

Many Go North For Campus Activities

Parents of University of Oregon students are taking off this week-end to enjoy the festivities of the annual Junior Week-end celebration at Eugene. Junior Week-end is probably the oldest and greatest tradition on the campus and was established in 1890. In keeping with the original date, the budding 90's will be revived this week-end.

Ruling over the campus is a Klamath Falls girl, Queen Sue Fernimen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fernimen, of this city. Queen Sue and her court will be ushered to their thrones attired in pastel eyelet cottons with a gay '90 bustle, full skirt, beruffled round neck and tight bodice. The queen will wear white while her princesses will be in yellow, aqua, pink and blue. They will be escorted to the royal platform on the old campus under crossed swords, members of Seaboard and Blade, military honorary.

Among those going north were Mrs. A. Bristow Hood who joined Mr. Hood in Eugene to spend the week-end with their daughter Barbara who is now doing graduate work at the university. Mrs. Hood left Friday night and will return Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Mason left Thursday night and will be the guest of her daughter, Janie, U. of O. student. She will act as delegate for the Klamath Oregon Mothers club at a Eugene mothers' meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley left by motor Saturday morning to be with their son, Malcolm, first year student at the university.

Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, flying north on the Saturday morning plane, is the week-end guest of her daughter Joan at the Delta Gamma house. Mrs. O'Neill will return Sunday night by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wright are on the campus this week-end, guests of Maryellen Wright, daughter of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw spent several week-ends ago at school with daughter Wanda and she plans to return on the campus.

Coming home is Jimmy Ivory, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ivory, who will drive down for Mother's Day and then fly back Sunday afternoon to resume his studies at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell left Friday evening for Eugene to be with their daughter Joan, returning home Sunday.

Also at Eugene this week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin, guests of their son Bill, first year student on the campus.

Leaving early Friday morning were Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Don Anderson, Mrs. Louis Robin, Mrs. Helen Mueller and Mrs. Guy Merrill. Mrs. Lucas will visit her son, Marvin Jr., Mrs. Anderson will be with her son, Jimmy Howard, and Mrs. Helen Mueller will visit daughter Sally, all at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Mueller will spend a part of Mother's Day week-end with her son Louis at Oregon State college, and Mrs. Robin will visit with her son, Don, also at Corvallis.

Also at Corvallis will be Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon. Chairman of the committee arranging the dance was Mrs. Alvin Dimes, assisted by Mrs. Charles Houston, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon.

Another party leaving Friday and visiting at the two state schools in the north were Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe, Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mrs. Harry Goeller and Mrs. Arthur Denison. Mrs. Goeller stops at Eugene to spend the week-end with her two daughters, Nan and Adra, and the others go on to Corvallis. Mrs. Radcliffe to visit son Billy, Mrs. Thompson to be with her son Bob, and Mrs. Denison to be the Mother's Day guest of her son, James M. Denison, all Oregon State students. Eugene bound early Friday were Mrs. George Myers who will be the guest of her son Jimmy, and Mrs. Ted Reeves who will spend the week-end with her son Ted. Both are freshmen at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Molatore, accompanied by their son Leo, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Palmer left Friday for the north. The Molatores will visit with Leo and his wife and their other son, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Molatore Jr., all at Eugene, while Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will go on to Corvallis to be with their two youngsters, Barbara and Jim, students at OSC. The Molatores plan to return Monday. Leo has been here for a day or two from Eugene.

Home for Mother's Day week-end, arriving Friday afternoon, were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Igl (Phyllis Collier), Ted Igl and George Long. The Igl will visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, and George Long will be with his mother, Mrs. E. M. Long of North 8th street. Dick and Phyllis are at the University of Oregon and Ted and George are Oregon State.

Driving to Corvallis early Friday morning for Mother's Day on the Oregon State campus were Mrs. Percy Murray, visiting her son Rodney, Mrs. Glenn Kent who will be with her daughter Joy, and Mrs. S. G. Clark, guest of her daughter Margie.

Mrs. Dave Liskey flew to Corvallis Thursday to spend the week-end with Maxine who entered Oregon State college this fall after two years at Stephens college in Missouri.

Past Matrons

Aloha Past Matron club will meet Wednesday, May 28, for the regular 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of cards, at the Masonic temple. The hostess committee is Mrs. C. L. Harvey, chairman, Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, and Mrs. Lorraine Myers.

Spring Dance

A large crowd of members and friends were on hand for the Sojourners' annual spring dinner dance Wednesday evening at Lake-shore inn. The cocktail hour was at 7:30, with dinner and dancing following.

Chairman of the committee arranging the dance was Mrs. Alvin Dimes, assisted by Mrs. Charles Houston, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. Wilbur Shannon.

ENGAGED is Reva Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of 1933 Melrose. Miss Larson will wed James Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gunn of this city, on Sunday afternoon, May 18, at the First Presbyterian church.

KIRBY Vacuum Cleaners
Lifetime Guarantee
Free Demonstration
Telephone 9200

SELF SERVICE LAUNDRY
Bob's Laundryette
1719 Main Phone 9234

CRYSTOLITE PUMICE TILE and BRICK
All Sizes Available At
COPELAND LUMBER CO.
Our Retail Dealer, 66 Main
Just Imagine!—You can buy enough pumice tile for a 25x25-ft. building or home for only 256.00
Look at these Features:
★ Steam Cured ★ Laboratory Tested ★
★ Fireproof ★ Insulative ★ Inexpensive ★
Let us help solve your building problems.
See us at our new Crystolite building.
CRYSTOLITE PRODUCTS CO.
1745 Oregon Ave. Phone 7017

HAPPY OVER THE SUCCESS of the annual flower show and district meeting of the Klamath Falls, Bonanza and Lost River Garden clubs are, left to right, seated, Mrs. Sam Osgood of Grants Pass and Mrs. L. W. Franks of Redmond. Standing, left to right, are Miss Claire Hanley of Jacksonville, Mrs. Neil Davidson of Medford, Mrs. Earl Pattison of Grants Pass, Mrs. Will Wood of Klamath Falls, Mrs. John Degnan of Merrill and Mrs. Harry O. Smith of Cave Junction. All are officers of the garden clubs in their cities or of the state and district groups.

—Guderian.

Awards Presented At Flower Show

One of the most successful in Klamath Garden club history was the Monday afternoon flower show and district meeting of the Klamath Falls, Bonanza, and Lost River Garden clubs. At 12 o'clock, members of the clubs enjoyed a covered dish luncheon with covers laid for nearly 100, in the city library clubrooms, scene of the affair. Later in the afternoon the public was invited to view the many floral displays and special arrangements being shown.

Awards, according to points, went to Mrs. A. G. Proctor, first; Mrs. Frank Adams and Mrs. Will Wood.

In the special divisions prizes were as follows: dish gardens over eight inches in diameter, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, first; Mrs. Dale West, second; Mrs. Scott McKendree, third; dish gardens under eight inches, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, first; Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, second; Mrs. G. A. Krause, first; Mrs. W. D. Miller, second; Mrs. A. G. Proctor, third; living room arrangements, Mrs. Frank Adams, first; Mrs. A. G. Proctor, first; Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, second; Mrs. G. A. Krause, third; branches simulating trees, Mrs. Will Wood, first; Mrs. A. G. Proctor, second.

Over 100 displays were entered in the show. Among the special guests attending were Mrs. L. W. Franks of Redmond, vice president of the Oregon Garden clubs; Mrs. Sam Osgood of Grants Pass, district vice president; Claire Hanley, president of the Jacksonville Garden club; Mrs. Neil Davidson, president of the Medford club, and Mrs. Earl Pattison, president of the Grants Pass group.

Conference

Betty Champagne and Norma Steubben returned recently from Victoria, B. C., where they were Klamath Falls delegates to the Venture club conference in that city, April 26 and 27.

Round table discussions, a formal banquet, and many business and social events made the week-end a busy one. Miss Champagne and Miss Steubben stayed at the Empress hotel while there.

New officers were elected at the last meeting of the Klamath Falls Venture club, with Mary Bishop, president; Pat McFadden, vice president; Phyllis Smith, secretary; and Doris Arnest, treasurer.

Plans were made for the annual tea, slated for mid-June. Mary Bishop is head of the committee arranging the affair.

SPECIAL VALUE
$2 JAR FOR $1.25 PLUS TAX

BARBARA GOULD
Cleansing Cream

Smooth, fragrant, luxurious... and a value you can't afford to miss! Barbara Gould Cleansing Cream whisks away every trace of soil and make-up... leaves your skin brilliantly clean. Choose the type your skin requires... Special Cleansing Cream enriched with luscious oils for dry skin... or Cream Pompon, a fluffy dazzling white cream blended for normal or oily skin. Get a season's supply today!

Star Drug
5th and Main

Nile Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile club was held May 7 at the Winema hotel. The tables were cleverly decorated with lilacs, may baskets and miniature dolls. The speakers' table was decorated with a miniature May pole surrounded by dolls. Small pink and white May baskets filled with lilacs were the place cards.

Mrs. Agnes Shriner of Malin was introduced and welcomed as a new member. Visitors from Tulare were Mrs. Carrie Golden and Mrs. Gladys Leonard.

Guest speakers were Nobles Tommy Luke and Frank L. McGuire, members of the board of governors of the Portland Shrine hospital. They gave very interesting reports on the progress of the hospital. Noble Luke also gave a brief history of the origin of the Shrine hospitals for crippled children. The speakers were introduced by Mayor Ed Ostendorf.

The special award went to Mrs. William Hagelstein and the birthday award to Mrs. Paul Matthews. There were four tables of bridge after the business meeting. Prizes for bridge were won by Mrs. M. C. Cassel and Mrs. E. W. Swartz. All prizes were boxes of greeting cards for all occasions.

The committee for the meeting included Mrs. H. R. Listoe, chairman, Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mrs. J. R. Marks, Charlotte Martin, Mrs. Chester Berman, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. A. A. McQuinn, Mrs. Francis Childs, Mrs. Clifford Voigt, Mrs. S. W. Moss and Mrs. G. A. Massey.

Delegate

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, named as delegate to the national congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, meeting in Washington, D. C. May 19 to 21, will represent the Klamath chapter at the various sessions of the organization in the nation's capital.

Mrs. Thomas, accompanied by Mr. Thomas, their daughter Eleanor, home from the University of Oregon for Mother's Day, and another daughter, Mrs. Don Smith (Mary), leave Sunday morning for Reno, Nevada, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harmon, formerly of this city. From there Mrs. Thomas will go to Chicago and go on a special train to Washington, D. C., arranged by the Illinois chapter.

She arrives in Washington May 18 and will stay with friends in Baltimore, commuting to Washington for the DAR sessions. Visits in New York City, New York state, Boston, Columbus, O., and Chicago will be enjoyed before Mrs. Thomas returns in mid-summer.

Tournament

Mrs. Paul Sharp was winner of the 54-hole tournament at Reames Golf and Country club Friday afternoon, when women of Reames met for their weekly session. Tied for second were Mrs. George Merryn and Mrs. E. M. Raymond. Mrs. Guy Hancock won the 27-hole tournament.

A HAPPY PAIR are Ron and Don McKenzie, eight-month-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Max A. McKenzie of 1941 Painter. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Berman of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Mac McKenzie of Toledo.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Hostess To Club

Mrs. George Wirtz, club president, was hostess to the Art Needlework club Wednesday afternoon at the R. H. Dunbar home, 429 Jefferson street.

Present for the afternoon were Mrs. J. P. Goeller, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Marion Hanke, Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones.

Mrs. Wattenburg will entertain the club at the next regular meeting, which will also be the last meeting before summer vacation. The date will be June 4.

To Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Werner and daughter, Joyce, are soon to leave on the first leg of a trip that will take them to Europe. On Wednesday they will leave Klamath Falls and after a brief stop in Chicago to visit relatives will continue on to New York.

They are scheduled to sail aboard the Queen Elizabeth, with England as the first stop. After visiting there they will proceed to Sweden and then to Finland to visit their parents and other relatives.

They will return in time for Joyce to enter school in the fall.

Skating Party

A group of the younger set skated and enjoyed refreshments Thursday evening when the Senior Girls Friendly society of St. Paul's Episcopal church entertained with a skating party at Skateland from 7 until 9 o'clock. Chaperones were Mrs. Margaret Newman and Miss Hazel Morrison.

Attending the affair were, Helen Bertram, Jean Owens, Carole Hamilton, Marilyn Miller, Lyn Perkins, Patty Ann Teale, Virginia Van Doren, Mary Ann Preston, Ann Newman, Shirley Rogers and Sylvia Hillis.

Sum Montgomery, Robert Van Vactor, Angus Stewart, Robert Olson, Dean Lowell, Don Crane, Jay Griffin, Paul Jones, Merle Deels and David Almetzer.

Breakfast

Members of DeMolay will honor their mothers at a Mother's Day breakfast at 8:30, Sunday morning, in the Winema hotel. Following the annual affair, the mothers and sons will attend the services at the First Methodist church.

Advisors are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. William Milne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bosney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rockhart, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson.

Designed for Modern Living...
Magnavox Duetto
RADIO PHONOGRAPH

For people with youthful ideas and imagination in decorating, and for those who want fine radio-phonograph performance, the Magnavox Duetto is a pleasurable answer. With Magnavox you realize a permanent investment in gracious living, for it is both a superb musical instrument and truly fine furniture.

THE MAGNAVOX DUETTO 195.00

DERBY'S MUSIC CO.
120 N. 7th Phone 4519

You'll enjoy undreamed of comfort in this slimming-trimming "Perma-lift" Girdle

No bones about it STAYS UP WITHOUT STAYS

The strategic center panel eliminates the discomfort found in ordinary, uncomfortable, boned garments. The new "Perma-lift" Girdle won't wrinkle—won't roll over, yet it's made entirely without bones. Yes, it STAYS UP WITHOUT STAYS. Let our expert corsetieres fit you in a "Perma-lift" Girdle today.

$7.00 to $12.50

Miller's

Perma-lift GIRDLES
NO BONES ABOUT IT—STAYS UP WITHOUT STAYS
Another "Hickory" Success

(Perma-lift and "Hickory" are Trade Marks Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)