Dog Lockup Off To Start

Three complaints were filed by the city poundmaster against dog owners this morning, and five other pups are lodged in the pound, at dog lock-up time got off to a howling, whining start today, May 1.

The pups face 60 long days of being tied or fenced in the family yard in place of their customary freedom. City ordinance provides that the canine pets be kept home from May 1 to June 30, and should they be found running loose, they will be picked up by the pound. Owners must pay a fine of $5 for the first time, with the fee going up for second offenses.

Legion Starts Ball Season

Some 40 boys turned out at Modoc field yesterday afternoon, anxious to get started on the summer's American Legion baseball play, and many other prospective players are expected to get their names into the pot when school closes.

Final plans for the up-to-17 year old league and a schedule of games will be made this week. At least three teams will be entered, and include most of the players on the Klamath Union high school baseball team.

Howard Suit May End Today

Direct testimony in the Frank Z. Howard vs. Klamath county lawsuit should be ended late today, according to R. B. Maxwell, Howard's attorney. The county surveyor is now in his fourth day on the stand as a witness for himself in the $9000 back pay suit.

Howard is giving a day-by-day account of his work as surveyor from July 23, 1942, to June 30, 1945, reading from a diary kept during the period. Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg is hearing the non-jury trial.

Man Held Here On Los Angeles Charge

Merle H. Crosby, 30, of Los Angeles, was committed to the county jail yesterday afternoon on a fugitive from justice charge. He is named in a warrant from Los Angeles police for passing bad checks.

Crosby, who was arrested by city police two days ago, waived a justice court hearing on the fugitive charge and bail was set at $2000. He will be returned to California.

Homemakers Festival Opens

The annual Klamath county homemakers festival opened May 1, 10 a. m. in the Methodist church parlors, with a larger registration than the two previous years.

Each of the units in the county seems to top its display each successive year, and the 1947 exhibits were interesting, informative and pleasing.

The audience participation, in a KPTV broadcast, at 11:30 a. m. was a special feature of this year's festival with several valuable merchandise awards made by Klamath merchants.

Mexican Given Jail Sentence

Ray Felix, 39-year-old Mexican, was sentenced to spend 10 days in the city jail for drunkenness after a police court hearing this morning. Felix pleaded guilty.

This was the 21st time Felix has been in the city lockup in the past two and a half years, mostly for drinking. He was arrested on Klamath avenue last night.

Also in police court today was Mrs. J. Fogie, 57, operator of the Pelican hotel, who pleaded guilty to drunk charge. She was given the option of a $10 fine or five days in jail.

Checks Go Out On Regular Schedule

PORTLAND, May 1 (AP)—Subsistence checks were mailed on schedule yesterday to Oregon veterans, the Portland Regional Veterans' administration manager reported.

Charles Langdon, Portland office manager, said all regular checks were issued, despite Washington, D. C., announcements that some would be delayed. Langdon said there were sufficient funds to handle checks through May 2-3.

Tornado Claims Two More Victims

ROCKWALL, Tex., May 1 (AP)—The latest of a series of four tornadoes which swept northeast Texas Tuesday and Wednesday nights left two persons dead and a third injured as its indirect victims.

Mrs. Jerry Husk, returning to her home at Alice after attending the funeral of her father at Paris, and Clay B. Neese of San Antonio, were killed in a highway accident at the west edge of Rockwall during the storm.

In The Day's News

he says that democracy, if not backed by force, whets the appetite of "dictators."

YOU will note that both speak of DEMOCRACY.

What you may not have noted is that when Moscow speaks of democracy and Washington speaks of democracy they are talking of UTTERLY DIFFERENT THINGS.

Washington means a way of life in which the state exists solely to serve the individual and his welfare. Moscow means a way of life in which the individual exists solely to serve the state and to contribute to its power and its glory.

Answering Mrs. Jones, whose husband has been away hunting for more than six months and who wishes us to help her find him. Don't worry, Mrs. Jones, your husband, no doubt, is just trying to develop his own wolf call.

Mrs. Smith writes: We are farmers and we have a good steady team of work horses. My husband had been using them plowing recently in preparation for our crops. The other day when I left for town to do some shopping my hand told me to be sure to get two of those delicious Palace Market grain-fed T-Bones as they would give him to finish his plowing.

Modoc Council Meet Held

Barney Smith, Alturas lumber executive, was host Wednesday night at the meeting of the Modoc council. Dinner was followed by the regular meeting at a new roadhouse just opened on highway 299, six miles out of Alturas.

Outlines of the plan for converting the main barracks at Klamath Falls into a technical institute, were reviewed for the group by Winston Purvine, supervisor of trades and industries for the Oregon state department of vocational education.

Another speaker at the meeting was W. T. McIntyre, manager of United Air Lines for Klamath Falls, who spoke on air transportation.

Seaside Voters Face Problem

SEASIDE, Ore., May 1 (AP)—Voters here will decide May 20 whether they want an $80,000 auditorium which the ballot site description places in the center of Edgewood street.

Councilman R. S. Smith reported the flaw in the petition was discovered too late and City Attorney Thomas Chave Jr. said he knew of no way to amend or recall the petition.

Well, this morning he ate them both for breakfast and about 10 o'clock I heard him calling me from out in the field. When I got there the team was unharnessed and my old-man had hitched himself to the business end of the plow. "Guide this thing, Sally, and we'll get something done," he said. "Those old plugs are too dang'd slow." With that he started out on what amounted to a trot. We plowed five acres in just a few hours and between you and me I rode the plow most of the way. I just couldn't take it.
