

Zion Church Shows Movies

The religious sound films, "Festival of Spring" and "The Calling of Matthew," will be shown Sunday in the auditorium of the Zion Lutheran church, 1025 High. The first showing will be at 3 p. m. and the second at 7 p. m.

These films, which are of recent production, will be of interest both to children and adults. "Festival of Spring" has been produced in full color. "The Calling of Matthew" is based on the Gospel of Mark, and records the Master calling Matthew to be his disciple. There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

In the regular morning worship service, Zion Lutheran church will observe the Centennial anniversary of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri.

This will be a special festival service beginning at 11 a. m. The Zion Lutheran congregation has been a member of this synodical group since 1924. Victor Schulze, pastor, will speak on the topic, "A Hundred Years of God's Grace." Appropriate music will be presented by the Zion choir. The Sunday school and Bible class meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

Barnett Presents "Story Of Church"

Rev. David F. Barnett will continue with "The Story of the Church" at the services of the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The sermon will tell the history of the Christian church from the fall of the Roman Empire to the beginning of the Reformation. The scriptural text for the sermon is Matthew 13: 1-23.

The choir, under the direction of the pastor, will sing the anthem, "Lo, a Voice to Heaven Sounding," by Boriniansky. Mrs. Elbert Veatch is organist.

The young people's Westminster Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p. m. for a study on "Prayer." Marian McIntyre is in charge.

On Tuesday, April 29, Rev. Barnett will conduct the second of a series of confirmation classes for intermediate girls at 4:30 p. m. at the Presbyterian church. The classes will continue for a number of weeks.

News Notes and Comment

By MARY O'BRIEN

Pat McMillan, junior contender for cinder queen, came out on top in the track sales by some 2000 points and will be crowned track queen at the armory Coronation dance tonight.

The queen was given the privilege of appointing a fifth girl to complete the court. Patty Meyers will be the fourth princess. The contest will be a total of $500.00, which will be put in the student body track fund.

Publications department at KU will hold its annual banquet in the Winema hotel tonight at 6:30. During the evening Mac Epley, Herald and News managing editor, will speak to the group. New Quill and Scroll members and those who will hold important staff positions on the Krater and the El Hodos will be announced.

Joyce Sample, Quill and Scroll president, is general chairman for the semi-formal affair. Marilyn O'Neil is in charge of entertainment; decorations for the banquet tables will be made by Mary Ann Mills and her committee.

Yesterday's Girls League meeting brought about the nomination of the girls who will be voted on to determine who will fill the Girls League offices next year. Those nominated by the present executive committee were Doris Ethridge, president; Dortha Cogdill, vice president; and Lou Ann Chase, secretary.

Girls nominated from the floor for the various offices were as follows: President, Mary Lou Stanberry; Pat McMillan and Maudie Thompson; vice president, Darlene Knowles; June Marie Murphy and Judy Larson; secretary-treasurer, Donna Rae Worden; Nancy Edwards, Mary Lou Case and Donna Edwards.

After the nominations were made the girls' nonette and the Girls Glee club sang "Summertime" and "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," accompanied by Louise Barnhart, Lee Overton and Dortha Cogdill presented a domestic comedy entitled "Dick and Doty." For the remainder of

Palestine Hearing Nears

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Top experts on Palestine problems converged upon United Nations headquarters Thursday as the fast-working secretariat completed plans for opening the first U. N. special session on Palestine next Monday.

Two major questions have been put on the provisional agenda upon which the assembly must decide by a two-thirds vote.

They are: 1—A British request for appointment of a special committee to prepare for consideration of the Palestine question at the regular session in September.

2—Identical requests by the five members of the Arab league who are U. N. states for the special session to consider termination of the British mandate over Palestine and the declaration of Palestine's independence.

The United States, Britain and several other delegations have indicated opposition to the second item. They insist that the special session must not go into the question itself beyond appointing the investigating committee.

the period Patty Meyers led group singing of old and new favorites, accompanied by Lynden King.

Today and tomorrow two of the music department's ensembles and a group of soloists will compete in the district music conference in Albany. The clarinet quartet, Norma Smith, Lois Larson, James Pearson and Chuck Martin, are entered under the direction of John McManus. Charles Anderson, John Epley, Bill Mosby, Cameron Stewart, Bill Southwell and Bruce Crawford—all members of the brass sextet—will be directed by O. K. Warcup.

Soloists entered are Barbara Zahn, Bruce Crawford, Wilbur Elliott, Catherine Blanes, Gerald Pales and Doris Weaver.

Daylight Saving Up To Mayor Riley

PORTLAND, April 25 (AP)—The proposal to inaugurate daylight saving time in Portland is up to Mayor Earl Riley.

The city council considered it yesterday, then decided to call for a report from the mayor. Action in other Northwest cities would be the determining factor, commissioners indicated.

Viking Gives Low Bid On Sprinklers

PORTLAND, April 25 (AP)—The Viking Automatic Sprinkler company, Portland, was low bidder on a project for installation of sprinklers in ten warehouses at the Umatilla ordnance depot, district army engineers said today.

The bid, one of two submitted, totaled $53,677, compared with a government estimate of $90,688.
