Vacationers Head For Sunny Climes

Klamath folks have been going and coming from vacations so rapidly it's becoming something of a task to keep track of them. Many have recently felt the call to sunnier climes and taken off for spring vacations in the southland. . . . all of which is fine for the vacationers but hard on the social whirl which has been reduced to a faint flutter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook have dropped notes to friends from the south where they are enjoying a vacation of several weeks. They stopped at Lake Mead at Boulder City, Nevada, and continued on south from there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw of Pacific Terrace are at home again following a vacation of nearly three months in the southwest and in Florida. Mr. Shaw returned a week before Mrs. Shaw, who remained in Los Angeles where her mother was very ill.

Speaking of the Shaws . . . their daughter, Wanda, and Nancy Sampson of Eugene spent a few days of spring vacation from the University of Oregon at the Keith Leslie summer home near Bandon as guests of Kay Leslie. Wanda arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday.

Wilford E. Lamm was a recent visitor at his home at Modoc Point, returning south to join his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bogue of Merrill, and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Klamath Falls. A family dinner was enjoyed at the Bogue rancan Wednesday evening. Mr. Bogue is head geologist with the New Jersey Zinc company at Golden.

A visitor here this week was Richard Bogue and his young daughter, Beverly, who arrived from Golden, Colorado, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bogue of Merrill, and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Klamath Falls. A family dinner was enjoyed at the Bogue rancan Wednesday evening. Mr. Bogue is head geologist with the New Jersey Zinc company at Golden.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark plan to leave Sunday morning for Portland to spend the greater part of the week. Their children, Dick and Nancy, will spend spring vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bogue of the Merrill section.

Mrs. James H. Hilton and daughter Jean, will leave Sunday morning for Eugene, where they will attend the wedding of Mrs. Hilton's cousin, Leola Deffenbacher, University of Oregon senior, and William Simonds Jr., Oregon State college student. The ceremony will be read at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist church and at the reception, Mrs. Hilton will serve the wedding cake. Mrs. Hilton and Jean expect to return immediately after the wedding.

June Selstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Selstrom, 905 North Ninth street, spent the past week in Portland and Marylhurst. She was the guest of Mary Vandenberg, daughter of Circuit Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg at Marylhurst

Tea Plans

Plans for the post-Easter bridge party and tea sponsored by the guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church are rapidly being completed and reservations for the affair are being made this coming week.

The party, one of the largest of the spring season, is scheduled for the Willard hotel Saturday afternoon, April 12, the first Saturday after Easter Sunday.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Raymond Reeves, but she will be in Portland this coming week, and members of her committee are taking calls. Reservations may be made with Mrs. W. A. Barron, telephone 6506; Mrs. James Swanson, 6683; Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe, 4788; Mrs. Warren Bennet, 4325; Mrs. E. G. Gockner, 8376; Mrs. Irving Dixon, 3968; Mrs. Elsie Siemsen, 6952. Also working on the committee is Mrs. Dora Goddard. Mrs. R. Henry Anderson is general chairman and all women of the city are issued a cordial invitation to play cards or drop in for tea later.

Entertained

Recently, Senators Marshall Cornett, Carl Engdahl, and Representative Henry Semon and their wives entertained at a dinner dance at the Marion hotel. Quite a number were caused by the St. Patrick's Day decorations with a buffet table centerpieces of green carnations with a shamrock and Irish hat, green tapers in potato holders, and among other clever touches, green cellophane shamrocks on the mirrors of the Salem hotel.

Group Gathers For Party Tuesday Eve

Members and guests of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, gathered in the Winema hotel party room on Tuesday evening, March 25, for a dessert party. The Easter theme was used in carrying out the decorations, and court whist was enjoyed. Prizes were awarded to Norma Steuben and Mrs. Jules Napier. The special award went to Mrs. W. E. Sherfy. In charge of the affair were Mrs. George Wright, Lois Rumer, Doris McCord and Mrs. William Taverner.

Ventura Club Has Potluck Supper
Mary Bothwell and Marjorie Ongman entertained members of the Ventura club on Tuesday evening, March 18, at Miss Bothwell's home, on Cannon street. A potluck supper and games were features of the evening.

Rehearsal Party Held Friday Eve At Hopkins Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sumner Hopkins entertained at their home, 1865 Melrose, Friday evening following the rehearsal of the Hopkins-Willits wedding party in the First Methodist church at 9 o'clock. The ceremony with Sharon Lee Willits and Tom Hopkins exchanging vows, was an event of 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Cocktails followed by supper were served by the Hopkins, and their guests included Sharon Lee and Tom, Mr. and Mrs. William Tomison (Sylvia Hopkins), Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Craver of Oakland, Calif.; Marceley Wiggins, Dolores Marsh of Portland, and Carmen Lee Jones, the bride's attendants; Barbara King, Bill Wilson and Harold Campbell.

After School

An after-school party Monday afternoon was a gay celebration of the birthday of Stephen Molatore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Molatore. Stephen was eight years old, and invited to his birthday at the Molatore home on Eldorado street were a group of his second grade classmates.

A big birthday cake was the center of attraction, and during the afternoon the boys played baseball.

Stephen's guests were George Goehring, Vannice Coleman, Lowell Newton, Douglas Van Buskirk, Allen Hahn, David Macartney, Carl Hunt, Bob Harbart and David Molatore, Stephen's brother.

Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dirschl have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Evelyn, to Melvin Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Carlson, all of this city. The couple will exchange vows on August 31.

Both are graduates of Klamath Union high school, Miss Dirschl in 1941 and Carlson in 1944. After his discharge from the army air corps, Mr. Carlson enrolled at Southern Oregon college at Ashland where he is now studying.

Wednesday Meeting Scheduled by Club
Members of the AAUW afternoon book group will meet at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 2, at the home of Mrs. A. D. Addison, Lakeshore drive. Mrs. Paul Buck will review a book on Russia.

Easter Sets Theme For Recent Tea

Easter baskets, spring flowers and all the spring of the season set the theme for the annual Sojourners' spring tea, highlighting the group's club season. One hundred and eighteen guests and members enjoyed the affair which was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Willard hotel.

Mrs. C. G. Hooper was chairman of the tea, assisted by Mrs. C. W. Fyock, Mrs. A. G. Kusler, Mrs. A. M. Compton, Mrs. R. E. Craney and Mrs. A. S. Reinhardt.

Mrs. H. R. Kirchan and Mrs. John B. Lister presided at the tea table which was pretty with its Easter basket centerpiece, flanked with pussy willows and daffodils and yellow tapers.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Lin Miles, who was ill, Mrs. John B. Lister, vice president, welcomed guests.

Bridge was played later in the day with awards going to Mrs. Jacob Koenig Jr., Mrs. A. J. Honzel, Mrs. J. J. Doyle, Mrs. J. Ashley, Mrs. C. Dakin, Mrs. G. B. Inman and Mrs. Lee Musselman. Mrs. Don Harlan received the tea table centerpiece as a special award.

Final Program

The public is invited to the final concert of this season's recital programs on Sunday, March 30, at 2:30 o'clock in the Sacred Heart school of music. This group of high school students will present both vocal and instrumental numbers. Songs in many languages, attractive piano ensemble productions, and the new vocal and string ensembles will highlight the afternoon's concert.

The students presented are Darlene Smith, Joan Murphy, Joan Moore, Margaret Wedel, Patricia Knoll, Gwendolyn Somers, Harriet Lavank, Ellen O'Keefe, Susan Gans, Theresa Wessel, Patricia O'Leary, Georgia Rose, Marian Newman, Patricia Clark, Gertrude Calhoun, Elizabeth Andersen, Alice Baker, Phillip Clark, Ellen Murphy, Donna Provost, Janice Larson and Hazel Vines. Elaine Abbott and Donna Powers will assist on the program.

Miss O'Brien has recently completed her work for graduation and started earning credits toward her high school teaching credentials. Miss McLean will complete her senior year at the end of this spring term. Miss Fleming is a graduate of San Jose State, where she is a part-time mathematics teacher in the college while working for her master's degree at Stanford. Majoring in chemistry, Miss Brown is now a junior student at San Jose State.

Saturday Party
Some 60 guests attended a Saturday night party last weekend when Mrs. Prentice Yeomans and Mrs. Martin Ramsby entertained for Mrs. Asahel Bush of Salem. Spring flowers decorated the party rooms. After a brief visit, Mrs. Bush returned to her home in Salem by plane Monday.
