Buffet Dinner

BILOQUIN—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gieger comprised a chef team on Saturday evening, April 26, when their daughter Bonnie entertained a group of friends at a baked ham buffet dinner.

As the majority of the guests were senior classmates of Miss Gieger, she had sent boardroom styled invitations, decorated the tables in blue and white, and provided a frigate-not corsage tied with all-ribbons for each girl present and a blue carnation for the boys.

A lively game and a sock dance preceded entertainment for those attending, including Mary Monks, Geta Mathis, Georgia Priebe, Ruth Johnson, Jayne Flury, Elene Pohl, Dwayne Matt, Elmore Nicholson, Dan Barker, Dean Greaser, Glenn Genger Jr., Don Wimer, Dick Flury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Gieger and the hostess.

Social Meeting

The Catholic Daughters held their social meeting Monday evening, April 28. During the evening which was played with high score going to Naude Calhoun, Minnie Mackay, consolation prize, and Rose O'Leary received the special award. Refreshments were served later in the evening. Lillian Dale was chairman of the affair, and was assisted by Margaret Layin, Mary Hurly, Mary Holland, and Marie Nidorf.

Alice Abbott, Angeline Milani and Matilda Sari reported satisfactory progress on the Red Cross sewing work.

Bride Club

BLY—On Friday evening, April 25, Helen Smith was hostess to her bride club. Two tables were in play during the evening with high score going to Fay Schwenberg, consolation prize, and Betty Armstrong, consolation to Lyndell Harrison and traveling to Thelma Abbott.

At a late hour refreshments were served to Elizabeth Campbell, Thelma Abbott, Niana Hadley, Fay Schwenberg, Miriam Powell, Betty Armstrong, Lyndell Harrison and Helen Smith.

Spring Prom

GILCHRIST—The annual Junior-Senior prom was the main event of Friday, April 25, in Gilchrist. The decorative scheme, unknown until that night, was a lovely scene from the "Enchanted Forest." The glittering stars and the silvery moon sent a subdued glow over the background of fir trees and forest scenes.

Bud Russell's orchestra furnished the music. Joyce and Doris Griffin sang two numbers, "Oh, What It Seemed To Be" and "For You, For Me, For Evermore." Formals that were worn created a colorful spectacle within the forest scene. All that attended enjoyed it immensely.

Meeting Slated

MALIN—The Malin American Legion auxiliary, unit 84, will meet in the Malin church, Monday evening, May 5. The president, Martha Brothaker, requests that all members be present since there will be the annual election of officers and the selection of delegates to the state convention to be held in Portland June 26, 27 and 28.

Mrs. Mary Victoria and Mrs. Anna Petrusik will entertain and Mrs. Ethel Roberts will serve as hostess May 5.

Birthday Party

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Wes Dearborn entertained with a wicker roast Friday after school to celebrate the ninth birthday of her son, Billy.

Following games and contests, the youngsters enjoyed refreshments. Billy received nice gifts from his little friends. His guests were Richard Burnett, David Thomas, Henry Dearborn, Douglas Thomas, Douglas Embrey, Mary Ann Leavitt and Catherine Dearborn.

Entertained

The employees of Elie Naah company were entertained at Two Sisters Inn on Saturday, April 12, by Mrs. Jack Elie.

The party enjoyed dinner, with gardenias presented to the ladies and personality cards to the men. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ruppel, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Al Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Spetter, Sylvia Stratman and the hostess, Mrs. Jack Elie.

Exchange Vows

On Saturday, April 26, at 8 o'clock, Cecelia Skuzacek of this city became the bride of Wendal Carlson. Rites were solemnized at Sacred Heart Catholic church with the Rev. Father Timothy Casey reading the first nuptial mass.

The church choir sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus" before the double ring ceremony.

For the rites, the bride wore an afternoon dress of white with matching accessories, borrowed from her sister was the white prayer book she carried. Topping it was a single white orchid. For jewelry she wore a stand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Don Hancock, who was attired in a frock of rose crepe with gray accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Best man was Mr. Hancock.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Pelican cafe at 10 o'clock, following which Mr. and Mrs. Carlson left for their wedding trip to San Francisco and the bay region. They returned via the Redwood highway and are making their home here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skuzacek of Pine City, Minn.

Senior Ball Held at Bly

The senior ball held at the gymnasium on Saturday, April 26, was well attended. The class had decorated the hall very attractively and an enjoyable evening was had by the crowd.

Long's Apparel

has a beautiful assortment of new white hankies... pure linen, made in China... with those intricate drawn-work designs in which the orientals have the extreme pattern for minutes and while you're shopping Mother's Day shopping this coming week, be sure to see these little needlework masterpieces.

Eight separate patterns comprised the hankies... they are all so exquisite it's hard to choose... but I do believe the lovely butterfly design is my choice. Others are enhanced by the delicate embroidery... and all have hand-rolled hems. Prices, by the way, are very moderate.

LONG'S APPAREL... 719 Main... also has a new shipment of print hankies in unusual patterns... in case Mother likes something more colorful.

An idea for a teen-ager's spring party... arrange favors and bottles in a butterfly design, place bottles of carbonated soft drinks on the table, unopened. Put tulip stems through small paper doilies, and tie each to a bottle with ribbon.

has an exciting, alluring gift that lets you active, attractive Mother know that you place her in a pedestal... but not a rocking chair... Helena Rubinstein's White Flame or Heaven-Sent perfume... and other matching toiletries for either.

Unforgettable White Flame... from its pedestal-shaped bottle to the distinctive flame-motif cap... conveys a delightful message... and she'll wear it for every important occasion. This perfume is priced from $13.50 to $25.50, plus tax... and the Eau de Toilette, for more lavish use, at $5.50 and tax. Then so she'll have her beloved White Flame with her wherever she goes... there's the Perfume Compact... the same enticing aroma in solid, non-spillable form... that fits easily into a handbag.

Madame Rubinstein's Heaven-Sent fragrance is an enticing blend-of-flowers bouquet that's become a great favorite... and is especially appropriate for sunny summer days. Heaven-Sent's angel-bedecked star-studded bottles range from $1.00 to $8.50... and there are beautifully packaged gift sets of this fragrance... in various combinations of perfume, eau de toilette, bath oil, body powder or soap... from $3.00 to $10, plus tax... at the cosmetics bar in CURRIN'S FOOT DRUGS, corner of Ninth and Main.

of the Pest Control Service... brought his de-weeding equipment around last week and gave Martha's fine dandelion spray a taste of that deadly herbicide spray... utterly destroying its desire to flourish and re-emerge. Furthermore, even the tenacious-rooted plantain and thorny clumps of ground thistle are drooping and giving up... thank goodness!

Included in Ed Greene's lawn treatments... on which he guarantees results at a moderate cost... are follow-up instructions for watering and yard care to have healthy grass... of great help to the amateur. So, you're hankering to escape the tiresome task of digging dandelions, try ED GREENE'S BEST CONTROL SERVICE... phones 3266 Klamath Falls or 2613 Tulelake... show you what can be done.

A new leaf has been added to the laurels won by cake make-up... a moisture-proof sponge "well" centered in a new "beau cake" into which the wet apparatus... so, you see, all are low enough priced for everyday use... and will hold their vivid colorings through launderings. You'll find them on the second floor linen department of YOUR STORE, Inc., 721 Main.

ART NEEDLEWORK CLUB SCHEDULES MEETING

Mrs. George Wirtz, club president, will be hostess to the Art Needlework club Wednesday afternoon, May 7, at 2 o'clock. The address is 420 Jefferson street.

Philco asked the bureau of personnel to furnish names of approximately 8000 men who completed the naval wartime course on electronics of which 300 were hired at salaries in the neighborhood of $7000 a year.

has lots of gift pretties dear to a mother's heart... but maybe you had thought of a housecoat... the array of new arrivals there this week... washable seersuckers, gaily flowered, that zip up the front or wrap around... sizes 14 to 44... a $3.95 price... or graceful rayon jerseys in polka dots and florals.

Other Mother's Day suggestions from LaPointe's are summer Meadowbrook bags... designed for costume effect... (the military department has ribbon hats to match)... smart, practical plastics in white, red or black... every the distinguished new reptile handbags, if you're seeking one of quality leather for all-year-round use.

Costume jewelry shouldn't be overlooked either... and particularly nice for Mom are the elegant chateaus... or gleaming strands of inexpensive pearls... and for something truly exquisite, that French-made Crepe de Chine... an exclusive at cosmetics department... in LAPOINTE'S... 507 Main!

The Candy Jar

adjoining the Pelican cafe... has received a special Mother's Day shipment of those wonderful Rogers Chocolates... renowned for deliciousness and delightful variety... from the oldest chocolate maker in the world... and Martha's hoping you'll be thoughtful enough to present a box of these favorites to your best "cover girl" on May 11th.

In addition to Rogers, a Klamath exclusive with THE CANDY JAR... 722 Main... you'll find here appropriately packaged, assorted chocolates in two, three and five-pound sizes for that special Sunday... under such outstanding names as Drury Lane, Princess de Conde, Miss Saylor's, Kraft's, Brown and Haley, LaGrande Duchesse and Hoefler's.

has some of the most intriguing floral note paper... illustrated with daffodils, sweet peas and old-fashioned pink and blue pastels... that looks as though it were made on purpose as a gift for Mother's Day... and at present, there's also a wonderful assortment of writing paper in stock, including plain, personalized, colored border types or delicately tinted sheets... in Eaton's and the Whiting line, both of which are renowned for quality.

While shopping around in Shaw's, Martha noted a variety of leather goods gift ideas... either for your "best girl" or a coming graduate... such as purse-size address and book holders... or a wide range of prices. Other appropriate suggestions are pen and pencil sets... or handsomely-bound and clearly-printed Bibles.

However, if Mother's hobby is gardening, I know she'll appreciate some of the books on bulb cultivation, growing or arranging flowers, raising of herbs, how to fix "dish gardens" or just a complete gardener's manual... from LEMON JUICES... the Elby Lemon or Lime bar mixes... or the Virginia Dare mixes for Tom Collins, Whiskey Sour or Lemon Sour... Canada Dry Ginger Ale... for a long while obtainable only now and then... is arriving in much better quantity... and there's plenty of Canada Dry Blue Spot, Root Beer and Sparkling Water... wonderful for home-made sodas.

You can order any of the Pack-Tak beverages, such as Cola and Upper 10, from PINE STREET MARKET... corner of Seventh and Pine... the healthful White Rock Mineral Water... and Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Squirt and many other fizzy thirst quenchers.

Rickys Jewelers

are offering a three-day-free-trial special on portable radios... the new Sentinel, in particular... which means you drop in to the store... at 700 Main... pick one up, take it home and try it out for three days.

That if you decide it's just the radio you've been looking for... you can buy it on Rickys' easy $1.50-a-week payment plan... and also get good trade-in value on a less modern set.

This trial offer from RICKYS is especially timely... because any graduate would consider a Sentinel an ideal gift... as it's rated as outstanding among portables... displays on AC, DC currents or on batteries... in cars, trains, planes or buses... and date-Kates like having one of their own to lug on picnics.

Ed Greene

of the Pest Control Service... brought his de-weeding equipment around last week and gave Martha's fine dandelion spray a taste of that deadly herbicide spray... utterly destroying its desire to flourish and re-emerge. Lions Club To See Alcan Road Picture

A moving picture showing the Alcan highway, will be seen at the Lions club luncheon, Tuesday, May 6, at the Willard, through the courtesy of West-Hitchcock corporation.

Ray Jueb, district governor for 36-E will be a guest at the luncheon and Ray McNabb will be chairman for the day.

Nominations for new officers to serve for the coming year will be held on May 20.

By being a member of the inactive naval reserve, you not only help your country but you are prepared for war but, by this preparation, help prevent another war.

The Town Shop

has a fascinating array of costume fabric bags... with matching gloves... in petal pink, level blue, yellow or white... that would please Mother immensely on her special day... May 11th... and as for leather handbags with personality plus, you'll find a splendid assortment in reptile, alligator, saddle leather or plastics.

Two numbers Martha thought particularly outstanding were a roomy gray suede and a soft gray plastic... but if you choose one of the adaptable saddle leathers, The Town Shop has just the right pickings gloves to go with it... in addition to practically anything else in the glove line, from white to black... in fabrics or leathers.

You'll also find here a complete assortment of costume jewelry... for formal wear... including striking new lapel pin and earring sets of pink gold and rhinestones... and bejeweled or metal trimmed combs for upweeper coiffures.

Don't forget that THE TOWN SHOP... Main at Fifth... is headquarters for those dimensional slippers... fitting Lanes slippers... available in quantity again... which Mother likes so well!

has received a shipment of those handsome Meeker bags of genuine calfskin... not on the market during the war... these makers refused to put out of inferior quality. And these do have quality... the kind that Mother appreciates by the way... being a kind of lined, waxy, waterproof compartments and leather coin purses. They come in either black or deep brown... and are not too high priced... from $12.50 to $27.50.

Also displayed in Miller's accessories department are those incomparable, leather-lined alligator bags from Argentina... that make an ultra gift... and right next door, at the glove counter, are more new arrivals you'll be glad to know about... beautiful, washable white deerskins, the first since the war, priced at $4.95... and white cotton, hand-stitched fabric gloves... as well as many other types.

Note to brides-elect... MILK-HICKLEY SEWING... now has exquisite lace-mitts in white, pink and black, at $1.25 a pair... and if you desire a nice gift for Mom that's different, there are show-length, fitted Lanes slippers... priced at $2.95.

Pine Street Market

has a special section reserved for refreshing beverages... and now that it's getting into that time of year when warm days make more drink-minded, Martha did a little special shopping in this corner... finding a complete selection of new and old favorites to provide variety.

Nice to have on hand for guest occasions are Angostura or Orange Bitters... Trupak's Grenadine or Creme de Menthe flavored syrups... unadorned Lime or natural Lemon juices... the Elby Lemon or Lime bar mixes... or the Virginia Dare mixes for Tom Collins, Whiskey Sour or Lemon Sour... Canada Dry Ginger Ale... for a long while obtainable only now and then... is arriving in much better quantity... and there's plenty of Canada Dry Blue Spot, Root Beer and Sparkling Water... wonderful for home-made sodas.

You can order any of the Pack-Tak beverages, such as Cola and Upper 10, from PINE STREET MARKET... corner of Seventh and Pine... the healthful White Rock Mineral Water... and Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Squirt and many other fizzy thirst quenchers.

The Beauty Nook

located on No. Fourth street... has just installed the Zotos Machineless and Rayette Safe-Wave permanents... both franchised... Anona Roberts told Martha... so this shop is now equipped for most any type of curl you wish.

During the three-day beauticians' convention held this week, Anona, who has been in the hair business for 15 years, rolled in the hair cutting, basic hair styling and personal analysis courses conducted by Hair Stylist Ricardo of Hollywood... and from knowledge gained on the latest trends in this field, is ready to assist all regular and new patrons with their coiffure problems.

Another... concerning new permanents available at THE BEAUTY NOOK... 133 No. 4th. The Zotos Machineless is widely advertised for its soft curl results that many women prefer... and the Safe-Wave is the new method of cold waving that doesn't require a neutralizer... giving a tight curl in considerably shorter time.

Adding originality to the costume of a staid-time bride, the magazine of Charm suggests arranging white violets over the crown of a Victorian bonnet and tying it "neatly" with a wide ribbon. This is effective for a bridesmaid's headgear, too.

Shaw Stationery

has some of the most intriguing floral note paper... illustrated with daffodils, sweet peas and old-fashioned pink and blue pastels... that looks as though it were made on purpose as a gift for Mother's Day... and at present, there's also a wonderful assortment of writing paper in stock, including plain, personalized, colored border types or delicately tinted sheets... in Eaton's and the Whiting line, both of which are renowned for quality.
