

Vows Exchanged In Easter Ceremony

Marian Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown of Seattle, Wash., became the bride of Dexter Sexton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sexton of this city, in a candlelight Easter Sunday ceremony read at 9 o'clock in the evening at the Klamath temple by the Rev. Daniel B. Anderson.

Easter lilies and palms along with lighted tapers formed the background for the nuptials. Before the ceremony Mildred Nelson sang "I Love You Truly," later playing the traditional wedding marches. Miss Nelson and May Mosier also sang a duet as guests assembled.

The bride was given in marriage by a friend of the family, Frank Hurn. For the double ring ceremony she wore a gown of heavy white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in beads and seed pearls, long fitted sleeves and with a softly gathered skirt ending in a full train. Her fingertip veil was of illusion net with a wide lace edge and fell from a beaded crown. Her arm bouquet was of white spring blossoms and net.

Marion of honor for her sister was Halene Bush of Seattle, who was gown in blue marquisette. Her short pink veil fell from a headpiece of pink carnations. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and daisies in a pink net frill. Bridesmaids were Louise Sexton, sister of the groom, and Verna Blair of Yakima, Wash. Both were attired in marquisette gowns of pink and wore short blue veils held in place with pink carnations. Bouquets were similar to that of the matron of honor.

Aldene Proise and Bonnie Sexton were flower girls in gowns of white and wearing yellow ribbons in their hair. Each carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Diane Proise and Beverly Nichols, attired in white with lavender hair bows, lighted candles before the ceremony.

Best man was Stanley McGhehey, and ushers were Frank Parish and John Book.

Following the rites a reception was held in the community hall where the young couple cut their three-tiered white wedding cake. Bouquets of seasonal flowers and tapers decorated the bride's table. Serving was Eileen Woodward, and Mrs. Frank Hurn and Mrs. Alice Mills poured. Bonnie Sweeney had charge of the guest book. Assisting about the rooms were Irene and Delilah Zutavern, Ruth Elene Blakeley, and Evelyn Hanson.

Soon after the new Mr. and Mrs. Sexton left for a trip to points in California. For traveling the bride wore a suit of light blue with pink blouse and hat, and black accessories. Pinned at the lapel of her suit was a gardenia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sexton are at home at 2118 Ward street following their return this week.

Chapter Meeting

The regular meeting of the Women of the Moore, chapter 487, was held Tuesday, April 15, with Agnes Vasek, senior regent, presiding. Four new members, Mary Pope, Myrtle Chamberland, Mrs. Ella Griggs and Mrs. Mabel King were initiated.

The program was presented by the homemaker committee with Bertha Griggs, chairman, in charge. Included were vocal selections by Georgia Rose, accompanied by Ninon Nyback, and guitar duets by Barbara and Betty Scott. Demonstrations were given by Mrs. Uppendahl and Mrs. Mathis of the home extension unit. Addie Mae Nixon of the city library staff gave a reading and accepted a book, "A Treasury of Stephen Foster," selected by the lodge to give to the library.

Refreshments were served in the party room.

Banquet

One of the annual social events for the Women of the Moore was the banquet held at Bar's restaurant Thursday evening of this week for all members who had attained the membership quota for the months of February and March.

The banquet table was centered with spring flowers. Plans were discussed for a membership drive for the closing two months of the present officers' term, and many lodge activities are anticipated for the spring season.

Senior Ball

MERRILL—The Merrill senior ball will be an event of Friday evening, April 25, in the high school gymnasium. The John Douglas orchestra will furnish music for the semi-formal affair. Dancing will be from 8 to 1 o'clock.

Decorations will follow a gay and colorful "Mexicana" motif. Seniors of Merrill high school cordially invite the public to attend.

Business Session

Catholic Daughters held their regular business meeting Monday, April 14, in the parish hall. During the meeting plans were made concerning the annual National Communion of all Catholic Daughters at the 8 o'clock mass on May 4.

Breakfast will be served at the Winema hotel and anyone planning to attend the breakfast is asked to make reservations with Mrs. K. M. Moore as soon as possible. Due to illness, Mrs. Emma Grey has resigned as chairman of the Red Cross sewing group, and Mrs. Angeline Milani and Mrs. Alice Abbott have volunteered to finish making the remaining articles of clothing.

Mrs. Ellen Ely was elected delegate to the state conference being held in Mount Angel next week. Mrs. Rose O'Leary is alternate delegate. Resolutions for conference were submitted to the court by Mildred Smith, chairman, assisted by Rose O'Leary and Lenore Gallagher.

Ann Fiala was chairman of the evening and was assisted by Ollie Holzgang, Marie O'Sullivan, Mary Howard, Angelina D'Olive, and Ethel Fairall.

Hostess

Phyllis White was hostess to members of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, at her home in the Alpha apartments on Wednesday evening, April 9.

Mrs. Arthur Moore led the group in a discussion and review of the by-laws and constitution of the sorority.

Betty Zirkle announced plans for the banquet to be held in the Pelican party room, April 30, which will observe the founding of the international organization 18 years ago. Both Kappa and Tau chapters will participate in this Founders Day program.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Van Thome, Mrs. Charles Bonney, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Eldon Phair, Mrs. James Crapo, Betty Zirkle, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. John Martin.

Bridal Shower

TULELAKE—Naomi Crowther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Crowther, who will become the bride May 12th in Philadelphia of Jack Boyd Nelson, U.S.N., was honored with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening in the annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Gordon Blum, Mrs. James Woodman, Joanne Smith and Jean Wolfe.

Appointments in yellow and blue were carried out in the decoration of the refreshment and gift tables with bowls of apple blossoms placed about the room.

Blue cloths covered the tables and yellow tapers complimented the two big cakes.

A vocal number in keeping with the bridal theme was presented by Sherrice Stacy, Joan Stacy, Pat Kirksy, Lola Crowther and Helen Stoddard.

Miss Crowther, a graduate of Tulelake high school met Mr. Nelson in San Francisco. She will fly to Seattle for a visit with the parents of the groom before continuing east by air.

Soon To Leave

A surprise handkerchief shower on April 11 honored Mrs. Eugene

Werner at her home on Darrow street. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur

Land, Mrs. Fred Leberg and Mrs. Roy Runkala. Mr. and Mrs. Werner and their daughter, Joyce, are leaving in the middle of May for a visit to Sweden and Finland.

Invited were Mrs. Axel Jacobson, Mrs. Carl Carlson, Mrs. Emerick Hult, Mrs. Arthur Oberg, Mrs. Joe Matlick, Mrs. John Berglund, Mrs. Ralph Jensen, Mrs. Arne Olson, Mrs. Andy Erickson, Mrs. Tyra Simmons, Mrs. Dalman, Mrs. Eric Olson, Mrs. Jonas Walden, Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mrs. Stewart Patty and Mrs. Axel Johnson.

Cabana Shirts

hooded beach robes . . . jacketed play tris . . . practical play suits topped by over-skirts . . . cute midriff frocks for the youthful figures are only some of the vast display of vacation apparel you'll find at WHYTAL'S for all-summer wear.

Gaily designed cotton twill outfits with the long, full cabana skirts . . . borrowed from southern hemisphere styles . . . have shorts to wear underneath and a midriff top. Equally splashy in pattern are the shorter "patie" skirts that button down the front . . . slip on over matching shoulder-strap playsuits, buttoning on the side.

Intriguing beach robes, topping shorts and bras, come in roman stripes of cotton crash . . . and the attached hoods give a large collar effect. Among other toys going in for stripes are fresh cottons of pink, blue or green with white. These are styled with long, length, boxy jackets worn over bras and shorts, concealed under little, ballet-like skirts.

Hoats of skirted playsuits include soft rayons in striking prints, carrying the famous Fleckman label which signifies splendid washability . . . neat seersucker classics that take the place of house dresses . . . and crisp cottons of scroll designs that have novel, scalloped-front-slit skirts.

Stunning midriff dresses being shown at WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Dental building, Ninth and Main, come in flowery chintzes and checked tissue gingham of vivid blue or red. Swing skirts are outlined by rows of narrow ruffles.

Premier Vacuums

plus their separate sets of Attach-a-Tools for hooks, crannies and upholstery . . . will minimize the dusty chore of spring cleaning . . . and this being Premier's specialty, you'll find them especially invited to see and try out the latest models at CASCADE HOME FURNISHINGS CO., 134 N. 4th.

The new Premier Duplex . . . an upright cleaner priced at $79.75 . . . has gone over into the deluxe class . . . with an exclusive maho-matic nozzle that automatically adjusts to any rug surface . . . and a three-way Vibra-Sweep action to bring out and remove hidden grit.

Two other features that sold Martha are the full-opening bag, easy to empty . . . and a ball-bearing two-speed motor, high for thorough cleaning and low for brush-ups.

The nine units of "tools" for whisking away dirt above the floor are easy to connect . . . and are purchased by the set for $14.50. For those who prefer a powerful tank model, Premier has the Air-Matic "80" . . . which comes fully complete with all attachments . . . for $89.75.

CASCADE HOME FURNISHINGS CO. is offering such easy terms on either of these vacuums that you can have one without wrecking the budget . . . and there's a liberal trade-in allowance on your old vacuum, too!

Two Days Off

Ranking favorite this year is the separate bright jacket, shorter than the finger-tip lengths we've previously had, which teams up well with slender sheath skirts or dramatic light silk frocks.

"Little Darling"

slack suits for girls . . . sizes two to six . . . are among new spring arrivals in the second floor children's department of MILLER'S. Fashioned of serviceable cotton twill in pastel shades, they have bright yarn embroidered belts . . . and your little darling will love showing one off. They sell for $5.95.

Miller's carries the Nannette line of dresses for toddlers . . . ages one, two and three . . . and dainty newies in this include stripes and plain colors . . . priced at $2.98 and $3.98.

For warm weather, there are practical seersucker outfits . . . with full, ruffled skirts and concealed panties of a cotton knit fabric . . . that double for play suits or swimming. In the choice of stripes are blue, red, yellow, green and brown. Sizes are from 4 to 12 . . . and the price range from $3.50 to $4.95.

The children's wear department of MILLER'S . . . 512 Main . . . has also received a shipment of Sunbonnet Sue bonnets in pretty checked gingham for small tots . . . priced at $1.49.

Dandelions

may be a bit of bright color in the spring after winter's bleakness, but they certainly multiply plagued fast and overstay their welcome. However, ED GREENE'S Pest Control Service can cut their visit short with herbicide applications . . . and can do it reasonably, too.

taking along with them their irksome weeds were constantly fighting . . . roots and all.

Mr. Greene told Martha this week that he now has the Pacific Terrace area pretty well cleared of dandelions . . . and still has a couple or three weeks yet for de-weeding yards before agricultural sections demand all his attention.

This service includes lawn treatments and proper fertilization . . . with all work absolutely guaranteed . . . so if you'd rather spend your money on other more interesting landscape projects than digging weeds . . . contact ED GREENE at Box 404, Tulelake . . . or call his Tulelake phone 2013 . . . but don't put it off too long.

Globe-trotting sleeping togs, consisting of specially designed rayon crepe pajamas and robe, come packed in a convenient overnight kit that provides extra room for toiletries and other essentials.

nationally advertised pajamas are new desirable added to THE TOWN SHOP'S lingerie department . . . and those three-piece numbers with their full, ruffled skirts are adorable as can be.

Represented in the colorful array of many you've seen pictured lately, Louella Ballerino expresses her originality in Jantzen play togs . . . while Koret of California and Catalina styles show no lagging behind when it comes to fascinating sun apparel.

Most appealing to sub-debs right now are the midriff play dresses . . . with their low, gathered necklines and picturesque peasant skirts on display in THE TOWN SHOP . . . Main at Fifth.

You're Invited to an exhibit of the world's finest gems . . . the only Oregon showing . . . to be held at RICKY'S JEWELERS . . . 700 Main . . . next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 24th, 25th and 26th!

This $500,000 display is from the famous collection of Harry Winston, New York City . . . who has the finest of precious gems in existence . . . and Ricky's is providing you the unusual opportunity to examine such treasured jewels as an emerald cut ring from the renowned Vargas diamond, largest ever brought out of South America . . . a gorgeous diamond clip . . . and a scintillating diamond necklace . . . formerly reserved for viewing by only an exclusive few.

Remember the dates . . . and don't forget to take advantage of this invitation extended by RICKY'S!

Made Of Cotton

are the appealing new Pat Premo creations just received at LONG'S . . . for casual or play wear . . . and the color combinations are startlingly attractive!

A short jacketed sun-back frock has a horizontal striped effect in lilac, rose and lime . . . while another uses a vivid green checked pattern in gingham, and its bolero jacket, edged in white, buttons across like a vest. Extremely smart is the maize and brown stripe, buttoning down the front . . . with a bit from a white shirt and large pockets inserted in the skirt.

Some fine seersucker arrivals . . . quite inexpensive . . . are getting lots of attention. These are two-piece casuals, trimmed in pearl buttons . . . and the plaid contrasts are really the most effective Martha's seen . . . providing a choice of red and blue, yellow and blue or green and blue.

Pretty and cool as a garden party are all-over embroidered frocks of light pastels in sheer cotton . . . enhanced by crystal buttons down the front and white stripes below.

For golfing or morning shopping . . . LONG'S APPAREL, 719 Main . . . has a splendid selection of striped seersucker suit-dresses, set off by big patch pockets . . . and crisp chambray shirtwaisters . . . a wide variety of striped designs, their straightness broken by clever inset pockets at the hipline.

Picture Hats

wide-brimmed, open-crown straws in plain and ornate weaves . . . are among latest arrivals at KATHY'S . . . Klamath's newest hat shop . . . where regular shipments of the latest in millinery are received almost daily . . . direct from New York markets.

Lots of lovely black straws are coming in . . . and Kathy's is showing some handsome numbers in natural and burnt almond, popular for their bluish-black and other colors . . . and in adorable half-hats, favored over pompadour hairdos.

In addition to headwear for teeners to matrons . . . KATHY'S . . . 1114 Main . . . will design individual hats to match up with your best outfit . . . remodel good straws and Telts to this season's styles . . . assist you with correct accessories for your entire ensemble . . . and takes orders for those distinctive crocheted hats and bags of coordinated fabric.

A summer specialty will be fur hats . . . which Kathy creates from scraps of fur . . . to go with your winter coat . . . and the charge is most reasonable!

A Mother's Day

or bridal gift that's truly different are the personalized, Monogrammed Plastic Table Mats being shown at YOUR STORE, Inc., 721 Main . . . which can be mailed anywhere . . . but orders should be placed early.

Each plastic mat has center sheets in four attractive colors . . . easily changed to harmonize with table decorations . . . and there's a gorgeous combination of light or rich dark shades to select from . . . as well as several styles in monograms. They can be obtained in sets of 4, 6, 8 or 12 mats.

YOUR STORE has received its first large shipment in a long while of pretty paper napkins . . . cocktail and dinner sizes . . . and the designs are so varied, you can find one to go along with most any party motif.

A Lipstick Special

at CURRIN'S this coming week provides a wonderful opportunity to stock up on several favorite shades for daytime or evening at a worthwhile savings . . . and this markdown is on Chen Yu lipsticks!

The "stick" is just as good quality as always . . . but the flip-top containers of plastic were a wartime creation . . . and now that Chen Yu is using new, modern tubes, lipsticks encased in the "emergency" ones have been reduced from $1.00 to only 45 cents, plus tax . . . in a variety of colors . . . at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS . . . the fragrant drug store at the corner of Ninth and Main.

Tapioa Pudding

a nutritious dessert for the family . . . and baby, too . . . put in its first postwar appearance at PINE STREET MARKET . . . a week . . . and was certainly welcomed by tapioa-hungry patrons.

On the Hixson's box, the recipe says to fold in beaten egg white . . . but try whipped cream instead, which makes it more delicious. Another new Hixson's product is a Coronet Custard mix for quick puddings or pie filling.

Among the prepared mixes for pastries that save lots of time are Helen's Red-E Devils Food and White Cake Mixes. Merely add water, beat away and bake.

PINE STREET MARKET . . . corner of Seventh and Pine . . . has received a supply of Frigid-Pak frozen food containers . . . in pints and quarts . . . for lockers or home freezers. While it may seem early to be stocking up on these, you'll be wise to do so . . . for they're now reasonably priced, but later shipments are expected to be higher.

There may be a beer shortage this summer . . . the sale follows advice of a New York hair stylist, Victor Vito, who claims that a beer rinse works like a charm for taming rebellious locks. He also suggests setting pin curls with beer instead of water for better results. The only drawback—wouldn't we smell like the aftermath of an all-night binge?
