

General Meeting Held By Society

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church was held March 20 at the church with Mrs. Earl Redman, president, in charge.

Discussed were the zone meeting and luncheon at the church on March 27, when some 60 delegates are expected, and an international tea in April, which will be open to all interested in racial problems.

Mrs. Hurndon has charge of making arrangements for the visit of the Willamette university choir which will present a concert in Klamath Falls April 14.

The society hopes to be able to present the Sunday school song book to Rev. Ayres of Tulelake. Martha circle had charge of the tea which followed. Tea was served from an attractive lace-covered table, centered with a bowl of daffodils and blue iris. Mrs. Casper poured.

More New Suits are in at WHYTAL'S... there's a push-up version part of the way, ending in wide fitted cuffs that enhance the fullness above. The waist is snug-fitting... the skirt slim... and the whole effect finished off with carved gold buttons.

In contrast to this number is a cedar bark bolero suit... having an all-around pleated skirt... and the short jacket is on the boxy side. Very youthful!

A gray-blue wool crepe just in at Whytal's has a simulated vest front high-lighted by buttons of dull silver... and has a front slit skirt. More on the casual side is a suit designed by Chappi for which he uses striped woolen of gray and white for the belted jacket topping a plain skirt of fine gray wool.

Additional arrivals of tailored shades in this Spring's leading Kirshmoor suit and top-coat... of mist gray... elegantly simple in cut... and the lining of dark, dark brown gives an effective contrast.

Among new headwear arriving regularly at WHYTAL'S in the Medical-Dental Building, Main at Ninth... are the high-fashion Thorntons, as well as fussy, flowery types... so when you're trying on a suit, select a hat to give it dash!

Briefer Coats and Shorties comprise a new collection of Spring toppers on display in the ready-to-wear department of LaPOINTE'S... As its name implies, the "Briefer" is a still shorter version in coats... flaring at the hipline... while the Shortie extends to finger-tip length or more.

Fashioned of gabardine or suede fabrics... all have attractive style details such as swaggar backs, rolled collars, full sleeves and button trims... and either type is ideal and comfortable for wearing over suits right now or over summery frocks later.

There's a variety of lovely shades... pink, aqua, Kelly, blue, champagne, red, gray and black... in this coat selection at LaPOINTE'S... 507 Main... and prices run from $29 to $39.

Ladies' Watches are still among the scarcities... so Martha's glad to pass along the news that RICKY'S has received a good-sized shipment of Elgins, Hamiltons and other famous makes... and they're now on display for your "graduation gift" selection.

Included in these new arrivals are dainty wrist watches in plain designs or with diamond sets... watches made especially for nurses, having the sweep second hand... and a variety of masculine styles for the young man graduate.

Inasmuch as RICKY'S JEWELERS... 700 Main... has the lay-away payment plan, you'll be wise to drop in right away while the selection's complete... or have your choice laid away... just say "cheer up, please!"

Short boxy coats with a circular hemline or long topers with parachute fullness and bat-wing sleeves help create the new silhouette for fuller clothes.

Yardage Displays at MILLER'S are beginning to look more like pre-war times... with some type of fabric suitable for almost any garment... and now that there's talk of Spring formals, you'll be interested to know that the yardage department has an outstanding color array in eyelet embroidery... white, blue, brown and navy... at $3.50 per yard.

Four shades in luscious chiffon velvet... are now available here priced at only $2.95 a yard... and for sophisticated elegance, there's satin-back crepe in white or black... and a gleaming rayon satin in pink, blue or black. For exquisite blouses or formals, Miller's has rayon lace yardage in a gorgeous peach shade... as well as black and white... at $7.95 per.

The choice of materials for summer frocks includes the well-known Cohama Fabrics in sheer spun rayon prints at $1.65 a yard... imported pure linen of fast color... in brown, apple green, maize, blue or black... for $2.65 a yard... and four beautiful shades in "butcher" linen at $1.98.

For lightweight suits, the yardage department in MILLER'S... 512 Main... has striped tealaine rayon suiting at $1.98 a yard... and the brilliant percales of fruitie designs or plain colors... for 69 cents... are ideal for play clothes.

An old-fashioned triple bay window can be converted into a cozy nook by curtaining the windows in double-decker lengths of inexpensive cotton prints and cushioning the seat in a bright color that echoes the curtains.

Chic Blouses... more of those beckoning Mode de Paris creations... have added further allure to the wide variety being received this Spring by LONG'S... and these, in short-sleeved styles, are just as exquisite as the long-sleeved numbers. Martha was raving over awhile back.

Square necklines are set off by bow trims and hemstitched fronts, giving them a simple but classic effect... and these come in a deep shade of aqua crepe, white or black. Another, more demure, style has a tiny collar encircling a high neckline... and includes a sunny maize and blossom pink, in addition to the above colors.

LONG'S APPAREL... 719 Main... has all other accessories for your Easter outfit or gift... striking costume jewelry, dainty hankies, compacts, and Attract hosiery, a pair of which is always welcome.

"More Please" is the amusing hungry animal book that's new at SHAW'S... but it's really more like a game, for a box container on the inside holds cut-outs of each animal's favorite food... and a child will sit for hours, feeding the animals.

"Pat the Bunny" is another book-game made for the littlest children. Containing a surprise on every page, it's vastly entertaining... and either of these make inexpensive Easter remembrances for the preschool youngster.

Two appropriate Easter season books for juveniles... have with sparkling illustrations... have just arrived, too. "The Golden Egg Book" has a gigantic egg, fascinatingly colored on the front cover... and through its pages hops a floppy-eared rabbit, busily solving the mystery of an egg.

"The White Bunny and His Magic Nose" has a delightfully different appeal because a child can "feel" this bunny who goes scampering through the barnyard, using magic on all its inhabitants.

Look for these among the wonderful selection of Easter gifts on display at SHAW STATIONERY CO... 729 Main.

Make-Up Kits are an ideal Easter gift... with vacation travels not far off... and CURRIN'S has a selection of cosmetics fitted kits bearing three outstanding names... Helena Rubinstein, Coty and Tussv.

Rubinstein's wily Week-ENDER... filled with preparations specifically compounded for normal or oily skins, including Heaven Sent complexion powder... provides you with a veritable traveling dressing table... for only $7.50 and tax. Currin's also has a larger, overnight size traveling kit... containing a complete selection of beauty items in pretty glass holders... for $35.00 plus tax.

Tussy's make-up kit... for $7.50 and tax... has an adjustable strap for over-the-shoulder wear... and in addition to creams, powder, lotions, rouge and lipstick, has a comb and a small bottle of Tussy's Estrellita fragrance.

The Vigilante" kit... put out by Coty... is fitted for special size containers that can be replenished from standard sizes... and among its items are Sub-Deb lipstick and rouge, incredibly soft Air-Spun powder and Sub-Tint. Price on this is $8.50 plus tax.

All of these kits on display at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS... corner of Ninth and Main, are fashioned of good quality, simulated alligator... and are in convenient handbag sizes.

Glamorous new bouffant styles from Paris feature "delinators" or a broad-cut principle of design that provides bust support, enabling the sheerest nightie to discipline curves.

Scripture Cards... lovely in coloring and design... to carry a sabbatical Easter message... are available in large selection at THE BETTER BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE... and they're ever so moderately priced at five and ten cents.

The clever "Corky" plaques that kiddies love for their own rooms are back again... and, in addition to the ones we've become familiar with, there's a new design "The Sleepy Babies" that's adorable. Nice for a tot's Easter gift are the bunny or chickie plaques. These are hand-made by a Klamath woman... and can be purchased individually or in sets... from $1.00 to $2.25.

Of course, the appropriate Easter gift is a Bible... of BETTER BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE... at 126 So. 8th... has all sizes.

There's a show of hands in glove styles this spring, featuring new colors, screen-printed designs, Gay Nineties revivals and detachable trimmings. White doekies are polka dotted... or cream-tinted pigskins... or gantlets are "petticoated" with perforated scalloped ruffles... and a black suede slip-on spring a surprise with detachable gold lace cuffs.
