

Home Extension Unit News

Fairhaven
"Good Grace at the Table," led by Mrs. A. L. Loomis and Mrs. William Rouff, was the topic of the Fairhaven home extension meeting Wednesday morning, April 16. Mrs. Thomas Jamieson was hostess to the group at her home, with a pot-luck luncheon at noon. Election and installation of officers were featured. Plans were also completed for the May 1 festival exhibit.

Chiloquin
The Chiloquin home extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Fred Markwardt on Wednesday, April 2, at 7:30 p. m.
The roll call showed the following present, Mrs. Folk Haddock, Mrs. Lela Lott, Mrs. Loyal Heath, Mrs. John Lott, Mrs. George Brautlacht, Mrs. Forrest Freid, Mrs. Earl Hall, Mrs. Joe Johnston, Mrs. Alfred Gastel Jr., Mrs. Gyuil Cook, Mrs. R. E. Heath and Mrs. Fred Markwardt. Mrs. George Brautlacht had charge of the flower arrangement program. Each one present arranged in floral artistry in various shaped vases and bowls. Mrs. Folk Haddock, president, presided at the business session.

Routine business was taken care of and plans made for our part in the May festival. The following were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Walter Collins, president; Mrs. Alfred Gastel Jr., vice president; Mrs. Forrest Freid, secretary-treasurer. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. John Lott and Mrs. Loyal Heath, project leaders, who demonstrated "Good Grace at the Dining Table." The fore part of the meeting was spent admiring and discussing the display of lovely dishes, glassware and silverware furnished by various members. The china displayed were lovely patterns in Lenox, Syracuse, Haviland and Bavarian, as well as a number of pottery place settings.
The glassware were various patterns in Fostoria, Cambridge and Duncan, also some Belgian cut glass. Mexican glass was also on display. The silver pieces were by Towle, Alvin, Reed and Barton, International and Community plate, as well as various pieces of Norwegian Sterling. Sterling candleholders by Gorham were also displayed. Members learned much from the second part of the meeting which was the partaking of an imaginary meal. Dessert and coffee were actually served while the observing members looked on, then they were also served after all points on table settings, table service and manners were presented. Table coverings, proper table setting and arrangements were discussed. A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting.

Merrill Plans School's End

MERRILL, April 17—Merrill grange was host to the Poe Valley grange at the regular meeting Monday, April 14, held in the IOOF hall in Merrill.

Poe Valley visited Merrill under the visitation schedule outlined at the last Pomona grange meeting. The officers of the Poe Valley grange under Master Wilbur Reiling took over the chairs and presided for the evening. T. H. Williams, master of the Fort Klamath grange and H. J. Zeller were visitors for the evening.

A donation was voted to the Red Cross drive under the regular business of the Merrill grange.
Poe Valley grange presented a well-balanced program for the entertainment of the members, consisting of community singing of a hymn; a skit, "Modern Version of Little Red Riding Hood"; a vocal solo, "Because," by Mrs. Barnett, and a closing skit of Easter bonnets modeled by the men. These hats

Refreshments were served to 52 members in all.
