

GI Joe Says Peace Ain't So Bad After Two Years

By HAL BOYLE
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 8 (AP)—Peace ain't so bad.

Two years ago the Germans decided it was more profitable to take relief from the allies than to fight them any longer, and the Japs made the same economic discovery three months later.

Soldiers everywhere began beating their swords into tractors and came home in the happy hope of finding the pie-in-the-sky paradise they dreamed of.

They are still getting over the shock of finding instead that peacetime life is full of the same old pre-war uncertainties—the bathroom faucets still leak, women's hats are cockeyed as ever, the boss still has to be buttered up for a raise, and who ever expected to see the St. Louis Cardinals trailing the National league? What can a man de-

KPCA Meeting Held Here

News Notes and Comment

By MARY LOU CASE
Cherie again has been elected to the office of Tri-Hi-Y president for the 1947-48 school year, succeeding Connie Hunt. Elected to vice-president was Marcella Murray, secretary, Donna Harrison, treasurer, Georgiana Clark, and chaplain, Marge Robinson. Standards for Tri-Hi-Y officers are high since a girl must be of next year's junior or senior class and have a grade average of 2.5 or better. This is Tri-Hi-Y's charter year in KUHS and it has proved to be one of the most active organizations.

pend on? But if this brave new world hasn't come up to Joe Dough's hopes, it is considerably better than the muddly world he lived in up to two years ago.

Then his sergeant called him "hey you." Now cops call him "mister."

Lean At Least
Then he used to stand at attention to be inspected by some visiting brass hat. Now he can lean against a store wall while he waits for the little woman.

Then he had to lug a mortar plate miles over the landscape, now he takes a bus home with his armload of groceries.

Then he had to shave in cold ditch water with a dull blade, now he has hot water and a dull blade.

Then he used to pray the platoon leader wouldn't ask him to go on any more "volunteer" patrols. Now he's made if the Junior chamber of commerce doesn't name him to head the committee for a new park.

He used to sleep in a fox hole with one blanket, now he's got two blankets—and looking for a house with a "for rent" tag on it.

He used to say he would give anything if he could just go back and be with his relatives again. Well, he is — they're sleeping in the next room. That's one wish that came true.

Then he had to salute every second lieutenant, now he can raze the governor.

Beef About Letters
Remember how he used to complain because his sweetheart only wrote him once a day? Now he's married to her, and yelps if she opens her mouth more than once an hour.

He used to hate his uniform, now the only time he's really comfortable is when he's out in the garden in the old field jacket he "borrowed" from the army.

He used to swear like the trooper he was — great muddy innocent oaths, now he hesitates to say "damn it" with the kids around.

Joe used to be dirty, tired and afraid then, now his ears are clean, he takes Saturday afternoon off to go to a ball game and the only thing he's afraid of is that the guy next to him will get ahead in his job faster.

2 1/2 lb. chicken, cut up
1 cup Pet Milk
2 1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons flour
1 No. 2 can peas

Put chicken into bowl with milk and let soak 2 hours. Drain; save milk for gravy. Sprinkle 1 1/2 teasp. salt and the pepper over chicken. Brown slowly in 1/4 in. hot shortening. Remove chicken; keep hot. Drain off all but 2 tablesp. fat from pan. Blend in flour, remaining 3/4 teasp. salt and few grains pepper. Add 1/2 cup liquid off peas; stir and boil 2 min. Add remaining milk and drained peas. Heat. Serve with chicken. Makes 4 servings.
