A new electric light plant and a new oil burner heating plant have been purchased and will be installed. Rooms are being added on the third floor for the help.

New cabins will be added next year when lumber becomes available. Badley has also purchased several new boats and motors. The lodge will be opened on May 15, with Clyde Franklin, brother of Mrs. Badley, as manager.

Accompanying the Badleys were Paul Ackermann and two sons. Ackermann is a business associate of Badley in his Portland business.

Neil Sailer, section foreman here, has returned to his work after several days' absence due to a badly sprained ankle. He was relieved by John Ellis of McCredie Springs.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hall and children are visiting in San Jose with relatives.

Mrs. Elmer Addison was a Portland visitor recently. She also went to Astoria to visit her daughter, Mrs. Betty Knoll. Knoll is manager of an oil company there, but the family was unable to obtain living quarters when Knoll was transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Moody of Eugene spent Sunday at their summer home on Odell lake. Moody is a lumberman in the valley city.

The snow is diminishing and the residents are welcoming the first patches of bare ground seen here since the latter part of October.

Many of the fishermen here are bemoaning the fact that the fishing in Odell lake will not open until the latter part of May, too late for the early Dolly Varden fishing.

The women of Cascade Summit met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Porter Wednesday for a sewing bee.

The residents here are trying to get the forest road from the Willamette highway to Cascade Summit cleared of snow. A petition

It is hoped that now that the lodge will remain open the year around that it will be accessible by auto so that winter sportsmen can drive to the lodge.
