

Woman's Society Meets Thursday

The four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met Thursday, April 10, for desert at 1:30. Ruth Circle met at the home of Mrs. George Boyd, 1527 Kane, with 18 present. Mrs. George Casper conducted the devotions, and Mrs. J. C. Hunt, chairman, presided over the business meeting, which was followed by a social hour. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. L. Dean.

Mrs. Victor Anderson of 4633 Cannon was hostess to Esther circle, including 18 members and one guest, Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. John Yados in charge of the devotions, and Mrs. O. R. Holloway conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for a picnic this summer, and a general picnic for all circles is also being considered.

Mary circle met with Miriam Smyth of 803 Front, and 12 members were present. Mrs. Lee McBride, devotional chairman, took as her theme "Definiteness of Prayer," and Mrs. W. Withrow presided over the business session. Members were reminded of the bazaar to be held in the fall and plans were made for the bazaar to be given for members of the home extension group on May 1. It was announced that materials to be sent to the Frances De Pauw school for Mexican girls should be brought to the May meeting. The secretary was instructed to write to the Alvin Drew school at Pine-ridge, Ky., to ask for a list of their needs also. Greetings were sent to Mrs. Bruce Hulst, a former member now living in Portland, and Miriam Smyth was appointed program chairman for the circle. Mrs. Redman of 803 Front will be the hostess in May.

Martha circle met with Mrs. Mark Taylor of 2627 Oregon and the assisting hostess was Mrs. Pezhold. Twelve attended, including one guest, Mrs. Olds, a newcomer to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Taylor was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Howe led the devotions and Mrs. C. H. Barn-bridge spoke upon the various phases of "Stewardship."

Annual Dinner
The annual dinner planned by the Soroptimist club at which time the club selects the Klamath county woman who has made an outstanding contribution toward economic and social advancement of women and girls, has been scheduled for next Friday evening, April 25, in the Pelican party room.

This woman, whose identity will remain a secret until her presentation the evening of the dinner, will be the honor guest. She is chosen for her achievement throughout the years and the award will be made by Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, past president of the Soroptimist club. No member of the Klamath Falls club is eligible for the award.

Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, winner of the 1946 award, will be the speaker of the evening. His topic will be "Famous Heroines of History."

Making plans for the big party, to which husbands of members are invited, are Mrs. Vincent Lawler, chairman; Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Arthur Rickbell, Mrs. Walter Lassett, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh and Mrs. Thompson. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock.

April Session
The April meeting of the Daughters of the Nile was held at the Masonic temple in Ashland recently with a number of Klamath Falls members attending.

Tea was served after the business session from a table prettily arranged with a centerpiece of spring blossoms.

Attending from this city were Mrs. F. W. Moss, who is Princess Tirzah of the organization, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, Mrs. Harry Briggs, Mrs. George C. May. The next meeting will be held on May 12, at 2 o'clock in the Masonic temple in that city.

Housewarming
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes were honored last Saturday evening with a housewarming in their new home at 1864 Etna when a group of friends called to bring a gift for the new house. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Warner, Mr. and Mrs. James Wren, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hayes, Mrs. Rosa Loomis and Floyd Meeker.

Attends Meeting
TULELAKE — Dorothy Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, who is majoring in home economics at the University of Nevada in Reno and is vice president of the Nevada chapter, Delta Delta Delta, attended a district meeting recently of the sorority in Los Angeles. While on the coast she visited relatives of her father in Beverly Hills.

Plant Exchange
MERRILL — The Lost River Garden club will meet next Tuesday afternoon, April 22 at the home of Mrs. J. Frank Adams. Roll call will be answered with the name of shrubs suitable for foundation plantings.

A plant exchange is also planned and members are reminded to bring one or more specimens.

SPRINGTIME
is clean-up time!
WE'LL HELP YOU CLEAN HOUSE THE EASY WAY!

Have those dingy drapes, curtains, rugs and slipcovers dry cleaned by Cascade Cleaners. They will come back within the week so bright and fresh they'll look like new! And just think of the work and money you'll save!

Klamath's Finest
Dial 6565 for Pickup and Delivery

CASCADE CLEANERS

Opposite Post Office — 330 So. 7th

PLANS FOR THE ANNUAL SPRING DANCE for all high school students in the Klamath basin are being discussed by this student committee. The affair is being given by the Elks in the Elks ballroom the evening of May 3. The young men, left to right, David Vandenberg Jr., Jim Manning, Clarence Bussman, Jerry Schubert and Gene Peyton. The girls, Pat McMillan, Mary Lou Case, Louise Linman, Georgianna Clark and Ruth Landry. Marilyn O'Neill, also a member of the committee, is not pictured.

—Guderian.

Friday Banquet
Winema temple number 70, Pythian Sisters, entertained Marcella Middleton, grand chief of the grand jurisdiction of Oregon, Friday evening, April 11, with a banquet at the Winema hotel. Maud Phillips and Zella Blankenhip were in charge. Some 45 members and guests attended.

A regular meeting was held after the banquet in the IOOF hall. Initiation of candidates was held with Elizabeth Cummins, Bette Johnson, Carrie Lowther, Margaret Eckert and Della Henniger taking the obligation.

Mrs. Middleton, as well as Wanda Elliott, past grand guard, were given grand honors. The official visitor spoke on Fraternity, with her talk enjoyed by old and new members alike.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room by Roena Fugill, Myrtle Guthrie, Nettie Good, Rita Fuller, Wanda Elliott, and Rose Mary Cummings.

Farewell Tea
Mrs. Karl Nelson was complimented with a farewell tea by Mrs. Walter Eschbeck and Mrs. O. E. Powell at the Eschbeck home on Monday afternoon.

Tea was served from a prettily-appointed table centered with a bouquet of carnations and rosebuds. Mrs. J. A. Burke poured.

Calling during the afternoon were Mrs. Don Webster of Tulelake, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, Mrs. Roy Willbanks, Mrs. Richard Kranenburg, Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, Mrs. L. R. Thompson, and Mrs. Ronald Fisher, all of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Nelson was also honored with a handkerchief shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and their children, Kathryn and Jimmie, are leaving soon to make their home in Dunsmuir, California.

Tournament
In a three blind holes tournament Friday by women of Reames Golf and Country club, Mrs. Charles Ruff took honors in the 9-hole division, and Mrs. William Grove for the 18-hole group.

Awards for low scores were donated by Laddie Selkirk. Other winners for the day were Mrs. Marvin Nereth, 18-hole, and Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. G. H. Hancock tied for the 9-hole section.

Hostesses were Mrs. Dick Miller Jr., Mrs. John Merryman, and Mrs. Greer Drew.

Mother for you!
ON YOUR DAY OF DAYS...
MAY 11th

Give The Gift
You Alone Can Give...
Your Photograph.

kennell-ellis
Artist Photographers
U. S. National Bank Bldg.
Phone 3252

Noor. Luncheon

The Klamath Falls Soroptimist club held luncheon meeting on Thursday noon at the Pelican party room. Lorene Bertram, Isabelle Kohn and Laverne Lassette were initiated as new members by Kathleen Thompson, assisted by Sylvia McClelland.

The program was a series of travelogues by members who have been away. Izola Parker gave a vivid description of Carmel and the highlights of her two weeks stay there while taking a professional Girl Scout course.

A sketch of life at Salem during legislative session was told by Rose Poole, as representative, by Coral Sabo, as secretary, and by Olive Cornett, as wife of the president of the senate.

Alice Lamm recently returned with her husband from a trip into Mexico, Guatemala, and Yucatan, and her report was extremely interesting. She brought with her representative collection of art and hand work from various places they visited. A gay wedding outfit from Guatemala was modelled by Anne Rickbell.

Ether Lawler issued an invitation to a banquet for members and their husbands to be held in the Pelican party room, next Friday night, April 25th at 7 o'clock. The regular meeting for next Thursday, April 24, was cancelled.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gillock of Klamath Falls announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lorber, to Roy Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook of this city. Date for the nuptials has been set for early fall. The bride-elect will graduate this spring from Klamath Union high school. Mr. Cook attended KUBS and is now discharged after service in the army.

FERN GLUBRECHT will become the bride of James Eugene Cash, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cash of St. Joseph, Mo., in early June. Miss Glubrecht is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Glubrecht of this city.

CUSTOM MADE
SLIP COVERS
Margaret Wheeler
Phone 4054

LAWN WEEDING — TREE SPRAYING
WEED and INSECT CONTROL
Contact
ED GREENE Pest Control Service
Phone 2013 Tulelake Phone 3266 Klamath Falls

Hostess

The G.A.B. Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Rosalia Jones, 401 Jefferson, on Tuesday, April 18, at 7:30 o'clock. The hostess for the evening was Mrs. Gladys Hull. Easter cards and gifts were exchanged.

Members enjoying the evening were Mrs. Gladys Metler, Mrs. Marie Metler, Mrs. Mildred Langer, Mrs. Betty Hunter, Mrs. Irma Miller, Mrs. Rita Plaker, Mrs. Margaret Santo, Mrs. Dixie Beber, Mrs. Lela Thurman, Mrs. Ethel Patrick, Mrs. Lucille Halvorsen, and the hostesses Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Hull. Mrs. Lela Thurman was unanimously elected president of the club.

The next meeting will also be held at the home of Mrs. Rosalia Jones, with Mrs. Jones as hostess and honoring the birthday of Mrs. Betty Hunter.

Girls' Spring COATS
of Light Woolens with Matching Bonnet.
Sizes 1 to 6.
Values to $14.98
NOW $5.00

Spencer's
Fine Linens—Tots' Apparel
619 Main St. Phone 5497
Klamath Falls, Ore.

Sacony It's a wonderful buy!

TO WED THIS SUMMER
Anne Zupan, daughter of David Zupan, who will become the bride of Al Bellatti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bellatti, all of this city. The wedding date has been set for late August.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Your Sacony-Palm Beach Suit is Ever Fresh!

There's a reason why Sacony-Palm Beach suits rate so high with American women. The sizzling sun won't wilt that cool Palm Beach cloth... nor tire the superb lines sewed in by Sacony. Though your Sacony suit is always on the go... it's the hardest-working, freshest-looking member of your summer wardrobe. Marvelous colors. Misses' sizes. It's a Wonderful Buy!

22.50

LaPointe's