

Convention Slated For This Saturday

The state convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma society, national honorary for women in education, will convene in Grants Pass, Saturday, April 19, with Epsilon chapter of Ashland as hostess group. Sessions are to be held in the library auditorium. Daphne Matthews, president of Epsilon chapter, is general chairman, assisted by committees from the local chapter.

Edith Bork, state president and a member of the Southern Oregon college faculty, will preside at the general business sessions and at the banquet. Mrs. Geraldine Owsley, state first vice president and a member of Alpha chapter in Klamath Falls, will preside at the luncheon meeting at the Sequim club.

An address, "Using the Stars For Pebbles," by Florence Beardsley, state supervisor of elementary education and a member of Delta chapter, will be the main feature of the annual banquet.
