

Klamath Beats Medford

Pete, George To Wrestle No-Time Tilt

Georges Dusette and Pete Belcastro have finally agreed to a continuation of their struggle to determine a challenger for the Weidner light heavy belt. This time it will be a no-time-limit, 2-out-of-3 fall battle in the main event spot Thursday night at the armory.

After last week's fiasco which was supposed to determine a man to fight Weidner and turned out, instead, to be a rough and tumble draw; both Dusette and Belcastro felt that they had shown enough stuff to be in the challenger class. Neither wished to repeat a fight, but both could not battle Weidner. Finally Promoter Mack Lillard got them to agree to wrestle a no-time job for the challenger role.

Billy Weidner, the belt holder, will also be on the card that night, but of necessity will fight in the second event spot. His opponent has not been decided, but with Weidner at the controls, it will be a good fight.

Graziano Training Again

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, April 5 (AP)—Rock-a-bye Rocky Graziano, who had his New York boxing license revoked for not reporting a "fix" offer he didn't accept, is back in training again, and there's a chance a movie camera, as well as another fellow's fist, may be taking shots at his chin before long.

Some time in the next couple of weeks he's going to ask the New York Athletic Commission to make him a member in good standing again. And mild Erving Cohen, his manager, insists that if the fistie fathers turn him down, he'll take his thumping trade elsewhere.

Right now, Rocky's return shot at Middleweight Champ Tony Zale's crown figures to make beautiful music on the turnstiles.

If the commission makes with the old thumbs down, Rocky and Tony will likely do their cauliflower planting in Chicago, where it's already penciled in tentatively for June, or in Cleveland.

If that bout blows up, though, he'll campaign around the countryside, all the way to California—which is where those movie cameras come in.

Irving says a week or so ago a Hollywood agent, one Jack Beekman, got the idea Rocky might make a movie actor.

"Interested in making movies?" Rocky laughs. "Sure—why not? What's Charles Boyer got that I haven't got—and where can you learn a French accent?"

Oregon-OSC Relays Today

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 5 (AP)—The Oregon-Oregon State relays, inaugurating the northern division track season, are scheduled for this afternoon after having been postponed yesterday because of rain. Four Oregon State mainstays have been declared ineligible because of grades, last spring's sensational frosh miler, Dick Petterson, is on the sidelines due to illness and Marvin Wilt, 1943 letterman, was lost to the squad when he broke a leg while skiing. The Beavers defeated Oregon 6-2 last year.

880 Relay Win Gives KUHS Tilt

Klamath Falls thineclads galloped to a definite win over a strong Medford high school track squad Friday to the tune of 68 to 59 points.

The 880-yard relay decided the meet for Klamath Falls in the fast time of 1:34.7.

Bud Brown was outstanding for Klamath Falls, having placed second in both the 100 and 220 and anchoring his team to a win in both the 440-yard and 880-yard relay.

Joe Zarosinski and Ervin Whitt shared high point honors with 10 points apiece. Eight first places were garnered by each team.

The Pelican squad again travels to Medford next Friday to race in the Little Hayward relays. This meet will be run by the four conference schools.

Feature race—Shubert (KF), Mottern (M), Rose (KF), 6.3.

Wildlife 'Holiday' Blasted

The proposal of the National Audubon society for a one-year moratorium on the hunting of migratory waterfowl has been drawing lots of local comment, but most of the Klamath sportsmen seem agreed that such a moratorium would be fine for the east but unnecessary in the west.

The Audubon society proposal came through on March 21 in an article by John H. Baker, president, writing in the society magazine in which he said: "The National Audubon society advocates that hunting of migratory waterfowl in North America be discontinued for a year, with the understanding that during that time basic revisions of management and regulation policies will be worked out and adopted."

Baker also urged, "Let's go right on buying duck stamps during the year of a halt in the kill. Let's encourage general public participation in the purchase of stamps."

This proposal drew a blast from Maryland duck hunters and their state game warden, Ernest A. Vaughn, who branded the suggestion as "untimely and ridiculous."

Vaughn declares, "There is no reason that I can see for rushing into a closed season at this time and every reason in the world for waiting until the United States fish and wildlife service makes its decision from assembled facts."

The consensus of local opinion seems to agree with Vaughn and many believe that no matter what the wildlife decision is, it is not necessary in the west.

Giants Close Indian Series With Victory

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 5 (AP)—The New York Giants closed out their exhibition series with the Cleveland Indians yesterday preparatory to heading back to the Polo Grounds with a 10-6 victory that ran their unbeaten string to six straight.

The Giants twice drew level with the tribe on home runs by Willard Marshall in the fifth and seventh innings. They went ahead to stay when Johnny Mize walloped a grand slam homer in the eighth.

MIAMI, Fla., April 5 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns were scheduled for an off day today but Manager Muddy Ruel, not sparing the horses in trying to whip together a first division outfit, notified all hands to report at Miami field for a two-hour workout.

The Browns dropped yesterday's exhibition to the Philadelphia Athletics 1-0.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 5 (AP)—Effervescent Charlie (Red) Barrett, who was to have pitched against the Barons at Birmingham yesterday, will do that little stunt today for the Boston Braves against the Lookouts here.

Manager Billy Southworth, whose squad is in tip-top condition, has indicated that Mort Cooper will hurl against the same club tomorrow.

Newhouser Twists Back But Not Bad

NEW ORLEANS, April 5 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers' much-lauded pitching staff suffered its first bad break of the year last night when southpaw Hal Newhouser twisted his back, but Manager Steve O'Neill is not greatly concerned about his ace.

Hal should be back in shape "in a few days," O'Neill said confidently when asked if the blond left-hander would be on the mound as scheduled when the Bengals open the 1947 American league season against the Browns in St. Louis April 15.

"He just caught a spike in the mound and twisted his back a bit," the Tiger boss added. "He ought to be all right in three, four or five days."

SAN BRUNO, Calif., April 5 (AP)—Galla Damon, co-holder of a world's spring record, was an unofficial 5-2 favorite today in the six-furlong $10,000-added Vigilante handicap at Tanforan track.

5-Man ABC Title Goes To St. Louis

LOS ANGELES, April 5 (AP)—Members of the famed Hermann Undertaker team of St. Louis will be back gunning for more prize checks in the American Bowling Congress tourney today, after taking the top spot in the five-man competition with a mighty 2992 blast late last night. Thousands were turned away, as the initial invasion of "name" teams from the east went into action. The army building, which is housing the 36 new lanes, is limited to 3000 seats and every bit of its space was jammed with standing room at a premium.

The Hermanns, who hold the all-time league record of 3797, are former world match champions and finished tenth in the ABC last year with 2942. Opening with 961, the Mount City Rollers followed with 1015 and 1016 in beating the El Charros of Lodi, Calif., former leaders, by 107 pins.

Unbeaten Padres Top PCL

By The Associated Press
San Diego's Padres were right on top in the Pacific Coast league standing today, the only unbeaten outfit after four straight victories over Casey Stengel's Oakland outfit.

San Diego whipped the Oaks again last night, to 4, behind the effective twirling of Al Treichel, while Los Angeles, after three straight wins over Portland, bowed to the Oregonians, 7 to 2. Jack Mooty, a former Angel, handcuffed his ex-mates with six hits. Russ Bauers, Angel starting hurler, went to the showers in the seventh.

San Francisco's Seals slammed Ike Pearson for 10 hits and won as they pleased from Seattle, 5 to 1, to take over second place in the standing with Los Angeles. The Seals' young hurler, Bob Chesnes, held the Rainiers to seven well-spaced safeties.

Hollywood couldn't manufacture a run against Sacramento as Hugh Orphan held them to seven hits in pitching Sacramento to a 3 to 0 victory in another night contest. It was Orphan's first appearance. He is a graduate of the Sacs' farm club at Wenatchee of the Western International league.

Sacramento drew 2156, Los Angeles 2223, San Diego 5002 and San Francisco 5105 for a league total of 14,486.

Extra Charge For Fishing Licenses Downed

SALEM, April 5 (AP)—The senate defeated a house bill Friday which would have permitted sporting goods stores and other agencies which act as agents for the state game commission to pocket a proposed 25-cent extra charge for fishing and hunting licenses.

"Buffer Strip" Cultivation May Improve Hunting

An improvement in wildfowl shooting conditions in the Tulelake area was indicated in a recent letter published in the Siskiyou Daily News from William T. Krummes, acting chief of the division of wildlife refuges. This letter plans the use of "buffer strips" for the feeding of waterfowl on the leased land at the Tulelake wildlife refuge.

Krummes' letter to J. O. McKinney, agricultural commissioner in Yreka, Calif., says:

I am very glad to have your communication of March 7 explaining further the waterfowl situation as you see it in the vicinity of the Tulelake national wildlife refuge.

Your comments are very well taken and do shed further light on the situation. The whole matter is, however, overshadowed with an overcast of commercialism and private interests, and it is only through aggressive action and cooperation on the part of all concerned that we are even approaching a solution to the overall problem.

Despite the fact that there are some 33,000 acres within the Tulelake refuge, there are actually only 1500 acres that the fish and wildlife service can intensively manage for waterfowl crop production. This is an area of so-called "buffer strips" that have been made available to us by the bureau of reclamation for the raising of crops for the feeding of waterfowl. All of the remainder of the farm lands within the refuge boundary remain under the control of the bureau of reclamation.

During the forthcoming season and perhaps from now on the service plans to curtail the farming of these lands on a share-crop basis and will undertake the cultivation of the lands ourselves so that the crops grown on the 1500 acres can be used in their entirety for the benefit of wildlife species.

It is planned to place at least 600 acres in crops this coming year. This will substantially increase the amount of grain available for waterfowl and should go a long way in eliminating depredation on private crops as well as to provide better control over the movement of the birds.

I must agree with you that waterfowl will flock to burned-out stubble fields and perhaps should have amplified my original statement in this respect. We have endeavored to discourage burning of stubble fields for the two-fold reason that an estimated 20 to 40 per cent of such grain is destroyed through the burning process and also that the burning renders the remaining grain too readily available.

As a consequence the birds are not compelled to scratch for their feed as they must in a stubble field and as a result the grain in such fields is cleaned up in a few days and the birds are soon searching for new fields.

We have found the bureau of reclamation to be most sympathetic with our desires and objectives and they have endeavored to follow, insofar as practicable, recommendations that have been made by this service.

We are hopeful that the refuge farming program coupled with efforts to curtail the burning of stubble fields and to postpone the plowing of them as long as possible, will better service the needs of waterfowl in this general local area, and thereby improve shooting conditions for the local sportsmen.

Please be assured that we appreciate your continued interest in these mutual problems and if there is any way we can be of further service to you, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

WILLIAM T. KRUMMES, Acting Chief, Division of Wildlife

Haroldson Wins Rifle Championship

SEATTLE, April 5 (AP)—Vern Haroldson, Seattle, besting more than 75 other Washington and Oregon marksmen, won the 1947 Washington state rifle championship last week-end and totaled 876 of a possible 900 score, best ever shot in the state matches.

He was match winner in the prone-standing shoot, second in the prone-kneeling and tie and Roy Meister, Seattle, took second in the expert class of the Buddy match, the Puget Sound Small-bore Rifle league, match sponsor, announced today after completing all tabulations.

His high aggregate score in four events won him the award of state champion.

Florida Sunshine For Babe Ruth

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP)—Babe Ruth is going to get some Florida sunshine after all.

His condition has improved to such an extent that the doctors have given him permission for the trip. Mrs. Ruth said yesterday. The former home run king, Mrs. Ruth, his nurse and a friend at whose Miami home they will stay will leave by plane next Tuesday.

NORDEN, Calif., April 5 (AP)—Skiers from four colleges looked to downhill and slalom races of the Vanderbilt Ski club tourney today and jumping events tomorrow to overcome the lead established yesterday in a rugged cross-country contest by the University of California.

Shasta-Cascade Retriever Club To Meet Monday

The Shasta-Cascade Retriever club will meet at the chamber of commerce Monday, April 7, at 8 p. m., according to Hal Shidder, president.

Plans for the evening include movies of sporting events, and talks on Labrador retrievers by Jack Hales and Harvey Van Housen. A local veterinary will address the group on care of dogs.

Any person interested in dogs is invited to attend.

Middlecoff Leads All In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 5 (AP)—A group of veteran campaigners battled young Cary Middlecoff for the lead today in the eleventh annual masters golf tournament.

Only one of them, however—Jimmy Demaret—was able to equal his halfway score of 140 to lead the field with a one-stroke margin into today's third round.

Middlecoff, 26 and the youngest pro entered here in age and point of competition, staged a brilliant rally yesterday to post a three-under-par 69 in the $10,000 event which Demaret won in 1940.

Demaret, now operating out of Ojai, Calif., played methodically for a sub-par 71 over the rugged 6800-yard national course.

Behind them at 141 were Jim Ferrier of Chicago, who had 71; Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Texas, the retired stylist who won the event in 1937 and 1942, and aging Toney Penna of Cincinnati. Nelson had 72 on his second round and Penna closed in with a 70.

Jack Kramer Leads In Net Battle

HOUSTON, Tex., April 5 (AP)—One-half of the men's singles championship round in the 13th annual River Oaks invitation tennis tournament is Jack Kramer and Davis cup star.

The Los Angeles net ace took a narrow, bitter five-set battle from Eddie Moylan yesterday, extending over 72 games and ending in near darkness and drizzling rain. It lasted three hours and 25 minutes before Kramer tucked up a final score of 13-11, 9-7, 5-7, 4-6, 6-4.
