PALACE NEWS

by "Butch"

Answering Joe Doe's letter; (see last Friday's column).

Dear Joe: Your wife Ida was just in to do her shopping and I told her to tell you about those "Filly Minnyons" you wrote me about last Friday. She thought it would be better for me to answer your letter personally so she probably won't say anything to you about it.

Well, Joe, here's how it is: In every shipment that comes into the Palace there is something rare and special. For instance, a salmon fisherman in Astoria named Jake goes out in his boat to pull in his salmon nets. In one net—Ah!—by accident he has caught a "Filly Minnyon." The first "Filly Minnyon" caught on this coast in ten years, and this one was a lu lu. It had platinum fins, gold tail, pure uranium scales, and its teeth were inlaid diamonds like you see in Rickys window. Of course Jake immediately tagged this one for The Palace Market.

As every gourmet knows, no seafood in all the seas can compare with the "Filly Minnyon" for flavor. One crumb of its tender meat—and the effect on the taste buds of a "Filly Minnyon" eater is such that he soars off on an ecstatic flight.

Once a front-line chorus gal named Dora chose a sauted dish of "Filly Minnyons" in preference to a milk-lined bathtub. So you see, Joe, you were right. "Filly Minnyons" are fish, even though they are very rare. But, of course, beef tenderloins are very rare, too. And it is quite possible your wife Ida was talking about them.

Yours truly,
BUTCH.
That's why they say—it pays to SHOP PALACE. 524 Main, in the heart of the Ritzy Shopping District.
