All Beauticians

whether or not they are members of the Oregon Association of Beauty Shop Owners and Operators... are invited to attend the association's annual state convention being held in this city April 27th, 28th and 29th... according to Ethel "Stormy" Borden, president of the Klamath Falls unit, this year's hostess group.

"The Big Show" scheduled for Monday evening, April 28, at the Willard hotel... featuring competitive hair styling and radio broadcasts... will be open to the public. Dinner tickets and those for other doings can be procured from your beauty operator... but inasmuch as seating capacity is limited to 250, you'd better speak up early if you want a reservation.

The style show promises to be highly entertaining with Ricardo Martin, well known Hollywood hair stylist, presiding as master of ceremonies... and with Seaton Burridge from the House of Windsor, Cardiff, England, as a distinguished guest for the occasion.

During his visit here, Martin will conduct a special course in hair styling... entrance fees for which are $3 for members and $8 for non-members.

Other program plans include the giving-away of a Plymouth business coupe... and the Grand Ball slated for the closing night, Tuesday, when new state officers will be introduced.

Member shops of the Oregon Association... will be closed on Monday and Tuesday of that week for their personnel to participate in the convention... so patrons with standing appointments for those days are asked to select another time.

Plain Eversharp sets... containing pen and repeater pencil... are only $3.75 and $5.00.
