Crowd Attends Extravaganza

A house so packed that even the stage held spectators and scores were turned away, greeted the annual grade school music extravaganza in the Klamath Union high school auditorium Friday night.

All schools in the city participated and each performance pleased beyond measure as evidenced by the round of applause from the audience composed of students, relatives and friends of the young actors. Each of the seven schools included music as well as acting in its particular skit and all showed fine talent and a great deal of work. Schools participating included Fairview, Fremont, Pelican, Conger, Riverside, Mills and Roosevelt.

Former Klamath Man Chosen

Directors of Pacific Finance corporation of California have chosen a Portlander, Donald Speer, as vice president of the financial institution, which has an Oregon branch office in Portland.

Speer was located in Klamath Falls for a time as representative of the corporation. He started with the company in Portland 12 years ago as a credit clerk and now holds the position of regional manager with Portland headquarters for Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

Fort Klamath

Mrs. Henry Orth has started a new business enterprise in Fort Klamath with the opening last week-end of her store, located in the building formerly used as a barber shop here. Mrs. Orth carries in stock a selection of late magazines, newspapers, candy, cigarettes and soda pop, and plans later to add a soda fountain. The building housing the new business venture had been thoroughly renovated and redecorated prior to the opening. Wishing Mrs. Orth success, friends presented her with several gifts of cut flowers and potted plants on the opening of her business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orth and family arrived Easter Sunday to spend a few days visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orth, from their home in Sacramento, Calif.

Easter Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noah were their son-in-law, daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Benedict and children, of Klamath Falls, and also their son Marvin of Fort Klamath, and Harold Moon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wimer were called to Grants Pass last Saturday by news of the critical illness of Mrs. Wimer's mother, Mrs. Amanda Agee, who passed away before her daughter could arrive. Funeral services for Mrs. Agee were held in Grants Pass on Tuesday afternoon, when the following relatives from Fort Klamath made the trip to attend the final rites, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wimer, who had gone to Grants Pass previously on receipt of the news of her mother's illness; two grandsons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Ival Knox and infant son, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Knox, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun, the latter a grand-daughter of the late Mrs. Agee. Another granddaughter, Mrs. Yvonne Ruegg of Portland, was unable to attend.

SIDE GLANCES

"Oh, it's the same old story! Washington won't do a thing about the rising beauty shop prices until women start looking perfectly frowzy!"

New Pine Creek

The "Tom Trumb" wedding put on last Saturday evening by the Juvenile grange lived up to every expectation and was an overwhelming success. One hundred and eighty tickets were sold to a crowd that over-packed the seating capacity of the Grange hall and many had to stand up to see the diminutive couple, Goldie Gooch and Richard Cooper, become bride and groom, to the officiating words of Minister Duke Brown, after all the guests had been duly ushered in and seated and all ceremonial procedure had taken place.

Barbara Fisher was maid of honor; Philip Gooch, best man, and the bridesmaids were Janice Hammersley, Maudie Jean Bateman and Sharen Dungan. The bride's mother was Anne Hammersley and father, Billie Milsap. The flower girls were Audrey Milsap, Joyce Robnett, Loretta Cook, Margaret Robnett and Rosetta Ross.

The official ushers were Edward Richardson and Neil Perry. The rest of the juveniles who comprised the designated guests were as follows: Beverly Vincent, Bobby Vincent, Betty Cannon, Johnny Cannon, Ruth Rosencrans, Eugene Lawson, Richard Lawson, Joe Smith, Earl Porter, Robert Faris, Barbara Hammersley, Susan Moffet, Loretta Ogleshorpe, Jimmie Cooper Jr., Leeta Perry, Carolyn Mulley, Sharlene Ross, Anna May Fisher, Arlene Tuxhorn, Robert Cook, Mona McLain, Barbara St. Clair, Roger St. Clair, Dwayne St. Clair, Homer McLain and Billie Dungan.

In connection with the mock wedding a pantomime, "School-day Sweethearts," a song number, and a costumed Virginia reel was put on by various members of the East Side Youth club. Mrs. Florence Dunlap played a violin accompaniment for the reel, which concluded the program.

Over 200 plate lunches were served following the program and dancing continued until about 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Johnston and daughter Dorothy left last Saturday morning for Greenville to attend the wedding of Evangelina Edwards which was an Easter Sunday church wedding. Dorothy was maid of honor. A reception and a wedding dinner followed the wedding. Mrs. Johnston and daughter returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horr visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gran Riggs and family last week-end. The Horrs, who live at Canby, have just returned from a 6000-mile trip, visiting relatives, Mrs. A. M. Horr and a sister, Mrs. Ida Fairy, at Hutchinson, Kan.; a cousin in Missouri, another relative in Oklahoma, and a brother, T. D. Horr, in Ventura, Calif., traversing 10 states in a three months' vacation tour.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman returned last Tuesday from a several days Easter visit with Mrs. Sherman's daughter, Mrs. Sam Carter at Burns, Ore., with Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Stanbro at Prairie City, and Mrs. George Lowe at Hampton Butte, Ore. City, and Mrs. George Lowe at Hampton Butte, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Keaton ber, and a costumed Virginia reel was put on by various members of the East Side Youth club. Mrs. Florence Dunlap played a violin accompaniment for the reel, which concluded the program.

Malin

MALIN, April 12—The American Legion auxiliary unit No. 84 met on Monday, April 7, in the Malin church, with Martha Brothnek, president, in the chair. Mrs. W. O. Bunge was initiated and welcomed.

The unit, having over 50 members, will send three delegates to the state convention this year. Martha gave an interesting talk regarding the rehabilitation work being done for the hospital work through the auxiliary. Martha, along with seven of the members, attended the conference held jointly with Klamath Legion and auxiliary, with Mrs. C. Gunn making a report regarding the help to be given by all Legion and auxiliary members.

As April is child welfare month for the auxiliary, a box is being placed in Emma's shop where anyone having new or used clothing may put same. All donations will be greatly appreciated. The Americanism essays will be ready for judging by April 30, the deadline date.

The unit voted to give $10 towards purchasing flags for the Intermediate Girl Scouts, which Malin is sponsoring.

After a very interesting meeting, Leah Street entertained by having guessing games, at which Mary Victorin and Agnes Schreiner won.

Neil Rettrath, hostess, served refreshments to the following: Anna Petrasek, Grace Stephens, Mary Victorin, Ethel Hamilton, Madeline Dupue, Irena Jelinek, Leah Street, Nettie Pierce, Abbie Herringshaw, Martha Brothnek, Agnes Schreiner and Ethel Roberts.

Mrs. Mary Victorin and Mrs. Anna Petrasek will be on the entertainment committee for May and Mrs. Ethel Roberts will serve as hostess for May.
