PALACE NEWS

by "Butch"

Well, folks, here is Mrs. Ethel Switzer's prize winning entry, the one that took honors in our "T-Bone Derby".

I'm not very smart at writing of verse—

I'm sure, if you tried, you couldn't find worse!

But the food at the Palace is so delicious.

So packed full of vitamins and really nutritious.

That it has even me breaking out into rhyme

As I tell you that now—and all of the time—

Is the time to shop at this wonderful store

Where you'll always find quality and bargains galore!

Where else can you find such tenderized meat?

Their grand, juicy steaks are always a treat!

Whatever your choice you'll sure get the best!

Their meats stand up to the strictest test!

The same holds true of all that they sell.

Whatever you buy you'll find that it's swell.

Their fruits and vegetables can't be beat.

Their crisp and fresh and a pleasure to eat!

Whatever you buy, it's priced just right.

You can eat it with relish, and savor each bite!

Their service is grand, you never need wait.

You'll find them on hand both early and late.

As I stated before, this isn't good verse—

I'm sure, if you tried, you couldn't find worse!

BUT THE FOOD AT THE PALACE! (May I add this sequel?)

I'm sure, if you try, you CAN'T find its equal!

(Mrs.) Ethel Switzer, 2410 Radcliffe Ave., City.

Now Ethel may have poured it on a little strong there in spots, but we liked it, and if you don't believe it, come on down and see for yourself. After all, a lot of people have told us that it pays to shop Palace! The Palace Market, 524 Main.
