

Home Extension Unit News

Fairhaven
The last meeting of the year of the Fairhaven home extension unit was held on April 16 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Jamieson, with 14 members and six children present. Mrs. William Ruffa and Mrs. A. L. Loomis led the discussion on "Good Taste at the Dining Table." The correct manner of setting the table, seating guests, serving, and waiting on table were thoroughly covered. Mrs. Howard Holliday arranged an unusual centerpiece of wild tulips, plum blossoms and tulips, which was presented to the hostess. Mrs. Friedrich, chairman of the nominating committee, reported that Mrs. Lee Holliday had been nominated as chairman for the coming year. Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen, vice-chairman, and Mrs. A. L. Loomis, secretary-treasurer for next year. Mrs. Percy Cook, retiring chairman, installed these candidates as the new officers for the unit, and each was presented with a rose corsage. Mrs. Cook voiced her appreciation of the cooperation she has enjoyed from the members of the unit during the last year, and promised her support to the new officers. In reply, Mrs. Holliday thanked Mrs. Cook for her untiring leadership during the year, and Mrs. Loomis, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Percy Cook, retiring chairman, Mrs. Merlyn Kelsen, recreation chairman, Mrs. Howard Holliday and Mrs. Lawrence Martin in charge of flower arrangements, and Mrs. Percy Cook as project leader. Chairmen of other committees will be announced later. All members and friends were invited to the unit for the May 1 festival, and to contribute to the cooked food sale to be held there. The Fairhaven unit's exhibit will be on "Shells and Shells" with Mrs. Tully Kujac in charge of the exhibit. Mrs. William Ruffa and Mrs. Howard Holliday will arrange the centerpiece for the dining table.

Klamath Falls
The new officers for the Klamath Falls home extension unit were installed by Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen at the meeting on last Wednesday. They are: chairman, Mrs. Mark Taylor; vice chairman, Mrs. Ken Samson; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ray Garrison. Who also presented Mrs. Gillen with a beautiful carnation corsage and a farewell gift.

The project was "Clean As You Go" and was led by Mrs. Gillen. Her main idea was to do part of the housecleaning each year and not "tear the house all to pieces at one time." An arrangement of maple blossoms in a blue bowl was made by Mrs. T. J. O'Hara and presented to Mrs. O. K. Puckett as a prize.

Mrs. Frank Lambro donated a pair of hand-embroidered pillowslips which were received by Mrs. Austin McManus.

A delicious potluck luncheon was served at noon by the hostesses, Mrs. C. A. Ongman, Mrs. P. Pfefferle, Mrs. E. H. Muselman and Mrs. C. E. Paddock. This was the last regular meeting of the year but all members are urged to attend the May Festival at the Methodist church on May 1.

Shasta-Homedale
Mrs. H. F. Sweeney was hostess Friday, April 18, to members of the Shasta-Homedale home extension unit. Mrs. E. L. Barnes, chairman, presided over the business meeting at which time final arrangements were made for the participation of the unit in the May Festival. Program suggestions for the next year were discussed and voted on. Fifteen dollars were donated by the Shasta-Homedale extension unit toward the co-op house at Corvallis. The unit was extremely proud that eight of its members, namely, Mrs. E. L. Barnes, Mrs. W. M. Clark, Mrs. K. P. Eaton, Mrs. Orville Ferrell, Mrs. R. A. Nelson, Mrs. M. Shell, Mrs. C. Williams and Mrs. Jasper Woodward, attended every meeting during the year.

Mrs. Jasper M. Woodward was elected chairman, Mrs. C. Williams, vice-chairman, and Mrs. W. M. Clark, secretary-treasurer for the coming year. Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen installed the new officers, pinning on each a corsage made by Mrs. W. M. Clark of the flower arrangement committee.

Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen gave an interesting discussion on "Clean As You Go," emphasizing the importance of planning a definite routine for daily and weekly cleaning periods, and to work out time and energy-saving methods of housekeeping jobs.

Bonanza
As Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen is leaving soon to take over duties as assistant state 4-H club leader, she was presented with a gift from the members of the unit who wished her success in her new position.

Bonanza
Bonanza extension unit held its regular meeting Tuesday, April 11, at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. William Sparks where Mrs. Winnifred Gillen conducted the meeting. "Clean As You Go."

Officers were elected and installed for the coming year. They are: Mrs. Roy Fernland, chairman; Mrs. Henry Schmor, vice chairman; and Mrs. Benson Dixon, secretary-treasurer. Plans were discussed for the May Day program to be held in Klamath Falls. We decided on flower arrangement as our demonstration. Mrs. Fred Rueck, Mrs. Edmund Gowen and Mrs. Hartley to be in charge. The program for next year was discussed.

All members are asked to bring some cooked food to be sold at the May Day Festival, the proceeds to go to Azalea House at Corvallis.

A shower was held at the home of Mrs. Everett Sparks, 918 Washington, Klamath Falls, on Wednesday, April 16, for Mrs. F. A. Ralph, our past chairman who has moved to 2160 Reclamation. Ten women spent an enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. Sparks served delicious refreshments during the afternoon.

Altamont
The Altamont home extension unit held the final meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Hans Frei, with Mrs. K. Winnifred K. Gillen leading. "Clean As You Go," stressing a routine cleaning and not the heavy spring or fall cleaning. Mrs. S. H.

Dahler presided at the business meeting and projects for next year's program were suggested. Mrs. Walter Uppendahl was elected to serve as chairman for next year. She has been vice chairman the past two years. Mrs. Ralph Benoit was elected vice chairman for 1949-50. Due to the resignation of the chairman that year she took over that job.

Plans were completed for the unit's part in the May Day festival. Spot removal from fabrics will be demonstrated on that day. Several volunteered to bring food for the sale being sponsored by the county council. Proceeds from the sale are to go toward the co-op house to be built at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Uppendahl and Mrs. Don Mathis have charge of the flower arrangements to be used on the luncheon tables, and will be judged in competition with arrangements from other units. These two are leading a demonstration, "How to Iron a Shirt," for the benefit of the Women of the Moose.

Each unit has prepared a scrapbook containing the newspaper publicity concerning its activities during the year. These books will be on exhibit and will be judged. Recognition will be given the unit entering the best material.

Mrs. Harry Lester and Mrs. J. H. Ebert have been very active on the recreation committee. They had some unique form of entertainment and recreation at each meeting.

The members of the unit presented a gift to Mrs. Gillen in recognition of the esteem our unit has had for her due to her untiring efforts and years of leadership. We regret having her leave our county but wish her success in her new position.

The home extension unit met Thursday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. F. H. Armstrong, with 16 members and two guests present. "Good Grace at the Dining Table" was the subject for the day and was ably demonstrated by the project leader, Mrs. Jack Hope.

A delicious potluck luncheon was enjoyed, after which the business meeting was opened by Mrs. James Dixon who installed officers for the coming year with Mrs. Wilbur Book, chairman; Mrs. Dave Campbell, vice chairman; Mrs. Cecil Nicholson, secretary; and Mrs. Mary Book, treasurer. Armistice were presented to the officers.

Plans for the May Day festival

Third Annual Homemaker's Festival Slated May First

The third annual homemaker's festival will be held Thursday, May 1, at the Methodist church, 10th and High. Registration opens at 10 a. m. and exhibits from the fifteen home extension units will be on display in the church parlors.

At 11 a. m. there will be a 30-minute broadcast over KFLW. Bob McGart will conduct the audience participation broadcast at which time gifts will be presented from various Klamath Falls merchants. A luncheon will be served at noon to the first 200 buying tickets. Tickets will be on sale at the time of registration. Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick of Merrill, vice president of the state home extension council, will preside at the luncheon. Standard unit awards will be presented at the luncheon program by Mrs. W. M. Williams, chairman of the county home extension committee. The Poe Valley-Olene unit will present a style review of garments made from feed bags.

The afternoon program which will be at 2 p. m. will be presented in the main part of the Methodist church. Mrs. Erma Little, extension specialist in family relations, Oregon State college, will speak on "Where Are We Today?" The boys' octet from were discussed and topics for Program Planning Day itemized. This is the last meeting of the unit until fall.
