

Thursday Meeting Features Reviews

The G. A. B. Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Dixie Beber, 3540 South Sixth street, Thursday, March 27, at 7:30 p. m. There being no birthday for March, the only gifts exchanged were St. Patrick's Day remembrances and cards.

An enjoyable evening was spent in book reviews, story telling and sewing. Refreshments were served to Ora Gienger, Marie Metler, Gladys Metler, Mildred Langer, Mrs. Gladys Hull, Irma Miller, Betty Hunter, Margaret Santo, Etta Plasker, Pat Patrick, Lela Thurman, Rosalia Jones, and the hostess, Mrs. Dixie Beber. The only member not present was Mrs. Lucille Halvorsen, who is visiting with her daughter and family in Idaho.

The first meeting of the year was held January 10 at the home of Mrs. Etta Plasker, 712 Mitchell, honoring the birthdays of Ora Gienger, Lela Thurman and Gladys Hull.

The second meeting, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Marie Metler was held on her birthday, February 13, at the home of Mrs. Mildred Langer, 2931 Bissbee street.

The Royal Neighbors of America served a potluck dinner to about 45 members and guests Friday in honor of members whose birthdays were in January, February and March. Anna Shafer received the birthday gift.

Lola Myers and Connie Campbell were in charge of the arrangement and serving of the dinner.

Following dinner the lodge held its regular meeting. Visiting members were introduced and honored. Two of the guests were from Billings, Mont., and are now making their home here and plan to transfer to the local lodge.

Three candidates were obligated. Further plans for the district convention which will be held June 13, were made. During the meeting songs for the convention were practiced.

Plans for an Easter egg hunt Sunday, April 6, were made, to be held at Moore park at 1 o'clock. All Royal Neighbor juveniles are cordially invited to attend. Persons wishing transportation may phone 7613 or 6805.

Several sick Neighbors were remembered and cards and flowers were sent to them. Inez McCoy received the special award for the evening. The fancy drill team and officers practiced after lodge.

Visitors
POE VALLEY—Visitors of the J. L. Benedicts have been Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Blakely, their cousins, from Wisconsin. They arrived on March 28 and are enjoying a lengthy trip throughout the country. They left Monday to return east by the northern route.

The Benedicts entertained for their guests at dinner Sunday. Others present were Bonnie Hankins, Gene Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Lewis, Don Lewis, Lyle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore, Mrs. L. I. Moore, Al Carpenter, Wally Fleet and Helen Benedict.

Former Residents
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pearson, recently of Klamath Falls, have returned to their former home in Medford where they will reside. They entertained friends and relatives at their home for Sunday dinner last week in celebration of Mr. Pearson's birthday anniversary. Later in the day they motored to Grants Pass to visit relatives.
