How to TRAVEL while you SLEEP

Board Southern Pacific's night train to Portland or San Francisco. Stretch out in a roomy, comfortable berth and let the musical clackety-click of wheels on rails lull you to sleep.

Tomorrow morning you're there, rested and refreshed—ready for a day of work or play. Or ride in comfortable coaches at still lower fares. Overnight service returning, also.

It's the safe, comfortable, time-saving way to travel. Economical, too. For fares and schedules just call:

To Attend Meet—Jack Almeter, manager of the Klamath Falls Oregon State employment office, and Leonard J. Locher, deputy-in-charge of claims, will attend a meeting of managers of 28 local employment offices and a two-day training conference in Portland starting Thursday. Members of the state unemployment compensation committee will give policy talks at the meeting to be held at the Washington hotel in Portland. The conference will be preliminary to area training sessions to be conducted over the state for local office deputies and other employees.

Sisters Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Modrow of Kalama, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tucker of Ridgefield, Wash., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Long, Lakeshore drive, over the past week-end. They are en route home after spending two weeks in southern California. The three women are sisters.

With Office—Mrs. Bernice Patch has accepted the position as secretary in the home demonstration office formerly occupied by Mrs. Ralph Day (Elizabeth Ann Jones). Mrs. Patch, 1748 Mendocino, was employed for five years with the Southern Pacific company as carmen's helper.

Mineral Club—The Klamath Mineral club will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday at the chamber of commerce, 323 Main. The club is a non-technical organization formed to promote the study of the mineral and geological resources of the Klamath basin. The meetings of the club are open to the public.

Lenten Service—Mid-week Lenten services will be held at the Zion Lutheran church, 1025 High, this evening, Wednesday, at 8 o'clock. Appropriate music will be presented by the Zion choir. The public is invited.

Return Home—Mrs. Marion Beal, 815 Fulton, and Earle Lutzman, 522 N. 10th, have returned from Portland where they were called by the death of their mother, Mrs. Mabel Lutzman of Portland who died in that city on March 20. Mrs. Lutzman had made her home here three years ago but has been ill for the past two years and bedridden. Attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Beal and sons, Floyd and Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Lutzman and daughter June, and Russell Beal.

Broadcast—Mrs. Avis McConnell and Mrs. Lucile Warner of the Pelican cafe, will be guests at The Breakfast Club hour to be heard over KFLW tomorrow morning, Thursday, from 8 to 9 a. m. The two women are attending the National Restaurant convention in Chicago and have been invited as guests of Swift and company over ABC. They will return home by way of New Orleans and Los Angeles.

Auxiliary—Members of St. Paul's Woman's auxiliary will meet Thursday at 11:30 a. m. for celebration of Holy Communion. Later the women will gather in the parish house for a sack luncheon and Red Cross sewing. All women of the parish are invited.

Improving—John Stiles, who has been a patient at Hillside hospital since September 6, 1946, when he suffered back injuries in an accident at Rocky Point while working for the Finney Logging company, is said to be improving gradually. He still has a special nurse on duty.

Drill Team—The men's drill team of the Eagles lodge will meet for practice Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in FOE hall. All members are asked to attend as this is the last practice before the convention on Sunday.

Regular Meeting—Canton Crater No. 7 will hold a regular meeting Thursday at 8 p. m. in the IOOF hall. Refreshments will be served.

Assisting—Mrs. Gene Ingels, 1951 Erie, is assisting at the Pelican cafe as morning cashier during the absence of Mrs. Avis McConnell.

Here For Wedding—Mrs. Lewis H. Craver arrived the first of the week to be with her daughter, Sharon Lee Willis, whose marriage to Ralph Thomas Hopkins will be an event of Saturday afternoon. Craver is expected here Friday from the south.

Extension Unit—Medland Extension unit meeting, postponed from Tuesday, will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. August Andrieu. Mrs. Ernest Milani and Mrs. Roy Hauck will demonstrate "Good Grace at the Dining Table."

Improving—Mrs. J. S. Dixon, 65 Prescott, had major surgery Wednesday morning at Klamath Valley hospital and is reported doing nicely.

Local Man Takes Life

Buford S. (Fred) Moreland, 63, took his life at about 10:15 o'clock this morning at the family home, 1717 Old Fort road. The deputy county coroner, called to investigate, said that Moreland apparently used a stove poker to push the trigger on a 12-gauge shotgun. The blast entered the heart and death was instantaneous. Moreland had been in ill health.

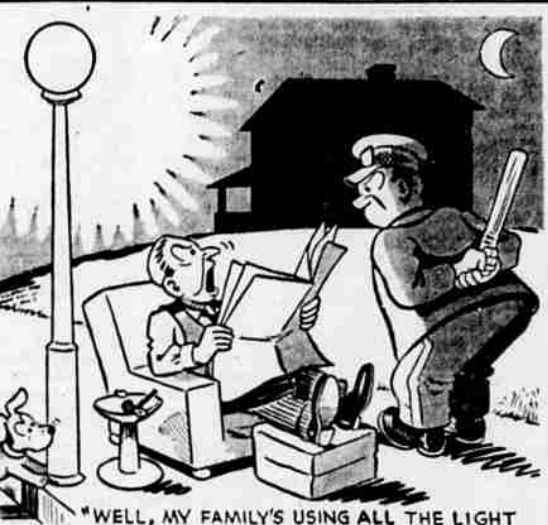

A step-son, George Nelson, was at home at the time but said he did not hear the report of the gun. He walked into the living room and found Moreland in a rocking chair, the gun held between his knees. Moreland had been listening to the radio, Nelson said, when he saw him last. The deceased is survived by his widow, Vanona. The body is at Ward's.

In Hospital—Mrs. Harold P. Patterson, 524 N. 2nd, who fell and fractured her arm yesterday morning, will be a patient at Hillside hospital for several days.

Return North—Mrs. Asahel Bush and Rod Livesly of Salem returned north the early part of the week after visiting here for several days as the house guests of Mrs. Prentice Yeomans of Conger avenue.

"What a thrill to take the wheel of a smart new Oldsmobile..."

You've probably heard this song on your radio—this modern, up-to-the-minute version of that grand old tune, "In My Merry Oldsmobile." And chances are you've heard Oldsmobile owners, too, singing the praises of the 1947 Oldsmobile. What a smart looking car it is! And it's a smart performer, too. No wonder so many people say... "It's SMART to Own an Olds!"

"You'll be fresh when you arrive thanks to Hydra-Matic Drive..."

You go places with less effort in a new Oldsmobile with GM Hydra-Matic Drive*. Yet you get stepped-up performance, better economy, and greater all-round safety.

"Just forget the clutch and gear—all you do is sit and steer..."

Gear shifting is fully automatic with GM Hydra-Matic Drive*. And there's not even a clutch pedal in the car!

"What a happy day it will be for you when your Oldsmobile is here!"

*Hydra-Matic Drive is optional at extra cost.
