Camp Fire News

A great number of girls attended the recent court of awards, at which time they passed the requirements for ranks and the national birthday honor of Camp Fire. Groups will have individual courted fires in the near future to award the honors and ranks attained. There will be one more court of awards before the end of the school year, and girls may either work for rank to be taken at that time, or wait until the summer camp in August.

In Bonanza, the Horizon club group is working on plans for a play to be given jointly with the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and Blue Birds. The girls in this club have been very active in Camp Fire organization, and recently attended the luncheon given for Miss Hess, regional field secretary.

Triop 6 Birthday

It was a thrilling occasion for members of Triop 6 Girl Scouts, Roosevelt school, when they gathered in the garden of their leader, Mrs. Dean Osborn on Lawrence street, for the "all dues paid" birthday party last Thursday, with awards and presentations made against a background of spring blossoms.

The color guard, composed of Joan Zanders, Carol Jean Elliott and Geraldine Lee, presented the flag ceremony and Mrs. James Pinniger, Girl Scout commissioner, then presented leather badges to those who have completed requirements in leather. Those receiving badges were: Bonita Huddart, Beverly Hunt, Bernice Traw, Carol Jean Elliott, Dolores Caster, Geraldine Lee, Jeannine Zanders, Julie Harnden, Joan Zanders, Patricia Lehto, Patsy Garvin and Sara Stewart.

Two of the troop, Ruth Romcke and Sara Stewart, received their cook badge on completing requirements.

Flavia Lee was invested with the rank of tenderfoot Scout.

An honor guest of the group was Mrs. B. M. Briggs, outgoing president of Jaycettes, which sponsor the troop. Mrs. Neal Stewart, mother of one of the troop members, was also a guest and Mrs. Osborn urged all parents and interested friends to attend troop meetings at any time. Assistant leader of Troop 6 is Mrs. A. O. Romcke.

Following the program, a cake led in Scout colors, and bearing a candle for each member of the troop, was cut and served in the garden.
