

Klamath County Welfare Fund Expenditure To Be Cut From $6500 To $5500

With the announcement by the state welfare commission that the budget of expenditures for general assistance during the month of April would be drastically reduced, Mrs. Altha Urquhart announced that the county's expenditures would be cut from $6500 to $5500, which the county feels is the extreme minimum under which the department can operate.

In announcing the reduction, Mrs. Urquhart stated that although the county was well financed, it was forced to make the cut on an equal proportion with the cut made by the state. She pointed out that Klamath county had the lowest per capita assistance rate in the state at 47¢ as compared with the state as a whole at $1.50.

Mrs. Urquhart also stated that along with the reductions, relatives of persons on relief would be asked to shoulder more of the burden, and all able-bodied single men would be asked to take advantage of private welfare agencies. The welfare department also plans to give the county-owned medical facilities to better advantage in taking more patients from the private institutions.

Mrs. Urquhart pointed out that the problem of welfare and the reduction in the budget was the affair of the entire community, and that much more of the burden of helping those unable to help themselves would fall upon the citizens of the community.

Farm Expert To Speak Here

Lowell Sten of Milton-Freewater, president of the Oregon Farm Bureau and nationally-known authority on farm problems and legislation, will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Klamath Basin cooperative, scheduled for April 9.

The session will get under way at 10 a. m. in the Legion hall at Tulelake. William G. Stacey, auditor, will give the annual report. Luncheon will follow at 11:30 a. m., and entertainment will be presented. The public is invited.

Gilchrist Students Shown Movies

GILCHRIST — The Gilchrist school students have recently been entertained with two National School Assemblies programs and a movie.

The first NSA program was Bobo the mascot who kept the audience laughing and puzzled throughout the performance. The other assembly was "The Christians" who showed a movie in technicolor titled "The River of No Return."

The senior class of Gilchrist high school sponsored a movie "Here Come the Co-Eds" which also provided entertainment for the students.

Deafened People May Now Hear Clearly

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Bellone, Dept. 6114, 1450 West 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. Sackett Buys Seattle Star

SEATTLE, March 31 (AP)—The Seattle Star was sold today to Sheldon F. Sackett of Coos Bay, Ore., heading a group known as the Sackett Radios and Newspapers.

The transfer of the paper awaits certain legal work which will be completed promptly and Howard W. Parish, present publisher, will remain as general manager, a statement said. No changes in the present staff are planned.

Sackett, who also recently acquired the Vancouver, Wash., Sun, announced that under his plans all stock in the newspaper will be owned exclusively by men active in the conduct of the paper. The new masthead will carry additional wording: "The peoples' newspaper" and the phrase "owned by the men who run it, and run by the men who own it."

House Passes River Closing

SALEM, March 31 (AP)—The house passed 39 to 19 and sent to the governor late Saturday the bill to close the Umpqua river and its tributaries for six years to commercial fishing.

The battle over the bill lasted for an hour, with sports fishermen winning over the commercial fishermen.

However, before the bill goes to the governor, the senate must act on a house amendment which provided that the Smith river also be included in the closure. As originally passed by the senate, the Smith river was the only tributary which was exempted from the closure.

Packard Announces All-New Convertible

This 1948 Super-Eight Convertible "new from the tires up," with quantity production scheduled for June, has just been announced by the Packard Motor Car Company as a supplement to its present Clipper line.

Among many standard features of the car, described as "America's first all-new postwar convertible" and shown above, are "flush-contour" styling and a new 145-horsepower engine cradled in a specially built frame.

There are no rear fenders, the body itself sweeping over the wheels. All windows, front seat and top are power-operated. The instrument panel, with keys that push for both "on" and "off," has dial illumination of "black light," which eliminates night-time glare.

The distinctive front end design, company officials point out, serves and enhances Packard identity.

Dodds Nearly Better Own Indoor Mark

CHICAGO, March 31 (AP)—About the time it takes you to wink—that's how close Gil Dodds came to bettering his American indoor mile record in the Chicago relays Saturday night.

He tore by the quarter-mile mark in 59 seconds, covered the half in 2:02, reached three-quarters in 3:05 then lagged to a 1:01.8 for the final 440 yards to be clocked at 4:06.8.

Although this was the fastest time of the season, it was 2/5 second shy of matching the accepted American record he set in the 1944 Chicago relays when Billy Hulse of the New York AA breathed on the Divinity student through 10 laps, pressing him to his best effort.

Dodds said today he possibly would have beaten his record Saturday had the competition been a bit keener. He held a half lap margin most of the way over Gerald Karver of Penn State, who finished that distance behind him in second place.

Dog Trials Set For Ritzville

SPOKANE, March 31 (AP)—The Pacific Coast Championship Dog association field trials will be run off at Ritzville April 3-6. President Harold Shaw said today. Previously scheduled for Waterville, the trials were shifted because of spring planting at the original site.

Four-H News

"Snip and Sew"

A Clothing I, 4-H club was organized on February 10, at the Malin school enrolling 33 members from the fifth and sixth grades. The following officers were elected: Geraldine King, president; Bertra Shogren, vice president; and Barbara Cornett, secretary. The projects of the club include making of needle cases, sewing bags, and scarfs or table cloths.

A regular meeting for work and discussion is held each Monday afternoon at 3:15.

The name chosen for our club was "Snip and Sew."

Cascade Summit Tool Shop Burns

CASCADE SUMMITT, March 31 — A fire which came near burning Elmer Adkison's tool shop to the ground broke out Wednesday morning by the backfire of a gasoline engine's igniting the gasoline in the tank of the engine. Adkison tried to extinguish the flame but was overcome by the fumes from the fire extinguisher which he was using. Mrs. Adkison called the S. P. station agent and Vern Law and his men who were at the station at the time responded and extinguished the fire.

Adkison, while not becoming unconscious, has been recuperating from the effects of the fumes which he inhaled.
