Mrs. Walter Brown Is Guest Speaker

Members of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held a model meeting at the home of Francis Ballin, 1342 Sargent, on Tuesday evening. Routine business was transacted, after which the program chairman, Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, introduced Mrs. Walter Brown, a guest speaker. Mrs. Brown's topic was "The Most Beautiful Spot I Know," and she chose scenic Oregon as the basis of her interesting talk. Doris McCord outlined the aims and purposes of Beta Sigma Phi.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Brown. Mrs. George Wright, Doris McCord, Mrs. Gail Webb, Mrs. Warren Poole, Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, Francis Ballin, Mrs. Don Miller, Mrs. John Feaback, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. George Wardell, Mrs. W. E. Sherry, Patty McFadden, Lona Martin, Mrs. Frank Hall, Eva Rae Jacobson, Marilyn Knaeble and Mrs. Robert Wirth.

On Tuesday, April 7, members and guests of the chapter attended a theatre party, followed by a late supper. Present at this party were Mrs. W. E. Sherry, Marilyn Knaeble, Mrs. C. B. Houston, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Lois Rumer, Mrs. Robert Strasser, Mrs. Warren Poole, Lona Martin, Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, Mrs. John Feaback, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. George Wardell, Mrs. Loyal Heath and Eva Rae Jacobson.

A tea will be held on Sunday, April 27, between 3 and 5 o'clock. On April 30 Tau chapter will join with Kappa chapter for the annual Founders Day celebration in the Pelican party room.

Officers

New officers of the Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women were elected at the regular monthly luncheon meeting, April 19, in the Pelican party room. Mrs. O. K. Puckett is the 1947-48 president, Mrs. John Kerns, vice president; Mrs. A. L. Brandt, secretary; and Mrs. Willard Duncan, treasurer.

A lovely gift of glassware was presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Aaron T. Hoffman.

Mrs. J. Zumwalt, music chairman, presented her pupil, Marjorie Sexton, who sang three lovely arias, "The Kashmiri Song," "The Drinking Song" from "La Traviata," and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water."

Mrs. Willard Duncan, social studies chairman, served as panel chairman for the program of the afternoon. "Work and Recreation with Relation to the Youth Movement," the subject of the panel, was introduced by Mrs. Duncan and discussed by four panel members, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. M. P. Leonard, and Mrs. Paul Buck.

Week-End

Charlotte Ivory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ivory of 1919 Manzanita street, is entertaining a group of friends at the Ivory cottage at Lake of the Woods this week-end.

Charlotte and her guests, Sally Barnhill, Faye ... Jean Henderson, Totsie Lasky, Rosemary Murray, and Carmel Finnigan, left this morning and plan to return Sunday afternoon.

Streams And Lakes Lure Klamath Folk

It wouldn't take much urging to take the average Klamathite out of town these days which only bring spring fever up a notch or two on an already mounting thermometer. The Oregon and Northern California coastline has beckoned many, especially those who look forward to salmon fishing at the mouth of the Rogue.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke and their three young children packed up the station wagon Friday afternoon and took off for Gold Beach where they have week-end reservations at the Rosie Antel. They plan to start home Sunday with a couple of fine salmon.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Adler have been at Gold Beach for the past week enjoying the fishing season at its height.

Getting to be quite an air enthusiast is Mrs. George R. Lindley, who flew south Sunday with her son-in-law and daughter, Dan and Kat Robertson of Atherton, Calif. The Robertsons arrived last Thursday for a few days' stay in their new Navion. Mrs. Lindley who made one other trip with her son-in-law and daughter a while back, will fly to Klamath Falls after a month's visit in Atherton.

Also flying this week-end are Bette Champagne and Norma Steublin, both leaving on the 6:45 p. m. flight from the airport for Seattle where they will take the night boat to Victoria. Bette and Norma are attending the Venture club convention with headquarters at the beautiful old Empress hotel in that city. They plan to remain until Sunday, flying back here Sunday night. Bette wore a lovely lavender orchid on her grey suit when she stepped on the plane, the orchid a gift from Mamma and Papa Champagne who now make their home in Medford.

Tonight, Saturday, Mrs. Avis McConnell will get a ticket for Seattle via United Air Lines and fly north for a visit with her daughter and family, the Henry Faabes and children.

Cards mailed to Mrs. Tvyia Ferguson and addressed to 309 North Liberty street, Webb City, Missouri, will reach her. She has been in Webb City since February 14, called by the critical illness of her mother. It is getting pretty warm in that part of Missouri, now, and Tvyia has written home for summer wear. She expects to be gone for some time.

Early cabin openers at Lake of the Woods are Mrs. Rose Poole and Mrs. Prentice Yeoman. They drove to the lake last Sunday and reported a beautiful day with the roads in good shape.

Husbands in the Dog House, Wes Guderian, veteran lensman with The Herald and News, acquiesced to a request from wife Natella to take a picture of their son's birthday party at Moore park. The posing was done to perfection. Wes got in fine stance for the shot and everything was just dandy until he got around to developing the film. You guessed it—he forgot to pull the shutter!

Places Second
Mary O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. O'Brien of this city, placed second in competition for the Harris Ellsworth trophy in the Oregon High School Press association contest. Mary, whose column of high school news appears in The Herald and News each day, achieved the honor for her work in that division.

The University of Oregon journalism department handles judging. Mary is a senior at Klamath Union high school, and has been active on the Krater staff, KUHS student publication, as well as in many other high school activities.

Engaged
Romantic news was told this week when Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas Landrum of 333 North Sixth street announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Frances, to James Winston Turner of Monroe.

Vows will be exchanged on Sunday afternoon, May 11, at 12:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. Winston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Turner of Monroe. Both young people are students at Oregon State college in Corvallis and both are juniors.

Event Scheduled
On the social calendar for the 20-30 club is a costume ball, slated for Saturday, May 3, at the Willard hotel. Wives of members were invited to select the type of party to be given in their honor, at the last meeting, and the women chose a costume ball. Definite plans will be announced soon.

Christy Is Five

A large group of young guests and their mothers were on hand Wednesday afternoon at the Pelican party room to help Christy Rose, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rose, celebrate her fifth birthday.

Little girls who attended received small doll buggies as favors, and the boys received little cars.

Attending were Mrs. Rose and Christy, Mrs. Neil Black, Bruce and Janic; Mrs. Arthur Moore, Babs and Jean; Mrs. Charles Bailey and Roland; Mrs. George Myers and George; Mrs. Michael May, Eddie and Jean Ann; Johnny Hibbs; Mrs. John Fowler and Janet; Mrs. Robert Sproat and Billy; Mrs. Merle Swansen and Patty Jean; and Mrs. Roy Powell and Dick.

GOOD THINGS COME IN PAIRS ... and the Kann twins prove it. On the left you see Cecelia, or is it Catherine? No, it's Cecelia, and Catherine is on the right. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Kann of 1826 Manzanita street.

Dinner Dance

Plans for the spring dinner dance were discussed at the regular meeting of Sojourners, Wednesday, April 23, at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Alvin Oines, chairman for the affair, announced names of the following members on her committee, Mrs. C. B. Houston, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Willour Shannon, Mrs. Eugene Williams and Mrs. Lloyd Young.

The spring dinner dance has always been one of the foremost social functions given by the club. Mrs. Oines and her committee are planning on making this an outstanding affair. Wednesday, May 7, at Lakeshore Inn, is the time and place with the cocktail hour at 7:30. Members and associate members will be contacted, but Mrs. Oines urged all planning to attend to contact either herself or a committee member.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. C. A. Gilmore, and Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. C. W. Lane and Mrs. R. M. Lindberg were welcomed as new members. At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Agee Kusler, hostess for the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. C. S. Houston, was in charge. Honors in bridge went to Mrs. Harry Watson and Mrs. E. F. Hobart, while Mrs. C. U. Dakin received high in pinocle.

The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, May 14, at 2 p. m., at the Willard hotel.

Aloha Chapter

Apple blossoms and snapdragons decorated the Masonic temple on Tuesday evening, April 22, when Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held its regular meeting. Norma Uerlings was in charge of the program which followed the business session. Included was a parody on the radio program, "What's the Name of that Song?" in which Sallie Wood, Lillian Hanley, Phyllis Poole, Sanford Selby, Larry Baker and Jack Schulze participated.

Hostesses for the evening were neat matrons, Amelia Hanks, Sadie Holloway, and Jennie Hurr.

Refreshments were served from a prettily decorated table, centered with peach blossoms. Serving were Minnie Grizzle, Clairalce Epperson, Viola Dickson, and Nadine Colvin.

Aloha chapter's next meeting will be on May 13.

Speaker

Mrs. Rose M. Poole, state representative, will speak on "Women in Politics" at the next meeting of the League of Women Voters to be held at 2 p. m., Wednesday, April 30, in the Pelican party room.

The study agenda will be presented to members, and new officers will be elected.

Vows Exchanged In Sunday Ceremony

In a beautiful two o'clock service on Sunday afternoon, April 20, at Mt. Carmel Catholic church in Chiloquin, Donna Brautlaecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brautlaecht, exchanged vows with Reine DeBortoli, son of Mrs. George Brautlaecht and the late Mr. DeBortoli.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Michael Ahearne with a background of Easter lilies, white snapdragons, palms, and the altar with its tall white tapers, lighted before the ceremony by the altar boy, Jerry Monks.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette over taffeta, fashioned with wide insets of lace, a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, a softly gathered skirt and full train. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was bordered with a wide lace band and fell from an orange blossom tiara.

Her bouquet was a large orchid encircled by white carnations and wide satin streamers.

Elda DeBortoli, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and attired in blue marquisette over taffeta. Her headpiece was a halo of pink and white carnations and white net. Before the ceremony she sang "Panis Angelicus" and Schiberts "Ave Maria," accompanied by the organ by George Courtwright, who also played the traditional wedding music.

Bridesmaids were Paula Albert of Klamath Falls and Ann McKell, who wore blue dotted Swiss necklines, dress gowns with sweetheart necklines. They wore matching flower caps with short blue veils. All three attendants carried nosegays of spring flowers with long pink streamers and wore single strands of pearls.

Beside man was Eldo DeBortoli of Greenville, California, brother of the groom. Ushers were Joseph and Ronald Monks of Klamath Agency.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a dress of cocoa ocre with dark brown and gold accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The mother of the groom was attired in black with a garter and red rosebud corsage.

The blue garter, a new gown, a strand of pearls which was both old and borrowed, and a lucky coin in her shoe gave the bride a traditional good beginning for her marriage.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts. The three-tiered bridal cake was served by Margaret Molitor while Mrs. John Acomb poured. Jean McKell was in charge of the bride's book. Bouquets of snapdragons, stock and calla lilies were arranged throughout the rooms.

Recent Rites

Wed at the First Christian church on March 29 were Dorothy Mae Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Savage, and George Burton Sanders, son of Mrs. Lillie Sanders, all of Klamath Falls.

The Rev. Howard F. Hutchins read the ceremony before the families of the young couple, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. For the rites, the bride chose a suit of blue with a corsage of gardenias.

Following the nuptials, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders left for a trip north, and spent a week in Spokane, Wash., returning here to make their home.

Thursday Tea

Mary Barbara Stark, sister of Charles R. Stark of Lakeshore drive, was the guest of honor at an informal gathering Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., on Conger avenue. Interested young mothers and some local nursery school operators met with Miss Stark to discuss the need of a nursery in Klamath Falls.

Miss Stark is organizer and owner of an 80-child nursery in Spokane, Wash. The school has grown to the point where Miss Stark has four assistants and she has had many interesting experiences since going into this work.

Tea was served in the afternoon to Mrs. David Bunker, Mrs. Henry Newhouse, Mrs. C. E. Brissenden, Mrs. Warren Mason, Mrs. Charles Munns, Mrs. Charles Stark, and Mrs. William K. Jenkins and Miss Stark.

Coming Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Eastern Star Social club will be held in the parlors of the Masonic temple, Friday, May 3. A brief business meeting will be held after which refreshments will be served and a social hour enjoyed. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Maurice Sherman, Mrs. Sam Roberts and Mrs. Wren Frain. A cordial invitation is extended to all Star members.

Lt. and Mrs. Leonard P. Michaud of Presque, Maine, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Friday, April 25. The young man is their second child and second son. Big brother is Paul. Maternal grandparents of the new arrival are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Londe of 423 U-ham.

Music For Fun

"Music for Fun" is the title of the address which will be given before the Klamath Falls Knife and Fork club Wednesday evening, April 30, at 8:45 o'clock in the Willard hotel. The guest speaker is Dr. Sigmund Spaeth who gained national fame as the "Tune Detective" and is noted throughout all musical circles in the country as a witty, brilliant and learned commentator on musical topics.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley are chairman of the reception committee and Mr. Ashley will introduce Dr. Spaeth. Serving on the committee with the Ashleys are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy F. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hattan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoagland, and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

IT ISN'T A DOUBLE EXPOSURE

... the twinkling eyes and broad smiles belong to the Anderson twins, Marlene, left, and Arlene. Mother and Daddy are Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Anderson of 332 North Ninth street.

"Cafe Society" Is Theme Of Party

"Cafe society at home" was the clever theme of a party Saturday evening when Carmel Finnigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Finnigan, entertained a group of the younger set at the Finnigan home, 309 Washington street. Occasion for the party was Carmel's 15th birthday.

Rooms were decorated with colorful streamers and gay balloons. Girls wore formal gowns to the affair. Carmel's brothers, Matthew and Jimmy, operated the "hat check stand." Assisting the hostess were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finnigan and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Anderson. Carmel presented a number of unusual and clever awards to guests.

Her guests were Rosemary Murray, Sally Barnhill, Clarissa Mason, Jean Henderson, Totsie Lasky, Charlotte Ivory, Arlene Stanberry, Louise Linman, Sandra Moore, Jean Mahan, Kay Craig.

Gladys Charles, Betty Bennet, Marilyn Hemmingsen, Donna Cone, Judy Vandenberg, Faye Nelson, and Grace Caldwell.

Eight Years Old

Paul Robert Munson celebrated his eighth birthday with a party recently. His young guests played games and enjoyed refreshments.

Present were Mrs. Arthur Oberg and Patsy, Richard Gustafson, Jimmy Hall, Bobby Cox, Donald Ambers, Gary Shaffer, Bobby Greenleaf, Cornelius Crain, and a special guest was Mrs. Martha Sjodin of Bellingham, Wash. Paul's grandmother.

In games, Richard Gustafson, Jimmy Hall and Donald Ambers received awards.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Motley, of 2209 Artnip, have returned from a five-day trip in San Francisco and the bay region.
