

Easter Song At Baptist

The choir of the First Baptist church, N. 8th and Washington, will present an Easter cantata entitled, "The Glory of Easter," by Edward W. Norman Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

The Easter music is under the direction of Sheldon Russell, and the choir consists of 25 voices. The cantata combines the finest in religious music with a scriptural and spiritual presentation of the Easter story. A capacity attendance is expected and the public is urged to be present in time for the opening number. It is suggested that those attending come early.

Following is the program for the Easter Service:

- Congregational Singing led by Sheldon Russell
- Prayer Mrs. Sheldon Russell, pianist
- Offertory Selected The Glory of Easter by Edward W. Norman
- Rejoice, the Lord is Risen choir
- Hosanna in the Highest (bass solo, men's chorus and choir)
- Gordon Robinson, soloist
- Then They Took Jesus (men's chorus, soprano solo, and choir)
- Esther Robinson, soloist
- There is a Green Hill Far Away (women's trio) Esther Robinson, Grace Russell and Carol Peterson.
- Behold the Angel of the Lord (men's chorus and choir)
