Stocks Show Small Gains

NEW YORK, April 23 (AP)—Stocks recovered their balance after an early dip in today's market but enthusiasm was lacking and progress was negligible.

Many rails and industrials retreated at the opening only to make their way to higher ground later. Trading followed a slow pace, with total transfers in the neighborhood of 750,000 shares. Gains and losses, limited to fractions for most leaders, were well distributed at the close.

Among gainers were Chrysler, Bethlehem, American Woolen, Eastman Kodak, Union Pacific, Pullman, American Smelting, International Nickel, Air Reduction, Texas Co., and Caterpillar Tractor. Westvaco climbed on a stock split proposal. Earnings and dividend news propped Joy Manufacturing and Kayser. Laggards included Palmolive-Colgate-Peet, Proctor & Gamble, Anaconda, United Carbon, Sun Oil, American Can, Goodrich and Schenley.
