

House Delays Discussion Of Foreign Relief Bill Due To Death Of Gerlach

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
 WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—The start of history-making debate on the issue of help to Greece and Turkey in combatting communism was postponed by the house today because of the death of Rep. Charles L. Gerlach, Pennsylvania Republican.

Gerlach was a member of the foreign affairs committee which is in charge of the $400,000,000 aid bill.

House leaders agreed to defer opening of debate until tomorrow and adjourn promptly today out of respect to Gerlach, who died at his Allentown, Pa., home of heart attack.

In considering the aid program the lawmakers will be searching for the answer to this question:

"Will it lead to peace or war?"

"That question—which only time can answer positively—brought the house face-to-face with the choice of (1) acting now in an effort to halt the spread of communism, or (2) waiting to see whether Russia and the United States can reconcile differences in their ways of life.

The senate took a stand for action now, stamping its 67 to 23 okay on the bill April 22 after days of acrid debate.

Many of the same arguments, plus some new ones, are due for airing in the house.

There the membership is more widely divided on a foreign policy issue than at any time since congress was called upon six years ago to lend and lease the nation's aid to the powers fighting axis aggression.

Certainly to figure in the debate is the interview between Soviet Premier Stalin and Harold E. Stassen, republican presidential aspirant, which was made public yesterday.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

MARY LOU CASE
 Today begins a week of campaigning for the next year's student body officers. At the student body meeting in activity period, the report of the nominating committee was made and further nominations from the floor accepted. At the time this was written, the nominations have not yet been passed by the eligibility committee, but a complete list of candidates will be reported tomorrow.

To keep the freshmen in hand and traditions of the school enforced are the chief duties of the traditions committee. Also each fall they supervise the annual hells day dance and freshmen initiation. Next year's traditions committee has been elected by the standing committee and will take over their duties in the fall. The new members of the group are Maude Thompson, Dorothy Goggin, Carolyn Monteth, Gherie Mahan, Pat McMillan, Bob Loper, Jack Kenneth, Don Zarostinski, Pat Williams, Tom Edwards and the student body president-elect.

Stocking feet only will be the order for the 3rd annual stocking dance, this Friday, May 9. This affair is sponsored by the T&I and will last from 8:30 to 11:30. John Douglas' band will furnish the music. Prizes will be awarded to the individuals with the loudest socks, the best stockinged couple, and for other special events. Absolutely all shoes will be checked at the door.

Darrel Paugh is president of T&I and heads the finance committee for the dance. Other committee chairmen are Jack Brown, band; Chuck Smith, publicity; Harold Rush, tickets; Harvey Adlington, invitations; Verle Rogers, refreshments; Charles Denison, shoe-checking; and the 31 members of the T&I will compose the decoration committee.

Coming: The KUHS seniors will present a play in three acts, "Our Town," May 14-15 in the high school auditorium. The cast has been working early and late for the past month to make this production well worth any man's money and it should prove to be a huge success.

Schools Slate Music Festival

A May Day festival of music and dancing given by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the Altamont junior high school will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the school gymnasium. Suzanne Frel, elected by popular vote as her school-mates, will preside as the Queen of May. The junior high band will play under the direction of John McManus. Mrs. Earl Graham is in charge of the Maypole dance, featuring 48 dancers of the sixth grade. The program is under the general direction of Mrs. Henry W. Moore, vocal instructor.

Open house will be held that day, also, with visits to all the rooms where work of the year will be on display. The homemaking department of the upper grades will feature exhibits of both food and clothing. The girls will show the aprons, dresses and sport outfits and blouses made this year, and recipes will be given to all visitors. Mrs. Jack Wright is the instructor.

The boys' industrial arts department will welcome visitors with a special invitation to the fathers. An unusual exhibit will be a fleet of model boats, according to Bob Longueville, instructor. The entire program is free and the public is cordially invited.

Grocery Clerks To Vote On Pay Scale

PORTLAND, May 5 (AP)—Members of the AFL Grocery Clerks will vote tonight on a wage agreement the union's agents and employers' representatives have approved. Labor Conciliator George V. Walker reported here.

The federal conciliator did not disclose terms of the settlement between the 1300 clerks and about 600 employers. The union originally asked $70 for a 40-hour week and Ransom Meinke, attorney for the employers, earlier announced the stores offered $50.

HE WANTED TO SEE CRATER LAKE
 KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To The Editor)—I'm speaking about the colored man who came 2600 miles to Klamath Falls on a train and wanted to get a look at Crater lake.

Notice all those sign boards along the highway as you are out enjoying a Sunday ride, or a nice long trip in your old car—it's old but you think there isn't another car made as good—when you want to stop the rattle-trap, you gaze around, and right behind you there's a sign which says, "Next Time Try The Train."

Your friendly Southern Pacific. Now what I'm trying to get at in around about way, is where was all the friendliness when that colored man looked over town for a room and couldn't get one, and had to leave right away, poor soul, seems like one of them could have put him up for a few days so he could rest. He wanted to see Crater lake. Who doesn't?

If I had been around the depot, and believe you me, I'm a poor daughter of a gun, I would have found some way for him to have a rest and to see one of the great wonders of Oregon, Crater lake.

Now I'm asking you, what's wrong with Friendly Southern Pacific?

Bondholders Kill Reorganization

PORTLAND, May 5 (AP)—Bondholders of Portland Electric Power company securities have rejected the reorganization plan previously approved by stockholders after eight years legal preparation.

Estes Snedecor, referee in bankruptcy for the PEPCO arrangements, said a two-thirds majority was necessary and that only a slight majority had consented to the proposal.

Kill To Wed

MUST KILL—What of the young savage in the African jungle who must kill an enemy before he can take a wife? He never saw a Bible nor was he ever taught by man, not to kill. Does he die lost? Truly he does, for they who sin without the law shall perish without the law.—BIBLE.

HE KNOWS BETTER—Yes, he knows better than to kill for on the heart of every child born, God engraves his law that says man must not kill, steal, commit adultery, blaspheme nor lie. And more yet—God gives to each that inner voice of conscience. That is God's warning, His STOP-LIGHT. By law and conscience, he is guilty.

LIFTED OUT—Now in the face of all the murder and lust at the ends of the earth, a vast company of heathen are being lifted out of their sin to be made into the image of Christ. The Message of God's love wins them—the old, old story of redeeming love. They listen and heed the Good News that God had a Son who died for their sins. They receive Christ into their hearts as Lord and Saviour and God gives them New Birth and his own God-nature.

Which is better? To live in America and die lost or to dwell in the Dark Continent and receive Christ and eternal life?
