

Most Stocks Show Losses

NEW YORK, April 14.—The generally cloudy stock picture today brought the heaviest loss in the average since the start of the year. The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at 114.14, down 1.14 points from 115.28, the highest since Nov. 19, 1937. The S&P 500 index closed at 114.14, down 1.14 points from 115.28. The New York Stock Exchange closed at 114.14, down 1.14 points from 115.28. The volume of trading was 11,414,000 shares, the highest since Nov. 19, 1937. The market was characterized by a general decline in prices, with most stocks showing losses. The only notable exception was the price of gold, which rose to a new high of $35.00 per ounce. The market was also characterized by a general decline in volume, with most trading occurring in the first half of the day. The closing quotations for the major indices are as follows:

Dow Jones Industrial Average	114.14
S&P 500 Index	114.14
New York Stock Exchange	114.14
Volume	11,414,000

Grains Show Sharp Break

CHICAGO, April 14 (AP)—Grains sagged today in sympathy with the stock market, but for the most part losses were not large. The wheat market was the weakest, with prices falling around 7 cents at times in reflection of the heavy loss in the stock market. In contrast, other wheat contracts were steady to firm throughout the session. A break in hog prices influenced the market, with prices falling around 1 cent. The corn market was also influenced by the stock market, with prices falling around 1 cent. The soybean market was steady, with prices falling around 1 cent. The market was characterized by a general decline in prices, with most grains showing losses. The closing quotations for the major grain indices are as follows:

Wheat	114.14
Corn	114.14
Soybeans	114.14
Hogs	114.14

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, April 14 (AP)—Sales of live stock today were 11,414,000, down 1.14 points from 115.28. The market was characterized by a general decline in prices, with most livestock showing losses. The closing quotations for the major livestock indices are as follows:

Live Cattle	114.14
Hogs	114.14
Sheep	114.14
Poultry	114.14

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"Another good thing to remember in this business—never bend over to tie your shoestrings while there's customers on the firing line!"

Convict's Car Still In Klamath

The 1937 Ford sedan which was ridden with bullet holes here when two California escaped convicts staged a gun battle with local officials several weeks ago today, is still standing in the garage at the city hall.

It was a stolen vehicle, having been taken from Petaluma, Calif., by Norman Jacklin and Alfred A. Paine, the San Quentin escapees, and now belongs to an automobile insurance company in San Francisco, according to Police Chief Orville Hamilton.
