

Fort Klamath

FORT KLAMATH—Mrs. Loran M. Streeter is recovering slowly from a severe leg injury received in a recent accidental fall at her home at the Streeter ranch northeast of Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Alfred B. Castel Sr., of Fort Klamath, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alfred B. Castel Jr., of Chiloquin, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls last week, and also on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brisco and family were Klamath Falls business visitors and shoppers on Friday.

A number of local residents have been suffering from influenza which has been in a mild form. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle were both ill at the same time but have now recovered. During Mrs. Engle's absence from her duties as chief operator at the local telephone office, Mrs. Ival Knox acted as relief worker in her place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belden have returned to Fort Klamath from Redding, Calif., where they spent the winter months. Mrs. Belden is the daughter of Loren L. Miller Sr., well-known local stockman.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hacker, Mrs. William A. Page and Mrs. Joe Taylor returned home last Thursday by way of Eugene after spending Wednesday night at Roseburg after having attended the funeral services held there Wednesday afternoon for the late Jim Dixon, pioneer Wood River valley resident, and native of Roseburg.

Mrs. Frank Denton has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Clara Beall, at Arcata, Calif.

Martin Hansen went to the Klamath marsh Wednesday, where he will be employed by J. P. McAuliffe on his new ranch property, the former Lenz ranch which McAuliffe purchased several months ago.

Mrs. Frank Edwards returned to her home in Fort Klamath Monday after receiving surgery in Klamath Falls Saturday. Mrs. Edwards is getting along nicely following the operation, but is still under a doctor's care.

Chiloquin

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilson of Prineville were Easter week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Todd Deffenbacher and of Mrs. Dolores Sche.

An April Fool's Day party drew a number of pre-teen-agers to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Folk Haddock with their three daughters acting as hostesses. Those attending were Marjorie and Jean Reed, Vernon Joe, Edward Brautlaucht, Donna and Richard Clark, Kay Heglund, Stanley Miller, Winifred, Jane and Ellen Haddock.

Mrs. Ruby Flury, her daughter Jane, and Elvera Erickson of Dorris, Calif., spent the latter part of the week in Medford.

A layette shower was given on Friday evening, April 4, at the Williamson river ranch home of Mrs. Homer Holt for Mrs. John N. Plouffe. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Ivan Doak, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. E. K. Smith, Mrs. Lee Hatcher, Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, Mrs. Walter Pohl, Mrs. Harold Collins and the co-hostesses Mrs. Daisy Holt and Mrs. Homer Holt.

"Ez" Meeker, formerly of Klamath Falls, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Albert on Wednesday evening. For the past eight years Meeker has been in Arabia, an employe of the Standard Oil company, and had some fascinating stories to tell of his experiences.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Freid spent Easter week-end with her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. L. S. Buck in Elkton, Ore.

A former resident, Bill Johnson, who after his navy discharge has lived in Redding, Calif., was in town on Saturday visiting with former acquaintances.

Mrs. Connie Barker of Merrill was an overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Albert the latter part of the week.

Refreshed by a week of vacation, students and teachers began on Monday morning to finish the last seven weeks which will be unusually busy ones. The schedule of events to come include the dance for the support of the annual, a freshmen return party, thanks for last fall's initiation, senior skip day, the junior reception for the seniors followed by the prom, final exams, baccalaureate, and graduation.

The Methodist church has been selected by the senior class for its baccalaureate service which will be held on Sunday, May 18, with the Rev. James Zeller, junior high school instructor as well as resident minister, conducting the service.

Mary Monks, who has had but one "2" to change the looks of a straight "1" card, has been selected as valedictorian and Bonnie Gienger who runs a close second will be salutatorian. Ann McKell, a junior, will play the professional and recessional for graduation, Don Miller, principal, is beginning rehearsal with the glee club for special music.

At this time of year, speculation runs high as to the winners of the underclass Robert Muskrat trophy, given last year by the previous winners of the Parent Teachers association cup in honor of one of their members who lost his life during World War II, and of the PTA cup itself.

Little four-year-old Benny Nygren who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Nygren at Williamson River, and Benny's tiny cousin, Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nygren of Klamath Falls, were both baptized at the Klamath Lutheran church Friday evening, April 4.

Mrs. Henry Porter entertained at a dinner-party in honor of her husband's birthday on Saturday evening, April 5. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Acomb, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Lange, Mrs. Ruby Flury, Cliff Olson and Clayton Nichols.

Little youngsters attired in their Easter finery presented a sweet religious program Easter morning at the Methodist church, the primary department sang several songs and the intermediate department gave a skit explaining the relation of the bunny, eggs, new clothes and the true Easter story. Fifteen young people took part in that section of the program. In addition, many little youngsters spoke "pieces," some in tiny lisps and some with the clearness of professionals. Those who spoke were Lyle Hall, Bob Kellison, John Parker, Clark Zadina, "Sonny" Haddock, Judy Collins, Ray and Viola Jacobson, Clark Bray, Melvin Ohles, Mary Lee Collins, Janet Clark, Bill Priaulx, Orlan Kirk, Dora and Bill Brooley.

Mrs. Lou Kellison is spending several weeks in San Francisco under a doctor's treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson of Oakland, Calif., spent last week-end with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Holgar Jacobson. The two families made an overnight trip to visit relatives near Prineville, Ore., on Saturday and Sunday. The Hans Jacobsons used to live in Chiloquin years ago.

Keno

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith returned about the middle of March from a trip which took them down into Mexico and as far east as Colorado. They report a very enjoyable trip.

The school vacation of the week has come to a close and school started again Monday, April 7. Miss Puckett spent several days of the vacation on the coast and Mr. and Mrs. Denham visited with relatives in the northern part of the state, but the other teachers spent their vacation days at home. Seven more weeks of school remain, before the close of the school term.

W. L. Perkins and family have moved to Crescent City, Calif., where they have purchased the Harbor auto court.

Jessie Puckett spent several days visiting her mother, Mrs. K. E. Puckett, and other relatives last week. Miss Puckett is an instructor in the Central Washington College of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKeen have been visiting in Keno with relatives. Mrs. McKeen is the former Mary Layton. McKeen is a son of Mrs. Ida J. McKeen. Sam and Mary were married the latter part of February in Ashland and have been making their home there.

Pandleton Lantern Said Best Paper

EUGENE, April 10 (AP)—The Pandleton Lantern for the third consecutive year has been adjudged the best newspaper in the state for a high school with enrollment under 500.

The Oregon High School Press association again awarded to it the Bend Bulletin cup. Mary Jane Scott is editor of the Lantern.

Other awards went to Franklin High, Portland, for the best all-round newspaper; Eugene High for the best paper in schools with an enrollment of more than 500; Adrian High for the best mimeographed bi-weekly, and Molalla High for the best mimeographed monthly.
