

Baptismal Service At Crescent

Special services have been well attended for the past two weeks with a peak of attendance of 108 Sunday morning at the newly organized First Baptist church of Crescent.

Sunday at 2:30 p.m. the rites of baptism were observed by 27 children and young people. At the Little Deschutes river. Rev. Robert Means officiated, being assisted by Rev. Kenneth A. Tobias of the First Baptist church of Bend. Rev. Past of Redmond took moving pictures of the service for permanent records and for the church history records. Those baptized were Thelma Brock, Jeannette, Charles, Ethelene and John Bishop; Joyce and Doris Griffin; Carol, Allen, and Margaret Giddat; Verda, John, Jorah Nell, Jane, Brewer, and Ava Rae Garick; Patricia Sue Hill; June James; Robert Leroy; Eldon Darrell and Myerene McCaw; Sharon Peacher; Bobby Lee Periman; Peggy Toomey and Erlene Ware. Rev. Past closed the service with prayer.

There are 45 candidates who will join the church as charter members by church letters. With the 27 who were baptized Sunday the initial membership will be 72. Special services will continue every night except Monday for the next two weeks.

Rev. Robert Means will be the resident pastor. Daily Vacation Bible school is planned for the Crescent church.

'When Thou Prayest' Is Sermon Subject

"When Thou Prayest," will be the subject of the sermon at the morning worship at Klamath Lutheran church with the Rev. S. M. Topper, pastor. The senior choir, O. K. Warcup, director, will sing "Thanks Be To God," by Dickson. A nursery for children of pre-school age is conducted during the morning worship hour. The worship service is broadcast over radio station KFLW on the first Sunday of the month. The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages.

The Young Peoples' Luther league meets at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. Dallas Baldwin will conduct the devotion. Judy Larson will present the topic, and Gaynor Huck and Charles Norland will be on the serving committee.

To Go East

Rev. C. C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, will leave Saturday for St. Louis to attend the Baptist convention May 4 through 11.

Rev. Brown To Convention

The First Baptist church will honor its pastor, the Rev. C. C. Brown, by sending him to St. Louis as a messenger to the Baptist convention May 4 through 11. The men's brotherhood will sponsor this event, according to C. R. Larson, president.

Rev. Brown is closing his 12th year of service with the church. He has lived in this community most of the time since 1925. He answered the call to the Gospel ministry here, was ordained to the ministry by the local church and in 1935 was called as pastor.

Rev. Brown will leave Portland on the City of St. Louis Saturday morning, arriving in St. Louis Tuesday afternoon. He expects to return by way of Ogden and Sacramento.

Youth For Christ To Hear Speaker

Rev. Peter J. Brashler, returned missionary from African Island mission, will be the featured speaker at the Klamath Falls Youth for Christ rally this Saturday night at the Fremont school auditorium.

On the program with Rev. Brashler will be the featured speaker, an all-church choir, and the all-church orchestra, an outstanding athlete, and a featured vocalist and instrumental soloist. The public is given a cordial invitation to attend this youth rally.

Church Of Christ To Hear Winter

Subject of Evangelist, Gus Winter's message at the 11 a. m. Sunday service at the Church of Christ, 2205 Waukland, will be "Have Women a Scriptural Right To Teach Our Bible Classes?"

At 7:30 p. m. he will conclude his series on "Why We Have Classes Before Our Worship," based on Matthew 13: 3-23 and 25: 14-30.

A well-graded Bible school with classes for ever age, taught by competent teachers, meets at 10 a. m. Sundays. Evangelist Winter extends a cordial invitation to all to attend the church.

Home Week At First Baptist

Christian Home Week will be observed at the First Baptist church, north 8th and Washington, May 4 through May 11, according to an announcement by the pastor, C. C. Brown.

Sunday, May 4, at 11 a. m. the services will be given to Christian home dedication to inaugurate the week of special events.

Tuesday evening the Men's Brotherhood will entertain the women of the church in a special program honoring motherhood. The men will prepare the program and serve the refreshments.

Wednesday, at the regular hour of mid-week service, the program will feature family night. Friday night will be designated as an evening for social life in all the groups of the church. The families are urged to observe family home night on Saturday with the suggestion that each family plan an evening of home life and family devotions.

The church is planning special services for Mother's Day.

Story Of Church Is Barnett Topic

"The Story of the Church," continuing from the time of the Reformation, is the subject chosen for the sermon given by Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. The choir will sing "Lo, a Voice to Heaven Sounding" by Bernstein. Mrs. Elbert Veatch, organist, will play Handel's "Largo" as the prelude to the service. The Meditation will be "Traumerei" by Schumann.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. Westminister Fellowship at 6:30 p. m. will be a joint meeting of the intermediates and seniors. Shirley Robinson will lead the study on "Prayer."

Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. the intermediate girls will meet at the church for the Confirmation class under the direction of the pastor.

Matthews To Hold Baptismal Service

Sunday, May 4, is the date for the regular observance of the Sacrament of Holy Communion at Community Congregational church. All members of the church are expected to be present at this celebration. The service begins at 11 a. m. promptly.

Rev. Godfrey Matthews will deliver a brief address entitled "They Kept His Word."

The regular Vesper service will be held at 5 in the evening. The musical period of the service will be presented by Mrs. Henry W. Moore and Mrs. Marie Casjens. Soloists are Mrs. P. S. Haddock and George Willis. Rev. Godfrey Matthews will give an illustrative address on "Reading the Bible for Pleasure."

This service lasts exactly one hour. Offerings are in aid of the organ fund.

Evangelist At Klamath Temple

A series of special meetings will be held in the Klamath Temple church with Evangelist Billy Slipp as guest speaker, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week at 7:45 p. m.

Rev. Slipp is national president of the Young People of the Open Bible Standard churches, and is pastor of the church in Toledo, O.

He was formerly assistant pastor at Klamath temple, and made many friends while here. Klamath temple is located at 1007 Pine, and all are invited to attend the services.

Schulze At Zion Lutheran

"We Are No Longer What Once We Were" will be the topic of Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, 1025 High, in the Sunday morning worship service beginning at 11 o'clock. Holy communion will be celebrated in this service. The hymn, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me," will be sung by the Sunday school children. The Sunday school and Bible class will meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

A congregational fellowship dinner will be held on Sunday evening beginning at 5 o'clock. The serving at this dinner will be done by the Ladies Aid under the direction of Mrs. H. Braatz, president. An interesting program of vocal and instrumental numbers and a reading has been planned. Arthur Oriskowsky will act as toastmaster. There is no charge for the dinner. A free-will dinner offering for the building fund will be received. All members of the congregation and friends are cordially invited to attend.

The public is cordially invited to attend special services this week-end in the Salvation Army chapel at 400 Klamath.

Brigadier O. B. Collier, divisional commander for the Oregon and Southern Idaho division, will conduct these services, assisted by Major H. Koerner, newly appointed divisional and young people's secretary for the same area. Major Koerner, prior to this appointment, served as the Salvation Army's regional supervisor for the USO, western territory.

All are invited to come and enjoy the services Saturday, at 7:30 p. m., and Sunday at 10 a. m. and 11 a. m.

Blonde, brunette and red-haired wigs for show window manikins have been made from chicken feathers.
