

Klamath Choral Society Slates Concert For May 2

The first annual concert to be presented by the Klamath Choral Society, is scheduled for Friday evening, May 2, in the Klamath Union high school and a cordial invitation has been issued to the public to enjoy this formal appearance of the community group.

Many of the finest voices in the city have been recruited for the chorus which has worked diligently to present Henry Hadley's beautiful "The New Earth," an ode for mixed chorus, solo voices and piano.

The program, divided into two parts, opens with a group of selections sung by the group including: Josquin Des Prez, "Christe Eleison from the mass"; "I, Homme Arms," Tchaikovsky; "Cherubim Song," Charles W. Lawrence; "Reflection," George Herschel; "Morning Hymn," Noble Cain; "Ode to Solitude," Tchaikovsky; "A Prayer for Purification," Louis Lewandowski; "Hallelujah, Praise Ye the Lord."

Following intermission, Hadley's
