

Cards' New Outfielder Stops 9-Game Loss Run

Ron Northey, Acquired From Phillies, Lends Big Stick To Redbird Attack; Bobby Feller Gets Loser In Relief Job

By The Associated Press
It began to look today like wise old Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, had been reading up on Redbird pennant history when he made that Harry Walker for Ron Northey deal with the Philadelphia Phillies Saturday.

If he did thumb through the baseball record books he probably discovered that nearly every year the Cards won a flag, they were aided by a refugee from Philadelphia who had joined the club earlier in the season.

Northey, a hard-hitting outfielder, made a brilliant debut yesterday when he slugged two home runs and a single and batted in four runs to lead the Cards to a 9-0 victory in the second game of a double header with the Braves at Boston. Northey's big but powerful shutout pitching by Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, 1946 world series hero, was chiefly responsible for the snapping of a nine-game losing streak by the Cards. The Braves had hung the ninth straight defeat on the Redbirds by coming from behind with a four-run seventh inning to nip them 4-3 in the opener.

In the only other National League game, the Phillies clouted Cincinnati twice, 5-3 and 10-5 to stomp the Reds into seventh place while taking over fifth themselves.

Bobby Feller discovered that even he can't work with only one day's rest. The great Cleveland right-hander, who last Friday blanked the Boston Red Sox with only one hit, was rushed in by Manager Lou Boudreau to protect a one-run lead in the seventh inning against Washington.

But the Nats climbed all over him for four runs to win 6-3 and hung a defeat on Feller. They also ended Bob's skein of 29 consecutive scoreless innings. The second game of the scheduled double header at Cleveland was postponed because of rain.

The Chicago White Sox increased their American league lead to a game and a half by winning two squeakers from the Philadelphia Athletics 8-7 and 1-0. Showing a semblance of their '46 form, the Red Sox swept a double header from the Browns at St. Louis 3-2 and 8-1. Tommy Fine, 29-year-old Texas rookie, pitched five hit balls to win his first major league game in the nightcap. Bobby Doerr, with a double and a two-run homer accounted for all Boston's runs in the opener.

Detroit and the New York Yankees played a 2-2 tie at Briggs stadium in a game ended by rain at the end of six innings. Hal Newhouser was leading 2-1 when Joe DiMaggio belted for a double in the sixth inning and scored the tying run on a single by Snuffy Stirrweiss.

The Angels' lead was whittled to one game over the week-end as the defending champion Seals took three games from Portland while Los Angeles won only one while dropping two to last-place Seattle.

The Seals made it six out of seven for the Portland series by sinking the Beavers, 5-4 and 2-1, yesterday. Bones Sanders' 410-foot homer off Tommy Bridges gave Bob Joyce the first game victory, while Ace Roebbie Bob Chernes edged Jake Mooty in the nightcap duel.

The season's biggest crowd—19,219—saw Lefty O'Doul's Seals gain revenge for earlier drubbings at Portland.

Elmer Mallory's homer, double and triple led Lynn to a 3-2 nod over Seattle in the opener, but the Rainiers came back strong to take the game.

Portland Student Wins Contest
PORTLAND, May 5 (AP)—Vern Reynolds of Milton-Freewater's McLoughlin high school, won the state championship in the Knights of Pythias public speaking contests here, the lodge announced today.

Walter G. Gleason, state secretary of the lodge, said Howard Potter of Lincoln high, Portland, and Fred Dodge, Eugene high school, were tied for second. Alice Purdy, Hillsboro, and Shirley Cornelius, Bandon, tied for third.

Reynolds will compete in Victoria, B. C., with other Northwest victors. The national final in Beaumont, Tex., will result in a $750 scholarship.

First Air Cargo Reaches Anchorage
PORTLAND, May 5 (AP)—Columbia air cargo reported today its first flight of 7000 pounds of fresh fruits, flowers and vegetables to Anchorage yesterday.

Joseph Dobbins, president, said the cargo included vegetables harvested early yesterday and chilled before the DC-3 transport took off on the nine-hour trip piloted by James Sproat.

George Bingo Binks, the dream-eyed outfielder for the Philadelphia Athletics, is the man Connie Mack is counting on to lift his ball club from the American league cellar. Bingo, acquired from the Washington Senators during the winter, currently sports a .412 batting mark.

Retriever Talks
The monthly meeting of the Shasta-Cascade Retriever club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the banquet room of the chamber of commerce building. Program includes a panel discussion of dog training and handling, and plans for the club's next field trials, tentatively slated May 18.

Ken Torgerson Wins Golf Cup
Ken Torgerson, 16, fired an 83 for 18 holes Saturday over the Reames Country club course to take the Klamath Falls city junior golf championship for 1947.

Seven youngsters entered the one-round tourney. Don Rumlhart shot a 91 for second place, and Bud Banta was third with 94.

Torgerson will be presented a trophy donated by Reames Country club.

A Fair Exchange

Seals Trip Beavers Twice, 5-4 And 2-1

By The Associated Press
The two pre-season favorites—Los Angeles and San Francisco—were running one-two as the Pacific Coast league paused momentarily today before plunging into its second full month of play.

The Angels' lead was whittled to one game over the week-end as the defending champion Seals took three games from Portland while Los Angeles won only one while dropping two to last-place Seattle.

Derby Draws 115,000 Fans

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5.—Jet Pilot won the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday, paying $12.90 for a winning ticket. Phalanx was second. Faultless third and On Trust fourth in a photo finish.

The crowd at the track was estimated at 115,000, contributing to a day's pari-mutuel handle of $3,636,401.

Jet Pilot is a Maine Chance farm color-bearer, owned by Elizabeth Arden Graham, and was one of six colts to escape from a disastrous fire at Arlington Park, Chicago, a year ago. The fire destroyed 25 of racing's most expensive two-year-olds.

In the big race Saturday Jet Pilot was ridden by Eric Guerin. It was Guerin's first victory in the Derby.

Trio Of Marks Fall At Bend

BEND, May 5 (AP)—Three new track and field records for Big Six league competition were set here Saturday as the Bend Lava Bears successfully defended their league championship.

The Bears scored 57 points to edge Eugene, with 53, and Springfield, with 48. Albany scored 25 and Salem 23.

Johnson of Springfield threw the javelin 132 feet, 6 inches for a new record while his team mate Kirkpatrick skinned the 220-yard low hurdles in 24.2 seconds for another. Dick Maudlin of Bend set a new league broad jump record of 21 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Fairview-Mills Still Undeclared

Fairview and Mills, both undeclared in the city grade school softball tourney, will hook up in a game on Modoc field at 4:30 this afternoon. Both came out of the first and second rounds unscathed Saturday.

Fairview beat Riverside, 8-6, and also topped Fremont, 11-2. Fremont won its other tilt from Roosevelt, 9-8, but Roosevelt came back in the second round to slaughter and eliminate Riverside, 24-4. Mills beat Pelican, 7-3, and had a bye in the second round.

Both State Squads Lose

By The Associated Press
Washington and Washington State thincleds, displaying strong form in the running events, trounced their Oregon neighbors Saturday to strengthen their contention for northern division track and field honors.

The University of Washington spanked Oregon 81-60, and the Cougars trounced the defending Oregon State champions by an almost identical 80-51 count.

Two meet records were established in each competition. Washington's Jack Hensey turned the half mile in 1:54.1, and Oregon's George Eastmann of Bend vaulted 13 feet, 7 inches to better by an inch the standard previously held by Oregon's George Varoff.

In the Palouse meet, Joe Nebalon of Washington State clipped Hiventis of a second from the 440-yard mark of Jack Orr of OSC, but turning the distance in 48.7 seconds; and George Kiems of Washington State cleared 12 feet 9 inches to top the 15-year-old vault mark of Mattilla and Boone of WSC by three inches.

Dave Henthorne of Klamath Falls won both spring events to give Oregon its only firsts on the track and the for high point honors with Washington's Lyle Clark and Don Wald. Clark won the two hurdles and Wald the mile and two-mile.

Dick Keniston of the Cougars topped that meet with firsts in the two dashes and a share of the winning relay.
