, are Barbara and Jim Palmer, students at Oregon State. June Hauger arrived from Oregon State Wednesday evening, and expected to be home Sunday is her sister, Bonnie. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hauger. Bonnie attends the University of Washington.

Shirley Mason, daughter of Mrs. Carl Mason, has as her guest, Charlene Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harmon of Kansas City, Missouri, and former Klamath resident. Both girls attend the University of Oregon.

Arriving Friday were Barbara King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, and Bill Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson, both of OSC. Ruth Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Merrill, is also home, and Patricia Benoit arrived Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benoit.

St. Paul's Guild will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the parish house at Eighth and Jefferson. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

Friday Tea Will Prelude Reames Summer Season

A spring affair which will be the social prelude to their new season will be the tea given by women of Reames Golf and Country club on Friday afternoon, March 28.

The tea, held last year, is hoped to become an annual event to honor new members as well as marking the beginning of Reames spring and summer activities.

The affair will be held at the clubhouse. Mrs. Merle Swanson and her committee are deep in plans for the party. Assisting her are Mrs. Haarby Bechen, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. O. H. Buffington, Mrs. Earl Welmar, Mrs. L. D. Stephens, Mrs. J. R. Shaw, Mrs. Jack Webber and Mrs. John Merryman.

Films Shown

Two short motion picture films were shown on Thursday of this week at the meeting of the Woman's association of the First Presbyterian church. The first depicted scenes of the last week in the life of Christ as it affected others of the time rather than the disciples. The second dealt with modern missionary work among the "untouchables" of India.

The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., pastor, spoke briefly emphasizing the need for greater effort in missionary work, and telling some of the activities of the Western Area conference held recently in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. C. Miller led the devotions. Mrs. Phil Hitchcock entertained with a group of vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

At the close of the meeting, tea was served during the social hour, with Mrs. A. Peterstener and Mrs. Arthur Wilson pouring. Bouquets of forsythia decorated the tea table and the mantel. Mrs. Claude Ferguson and Mrs. J. A. Tyndall were hostesses for the afternoon.

Nile Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Daughters of the Nile will be held at 1 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, April 2, in the Wilma hotel. Hostesses will be Mrs. Wesley McNea, chairman, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. G. C. Motley, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. Victor Josephson, Mrs. Hope Larson, Mrs. Ruby Kenyon, Mrs. Ferne Shoop, Mrs. Elmer Harndon, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. L. H. Craver and Mrs. Louis Serruys.

KLAMATH PEOPLE TROOPED to Eugene by the hundreds last week-end to watch the Klamath Union high school Pelicans place second in the state tournament. Moods of the crowd ranged from near-frenzy to despair in the final championship play-off Saturday evening. These informal pictures taken of Klamath fans seem to indicate that it was a tiring game . . . even for the crowd.

Guild Tea Will Be Post-Easter Event

One of the highlights of the post-Easter season is the annual tea to be given Saturday, April 12, at 1:30 o'clock at the Willard hotel by St. Paul's Guild. This party is given each year by the guild and anticipated by those who have long patronized the affair. The party this year is given on the first Saturday after Easter which falls this year on April 6.

Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, long active in the affairs of St. Paul's church, is general chairman of the party. She has appointed the following committees:

Reservations, Mrs. Raymond Reeves, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe, Mrs. Elsie Siemens, Mrs. Irwin Dixon and Mrs. Martha Barron.

Prizes, Mrs. L. S. Tyrrell and Mrs. Bertha Morgan.

Tea Miss Olive Wilson, chairman; Miss Mary Stewart and Mrs. H. G. Tatum.

Tea table, Lucile Tweed. Tallies, Hazel Morrison. Music, Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

Tickets, Mrs. Loyd Leithead and Mrs. George Boudon. Publicity, Mrs. Neal Stewart.

Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby is in charge of the fancy work table and there will be more on this later. The table will be arranged in one corner of the big room and attractive articles will be on sale.

Choral Society

The Klamath Choral society under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education in the city schools, will make its first public appearance at the next meeting of Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, on Tuesday evening, March 25. Accompanist will be Patricia Hunt.

Members and visiting members whose birthdays are in January, February and March will be specially honored. All members are invited by the worthy matron, Mrs. Howard Listoe, and the worthy patron, Joe Kennedy. Mrs. Walter Beane will be in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Staiger and young son "Bitsy" left Saturday morning for their home at Lake Oswego, near Portland, after spending the past week here as guests of Mrs. Staiger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff of Pacific Terrace.

AAUW To Present Spring Musical Next Saturday

In the Klamath Union high school auditorium on Saturday, March 15, the American Association of University Women, Klamath Falls branch, presented its annual spring musical for the pleasure of its members and friends.

Mr. D. J. Zumwalt, music chairman, provided an interesting program. Contributing to the afternoon's enjoyment were musical selections by Mrs. J. A. O'Neill, Patricia Hunt, Mrs. John O'Connor and Mrs. Zumwalt, pianists; Mrs. Robert Banister and LaVerne Reed, soprano; Mrs. Sam Ackerman, alto, and Charles Selby, baritone.

Lou Ann Chase and Lois Larson assisted with the programs, and David Todd and Nicholas Long with stage arrangements.

Mrs. Harold Teale, tea chairman, asked to assist her, Mrs. A. Bristow Hood, Mrs. Arthur S. Reinhardt, Mrs. Richard B. Westcott and Mrs. C. J. Burrell.

The lace-covered punch table was gay with green shamrocks and green and white decorations carrying out the St. Patrick's Day motif. A group of younger girls, attractive in their spring formal, assisted in serving. They were Patty Teale, Anne Newman, Jean Owens and Frances Stearns.

Recital

Mrs. Sherman Carter of 5600 Harlan drive presented a group of her piano students in recital at her home on Saturday afternoon, March 15. Refreshments were served following the musical selections.

Presenting the program were Richard LaComa, Sharon Thompson, Donald Day, Sharon Reynolds, Beverly Pound, Gary Carpenter, Ray Behnke, Richard Griffiths, Marilyn Hardin, Sally Sayres, Kenneth Franklin, Nancy Elliott, Beverly Fuller, Karen Cross, Kay Behnke, Katherine McCann, Donna Hansen, and Freda Edwards.

Ralph Clark, extension horticulturist from Oregon State college, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Klamath Falls Garden club on Thursday evening, March 27, in the city library clubrooms. The meeting will begin at 7:30 and the public is invited.

Marina Svetlova To Appear Here

Youth, beauty, grace, a woman of infinite talent and intelligence—these describe Marina Svetlova, prima ballerina of the Metropolitan Opera association, who appears here Thursday, April 10, at the Pelican theatre with her touring company composed of Robert Roland, Elena Imaz, and concert pianist, Claude Jean Chasson. Having returned this summer from an extensive South American tour where she caused a sensation, Marina Svetlova has not only appeared in this country and Canada, but in Mexico, Cuba and Australia as well. The New York Tribune said of her dancing: "Marina Svetlova offered the best dancing ever seen at the Met." From the New York Sun: "The Met's ballerina will take your mind off of music." The concert is sponsored by the Klamath Community Concert association.

Born in Paris of Russian parents, Miss Svetlova began dancing at the age of nine, studying with such famous teachers as Preobrajinska, Trefilova and Gzovsky. Her inherent spirit of the dance was immediately recognized, and she was known as the "baby ballerina." Serge Lifar, ballet master of the Grand Opera of Paris, said of her: "All her movements are inspired and her lines enticingly fluid."

Three years later Marina Svetlova won the International Championship of the Dance. Signing with the Original Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo in the early days of the war, the very young artist toured in all previously mentioned countries, as well as performances in the art center of this country which included the Philharmonic Auditorium of Los Angeles, the Chicago and Boston Opera Houses, Carnegie Hall and the Hollywood Theatre of New York.

Internationally famous as a ballerina, she has appeared in many of the world's great theatres.

League Program

"Economics for Everybody," a slide film, will be shown at the regular meeting of the League of Women Voters in the Pelican party room at 2 o'clock Wednesday, March 26.

The narrator will be Mrs. E. Webb-Bowen and the discussion leaders, Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, Mrs. Fred Rueck and Mrs. Q. W. White.

All women in the community are urged to begin now with league members to work toward an understanding of the vitally related problems of economics and government. The program is nation-wide.

Birthdays

Angus and Sara Stewart, children of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart, celebrated their birthday anniversaries Saturday, today, at the family home, 1844 LeRoy.

Traditional birthday cakes were cut after several hours of games. Sara's guests on her 11th birthday arrived in costume and party hours were from 2 to 5 o'clock. Present were, Ruth Alberta Roenicke, Nancy Waxren, Sue Ramsby, Susan and Cecile Vandenberg, Shirley Mattoon, Ann Henderson, Nancy Kellogg, Beverly Hunt, Beverly Lassitt, Betty Lou Tripp, Marilyn Brandt, Lillian Mahan, Patty Garvin, Gale Reinhardt, Annette Jacobs, Susan Schofield, Darlene Guiley and Carol Jean Elliott.

Angus was 13 and his guests will play games and dance in the playroom from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. Invited were, Frances Stearns, Helen Bertram, Patty Teale, Ann Newman, Nancy Kellogg, Beverly Hunt, Beverly Lassitt, Betty Lou Tripp, Marilyn Brandt, Lillian Mahan, Patty Garvin, Gale Reinhardt, Annette Jacobs, Susan Schofield, Darlene Guiley and Carol Jean Elliott.
