

Pelicans Pace Field To Take Cinder Classic

By Hale Scarborough

Rolling up a total of 67 points—10½ better than the nearest rival, Medford—the Klamath Pelicans took another win in the annual Southern Oregon-Northern California invitational track and field meet on Modoc field Saturday afternoon and night.

Medford's squad, state winners of the Hayward relays, trailed the Pelis all the way through, at times just by a point, and finished off with a tally of 56½. Ashland was third with 45 points, followed by 20 for Grants Pass, 14½ for Henley, four for Weed and two for Merrill.

Only one previous meet record was eclipsed during the chilly session Saturday night, that when Bob Redkey of the Pelis slipped over the low hurdle course in 23.4 seconds. He cut six-tenths of a second off the old mark which had stood since 1940, and just beat out Medford's Bill Singler by a pace.

Cards Stay In Basement

Red Sox Fare Little Better In American

By The Associated Press

What has happened to the Cards and Red Sox? It is still a bit early for too much concern but already calamity howlers are pointing at the lowly position occupied by the defending champions in the current major league pennant races.

Instead of at least duplicating last year's early showing when they won nine of their first 11 games at this corresponding date, the Red-birds, in a complete about face have dropped seven of their first nine starts against their western rivals to find themselves sharing a cellar berth with the New York Giants, five full games behind the first place Brooklyn Dodgers.

For instance, in absorbing a 3-0 shutout at the hands of the Cubs in Chicago yesterday, the Red-birds climaxed a nine-game stretch during which they made only 58 hits on 290 times at bat for a meager .200 batting average. Not a single St. Louis player is hitting .300.

The Cubs moved into second place, one game behind the Dodgers.

Although not as disappointing as the Cards, Boston's Red Sox have not looked at all like the club which swept aside all opposition in easy fashion last year. Playing a majority of their 11 games against the lowly Philadelphia Athletics, the Sox have won five, lost five and tied one.

As they head west for their first extended road trip, they are only a game and a half behind the first place New York Yankees, but on the gloomier side, are the same distance away from last place.

The Sox had to come from behind to earn a standoff yesterday as rain halted the first game of a scheduled doubleheader with the Red Sox and A's deadlocked 6-6 at the end of nine innings. The second game was washed out. Trailing 6-5, the Sox tied the score in the last of the eighth on two hits and as many walks.

Although they spoiled Babe Ruth Day for 58,339 fans at the Yankee stadium by losing to Little Hudson and the Washington Senators 1-0, the Yankees had the satisfaction of taking over first place from the Chicago White Sox, who dropped both ends of a doubleheader to the Browns at St. Louis, 4-2 and 4-3.

The Dodgers, who have lost only once in their last 13 meetings with the New York Giants at Ebbets field, climaxed an uphill battle with a run in the ninth to win, 9-8.

One of the largest crowds in Crocker field—36,991—saw the Cincinnati Reds take two from Pittsburgh to virtually tie the Pirates for third place. Bucky Walters, veteran Redleg right-hander, gave up six hits to win the opener, 6-1, and John Hefner won a two-inning 2-1 hurling duel from Fritz Ostermuller in the finale.

Two former American league stars, Dutch Leonard and Schoolboy Rowe, pitched the Philadelphia Phils to identical 5-4 triumphs over the Boston Braves in Shibe park. Ex-American leaguer Jim Tabor's ninth inning home run broke up the second game.

Belcastro Has Top Stint With Billy Weidner

Pete Belcastro, the old Weed Assassin, will try his colorful style of pier 6 brawling on tough Billy Weidner in an armor rattle main event Thursday night.

The Belcastro-Weidner fight, a non-championship affair, is scheduled for five 10-minute heats. Pete was to have been the last week's card but had to call off his opponent because of a cut on his arm.

Georges Dusette, who got off with a draw and a sore neck in his tiff with Weidner last Thursday, is not seriously damaged but is pushed down to semi-final billing on the mat card. Dusette is slated for a five-rounder with Canadian Herbie Parks.

No Smelt Running

PORTLAND, April 28 (AP)—The smelt won't be in the Sandy river this year—unless they break precedent.

Fishermen report there have been no runs in the river later than April 9 on record since 1929. The smelt have skipped their return to the river seven of the years since that date.

The gall, or gall-bladder, is present in most vertebrates, but not in doves and pigeons.

Sons Stop Craters With 3-Hit Tossing

Getting down to business after a shaky start, the Sons yesterday afternoon took a neat 4 to 3 decision from the Medford Craters out on Recreation field. Jimmie West, lefthander, came in for seven innings of pitching and was the winning hurler. The Craters managed only one hit off West and two off Tommy Tomlinson, his predecessor on the mound.

The occasion was the first game of the exhibition season in Klamath Falls. Saturday night at Medford the Sons lost a wild 9-7 tilt to the Craters.

In yesterday's game Tomlinson was nicked for two runs in the first innings on two walks, one hit and one error, but the Sons got a pair in their half of the frame to even things up.

The Klamath tallies resulted from consecutive doubles by Earl Brooks and Mario Pisan, and a single by Tag Tognoli.

Both sides went scoreless in the second, and West came in to pitch for the Sons at the start of the third stanza. He got off on the wrong foot when Pisan let Tom Jones liner get through left field. Norman Lucich lofted a fly to Hi Hatfield and Jones took third, to score a moment later when Boyd Lucich singled to left.

That was the final score for Medford, and also the final hit as West kept the Craters under his thumb the rest of the way. He fanned six—including the side in the ninth—walked one and hit one batsman.

Klamath took the lead in the fourth. With one away Bart Golbar doubled to left center, Fran Miller singled on the ground into right field, sending Golbar to third. Dale Graham beat a hit to short and Miller won a footrace to second base as Golbar scored.

Then on a double steal the throw-down got away from shortstop Roy Crandall. Miller came home and Graham took third. Derrah got an infield single and West walked, making the bases, but Brooker and Pisan flied out to end the rally.

Klamath scored again in the fifth when Tognoli singled and Golbar followed up with his second double, and put across the final tally in the eighth when Dale Graham got to second on a two-base error, advanced on an infield out and scored on a single by Brooks.

Ted Bergold, lefthanded pitcher for the Craters, was the loser. He pitched five innings.

Beavers Clinging To First

By The Associated Press

They split the Sunday doubleheader up and down the Pacific Coast league yesterday.

The day's firing in the tight race left the Portland Beavers on top of the heap by a shade over the Los Angeles Angels with San Diego and Sacramento in hot pursuit.

Los Angeles, winning the opener, 6 to 3, from the Portland club had the Beavers' Tommy Bridges, who hurled a no hitter last week, in trouble, virtually all the way until he was replaced in the eighth inning. Portland took the second game, 4 to 3, stopping an Angel uprising in the sixth. Ceece Garratt of Los Angeles had four hits during the day, including a homer off Bridges in the first game.

Oakland capped the first game from San Diego, 4 to 3, on Ralph Buxton's four-hit pitching but the Padres came back to take the nightcap, 2 to 1, with some fancy pitching of their own, Manny Salvo's five-hit job.

In Seattle Lou Novikoff, the Rangers' clouting outfielder, had a big day for himself with five hits, including a home run and two doubles. Seattle won the opener, 6 to 4, from San Francisco but the Seals grabbed the second game, 9 to 2, on Jack Brewer's four-hit pitching. Seattle went on a four-run gallop in the seventh inning of the first game to pull away. The Seals, in turn, got away for six runs in the first two innings of the nightcap, coasting home.

The Hollywood Stars dumped themselves into the league cellar by losing their first game to Sacramento, 11 to 4, but they bounced out, into seventh place, by snatching the nightcap, 5 to 4, in eight innings.

YOUTHFUL KEGLER HITS 248 30-LINE AVERAGE

ELKHART, Ind., April 28 (NEA)—Just when the bowling season was on the way out, a 20-year-old "prodigy" came up here with—well, prodigious scoring in a series of free exhibitions at the Red Crown alleys.

Apparently his hook was grooved to his pet alley, but there was nothing about the way Ray Byrner Jr. rolled strike after strike. The pins weren't big tournament wood, of course, but the type used in regular league competition here.

An ex-GI overseas veteran and son of the manager of the local alleys, boasting averages of around 190 and 195 in regular league competition here and at South Bend, Ind., Ray changed his hook delivery take-off from the corner to near the center of the alley.

He tried out the 10 alleys where he assists his father as manager, and took 247, 244 for 702, as women and two new bowling balls and used a second-hand two-finger ball which he had bought after rolling a reported 271 with it in a practice game.

Before critical audiences of afternoon bowlers he rolled the following series, all on his pet No. 6 alley: Monday—266, 290, 258 for 814; Tuesday—245, 246 for 720; reported by Burns Becht, City Bowling association secretary.

Tuesday—298, 202, 238 for 738, and 212, 247, 244 for 703, as women bowlers of the Christiana Country club league looked on.

Wednesday—268, 245, 235 for 748, with Smith Frye, the local left-handed champ, as certified witness.

Thursday—245, 268, 213 for 724 and 249, 209, 224 for a mere 682.
