

Registrations For DAV Carnival Close Tomorrow

Registrations for the Disabled American Veterans Kiddie Carnival will close tomorrow, May 14. More than 250 little tots and "teeners" have already been entered for the talent contest and baby show, and E. E. Henner, commander of the DAV chapter here, says they hope to have nearly 500 youngsters in the competition when the registrations close tomorrow. Children can be entered in the program at the booth in the J. C. Penney company store. Little tots up to five years of age are eligible for the baby show, and children up to 15 years can enter for the talent contest. There is no charge for entering a child in the contest, and everyone is welcome.

The committee in charge of the program has announced that, in the event five or more sets of twins are registered for the program a special twins prize will be awarded.

Youngest entrant for the baby awards is tiny Sylvia Louise Andrew, 2-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Andrew of Midland. Also entered for the show are Sylvia's big brother, David, 4 years old, and sister Ruth, 3 years old. Youngest old, oldest of the talent entrants is Joe D. Bisham, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bisham, 2422 Homedale road, who will tumble with big brother H. Vaughn, 7 years old. Oldest of the talent entrants is Mrs. Miller, 14 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Miller, who is registered for singing.

Following various preliminary events the Kiddie Carnival will be staged at KUHS Monday night, June 8. The program will be the crowning of the baby king and queen winners, and a variety show by the talent entrants.

Idle Figure On Decrease

Unemployment is on the decrease in Klamath county according to figures from the Oregon state employment service which show a total of only 1438 unemployed on April 30 as compared to 2248 on March 31. The figure for last month includes 437 women who are out of work. At the same time, the figures show that the number of migrants to the county is increasing with 33 more listed for April than in March.

The employment report indicated that the increase in migrants and decrease in unemployment was due largely to increased activity in the labor market, brought on by the advent of good weather. Many logging and lumbering concerns are nearing peak production and construction work, despite a continued shortage of materials, is picking up rapidly, according to the report. As a result of the increased employment and the increased availability of "hard to get" items, the report shows that the retail trade has increased considerably.

The report also indicated that the number of openings is being increased with the cooperation of employers. During April the local office placed 191 persons of a total referral figure of 294. At the end of April there were still 98 unfilled jobs on the list. Openings in trade and service establishments totaled 25, logging and lumber industries called for 29, and 44 were in various other occupations, including government service.

The employment report places 450 ex-service men on the unemployed list at the end of April, 98 veterans registering during the month. Increased personnel in the labor office has enabled the service to enlarge its job development plans for veterans.

C Of C Board To Name Heads

The appointment of new committee chairmen is expected to occupy most of the business time at the Klamath County chamber of commerce directors meeting Wednesday noon, according to Charles Stark, manager of the chamber. Stark said the board members were to enter their suggestions on chairman positions with President Phil Hitchcock before the luncheon and they would be acted upon during the meeting.

Stark also reports that the chamber tourist committee had gone to Dorris Monday night to talk over summer tourist plans with officials of that town. Arrangements are being made for close cooperation between the two groups on a tourist program.

Following the director's meeting, representatives of the forest service will conduct a meeting on changes in forest service sales policies. The outlook for the three forests in Klamath county and other matters relating to local lumber and forest operations. All persons interested in the meeting are asked to contact the chamber of commerce.

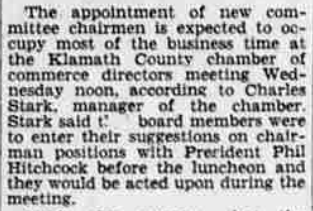

Chemawa Students Get Sheepskins

CHEMAWA, Ore., May 13 (AP)—Diplomas were handed to 15 graduates of the Indian school here yesterday in what E. Morgan Pryse, regional Indian affairs director, said may be the last commencement exercise at the school.

Congressional cuts of the funds of the Indian bureau may mean closing of the school June 30 and Pryse said the 445 students, many of them orphans, might be returned to reservations or to orphanages.

Students came here from Washington, Idaho, Montana and as far away as Alaska.

Senate Democrats Eye Tax Cut Delay

WASHINGTON, May 13 (AP)—Senate Democrats began lining up today behind a movement to delay action on the proposed $4,000,000,000 income tax cut until mid-June.

By that time, they contend, congress should have a much better idea of what economies it can effect in President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget for the fiscal year which starts July 1.

With most of the 44 democratic senators not sold on the idea of cutting taxes until the probable surplus can be computed, only a few republican votes would have to be pulled over to achieve the postponement.

DIES IN MOVIE

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 13 (AP)—Mrs. E. Sunndberg (10728 London), Seattle, collapsed and died in the powder room of a Vancouver theatre yesterday. She had just arrived at the theatre with friends when she succumbed.

Scholarship Award Slated

Starting this year a scholarship award of $100 will be presented annually to a KUHS or a Sacred Heart graduating male student by the Jaycees.

Qualifications for receiving the award were agreed on at the Monday meeting held in the Pelican cafe and a committee of John Sandmeyer, Cliff Jay, Charles Finch, Jim (Sis)well, Fred Ehlers, Jerry Thomas and Art Triebwasser, was appointed to select the student.

The two schools may submit names of graduates and these will be sifted by the committee and presentation made on the night of graduation.

Plans for the boat regatta to be held June 22 and the boat show June 20 and 21 are going ahead, with committees appointed to arrange details, and selection of a queen and princess to reign over the three-day event will be made. James Kerns Jr. was voted as general chairman for the regatta. Art Triebwasser, Jack Insley and Leighton Slight are on the finance and programs committee; log bucking contests, Fred Ehlers; publicity, Bill Bishop; concessions, Everett Ball and Mo Kieruff; sailboat, Ray Garrison; boat show, Warren Poole; outdoor races, Al Lange; air races, E. E. Phelps; gate, George Filcraft; ground, Ben Driggs.

The six new members voted into the Jaycees during April and May were: Dr. Raymond W. McNair, Jim Barnes, Ralph Brisbane, William B. Siddens, Francis Landrum and Barney Fetzer.

Colonel Powell Heading Home

Lt. Col. George D. Powell of Klamath Falls has been discharged from Madigan General hospital at Tacoma, Wash., and is expected here within a short time. Col. Powell is a long time resident of this city and at the time he reported for active duty, in 1940, was secretary of the Elks club. He served in this country during war years and at the close of hostilities went to Japan with the occupational forces.

Col. Powell's plans for the future are not known although friends anticipate he will spend some time here.

Post Office Row Looms

WASHINGTON, May 13 (AP)—Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said today a pending house investigation may lead to a divorce between the postmaster general and the democratic national committee.

"There ought to be one," Martin told a reporter.

The house schedule this week calls for action on a resolution directing the post office and civil service committee to investigate matters in its field. The committee would be required to report its findings to the present congress and submit any "recommendations for legislation" it considers desirable.

"Running a billion-dollar business ought to be a full-time job," Martin said, "and the government ought not to finance political trips around the country under the guise of official post office department business."

Basin Woman's Mother Dies

Word of the passing of Mrs. Katherine Faus, 93, at her home in Boulder, Colo., was received here this week. Mrs. Faus, mother of Mrs. Charlotte Martin and grandmother of Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, both of this city, died Wednesday, May 7. She had been in excellent health and her death was unexpected. Mrs. Martin, due to ill health, was unable to attend her mother's final rites. She and Mrs. Carter returned this week-end from San Francisco where Mrs. Martin has received medical care.

Mrs. Faus was born in Switzerland and came to the United States as a young girl. Her husband, Jack, died in Boulder five years ago. At the time of her death, Mrs. Faus' son, Ben, formerly of Merrill was making his home with her. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Ernestine Kibel of Evanston, Wyo., three sons, Dr. Robert F. Faus of Honolulu; Jack of Cheyenne and Ben of Boulder.

Klamath Federal Building Disturbed By Office Moves

The Klamath Falls federal building is being turned upside down these days, with moves and changes affecting most of the offices and the post office department about the only one to be found where it is expected to be.

The U. S. bureau of reclamation, which occupied all of the third floor except the park service office, started the shift when it moved out to the navy base early this year. R. E. Best, district supervisor of the USBR, who remained in the post office building until last week has joined the other bureau offices at the base and a scramble of government agencies for the vacancies has occupied the past several weeks.

U. S. army and navy recruiting offices formerly on the second floor have moved to the third. U. S. soil conservation is also on the third floor, having moved from the Stewart-Drew building.

While on the second floor no change is expected for the U. S. bureau of internal revenue or the county agricultural agent, the home demonstration office is moving from room 208 across the hall to 209.

Forestry service is taking over the office formerly occupied by the army recruiters, room 219 in addition to 217 which it now has. Allen T. Fletcher, federal alcohol tax unit investigator who has had a desk in the Triple-A office, will move into 208 when the home demonstration gets its files and paraphernalia moved out.

File cases are being used in the Triple-A office to partition it off in several sections and other moves in the building are expected, pending transfer of telephone service and authorization from particular agencies' headquarters, postal authorities advise.

Gambler Shot Down In Street

DETROIT, May 13 (AP)—Baraky, 33-year-old minor character and once-convicted felon, was shot down in the street today in a slaying reminiscent of Detroit's roaring run rump of the 1920's.

Police expressed fears that murder may be linked to the end crackdown in which 1,000 gamblers syndicate were deep in the city's underworld.

Nine bullets were pumped into Baraky's body by a man who costed him and an unidentified woman companion outside a slaying alley and bar.

IN A KAISER OR A FRAZER YOU GET THE 100% POSTWAR RIDE

You should drive one!

If you want to know what "the 100% postwar ride" is like, there's only one way to find out. Come and get into a KAISER or a FRAZER and—take a ride! You really ought to do it before you pay money for a prewar car that will soon be obsolete. Compare the ride! Try being a passenger! You will notice the difference before you have gone two blocks! And you'll agree there never was a ride like this before. Then take the wheel! No matter how many cars or miles you've driven, you'll get a kick out of the relaxed ease with which you control and guide either of these most modern of motor cars. You'll want a KAISER or a FRAZER for sure!

You and all five of your passengers relax in roomy comfort in the KAISER or the FRAZER. A "front-seat" ride in both seats is result of advanced chassis and body design that lets you all ride between the axles! Low center of gravity also improves riding qualities.

Compare the ride today!
