

Water Meet Set Monday

Water forecast business, dealing with predictions on irrigation water runoff for the coming year, will be discussed Monday, April 7, at 9:30 a. m. in the Klamath County chamber of commerce directors' room.

This is the western snow conference of the southwestern division. It will be attended by representatives of various state organizations, including soil conservation, bureau of reclamation, and agriculture.

Treatment—Kenneth Campbell, one of a pair of 11-month-old twins, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Campbell of Tennant, Calif., is receiving medical care at Hillside hospital.

Will Rogers Jr. On College Board

FARRAGUT, Idaho, April 3 (AP)—Will Rogers Jr., former congressman from California, will head a southern California campaign to attract students to Farragut college and technical institute, President H. Kusner said today.

The son of the celebrated humorist yesterday accepted appointment as a director of the school, the first such out-of-state appointment to be made.

Opposition Grows On Hospital Bill

PORTLAND, April 3 (AP)—The legislature has been asked by the Oregon Prison association to override Governor Snell's veto of the bill authorizing use of Camp White hospital as a mental institution.

Mrs. John R. Catlin, Portland, was elected president and Dr. Robert H. Dann, Corvallis, and Jack R. Parson, Eugene, were named vice presidents at the association's annual meeting yesterday.

Soap Plant Workers Given Pay Boost

PORTLAND, April 3 (AP)—M. Hood Soap company workers have accepted a flat 15 cent an hour wage increase and returned to work today after a week long strike.

Leo Benedict, business agent for the 40 employees, said the company also agreed to pay 50 per cent of a group medical plan. The new scale establishes a $1.10 an hour minimum for beginners. The union originally asked 25 cents an hour wage boost.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating? Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.
