Four-H News

Henley Sheep Club
For the sixth meeting, the Henley Sheep club met April 27 at the home of Henry Williams.

Richard Hill presided. Members had a club pledge, yell and opening songs. The secretary, Eleanor Jackson was absent.

Members present were Richard Hill, Burt Mack, Earl Mack Jr., Carolyn Dickson, Nina Griffith, Henry Williams, Robert Hill, Bob Enman, Kay O'Donnahue and Betty Brandelsky.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Enman and Mrs. I. W. White.

Two reports were given, one on "judging hogs," by Henry Williams and one on "judging beef," by Betty Brandelsky.

After the meeting four of W. M. Williams' beef cattle were judged. Then at Bryant Williams' place four breeding ewes were judged.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Williams. The next meeting will be May 8 at the home of the leader, I. W. White.

The annual host of 4-H club boys and girls, will take over the Oregon State college campus June 17 to 27 for their 32nd annual club summer session. Definite dates and plans have just been announced by L. J. Allen, acting state club leader.

Every county in the state will send a delegation determined in size by a quota given in advance based on the number of projects in 1946. Priority in selection will go first to those winning scholarships in state competition followed by sectional and county winners, those financed by communities and those financed by clubs and others, Allen explained.

Delegates will, as usual, be housed in halls, fraternities, sororities and other quarters to the extent available. Meals will be the same in each living group as uniform menus are prepared in advance by Georgia Bibee, director of dormitories.

Classes in a wide variety of subjects will occupy the morning hours each day. College staff members and visiting specialists will teach these classes in which laboratory work and demonstrations will be emphasized.

Home folks will be able to follow the activities through the state radio station, KOAC, which will broadcast daily assemblies from 2 to 3 o'clock, county broadcasts from 7:30 to 8 o'clock and the annual radio revue June 25 starting at 8 o'clock.

Other afternoon activities include daily county delegation meetings after lunch and recreation from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock supervised by members of the physical education staff. Evening programs vary from day to day.

Sunday, June 22, delegates may attend a special church service in the men's gym on the campus, which also will be broadcast at 11 o'clock, or may attend any of the Corvallis church services.

Facilities of the college infirmary and its entire staff will be available to help safeguard the health of the delegates, each of whom must submit a health certificate in advance.

West Malin Champions
For the ninth meeting, the West Malin Champions Baby Beef club met at the home of Jerry and Ilyls Smalley on May 4.

The club discussed the Junior Livestock show and members gave suggestions about changes. They decided to buy beanie hats and green and white shirts for the show. Mrs. Smalley consented to give the club a chest in which they could put their combs, brushes, etc. The club will make a bench and some feed boxes and paint them. Present for the meeting were: Stuart Henzel, Jimmy Parker, Kathleen Wilson, Ilyls and Jerry Smalley and the leader, Earl Wilson. Guests were: Mrs. Dalton Parker, Virginia and Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Smalley and Sally, and Harry and Farrel Wilson. Mrs. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Smalley gave the club some very helpful tips. Since it was Jimmy's birthday, Mrs. Smalley and Mrs. Parker served Jimmy's cake and ice cream. Jimmy was nine years old, Kathleen Wilson, News reporter.

Flashes Of Life

THE TRUTH HURTS
PHILADELPHIA, May 13 (AP)—Jack Coombs, voice teacher, told a husky male singing hopeful after an audition that he would be only wasting his time.

The six-foot applicant landed a haymaker, Coombs said, that knocked him back into a chair.

CARRIER PIGEON?
CAMP HILL, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Baffled postal officials here are trying to learn how a pigeon got mixed up with Uncle Sam's mail.

Lewis Sutton, a postal clerk, was somewhat shaken while emptying mail sacks when the pigeon calmly fluttered out of one of the bags. The bird is being boarded at the post office while the mystery of its mailing is probed.

PAINFUL EXTRACTION
NEW YORK, May 13 (AP)—Dr. Henry Gerully called out "who's next" yesterday and in walked two robbers who extracted $150 and some dental gold from the dentist.

GETS IN THEIR HAIR
NEW YORK, May 13 (AP)—John Sebastian's recording of Claude Debussy's "Clair de Lune" is being taken off the market because heirs of the late French composer felt Sebastian's instrument "did not show as much respect for the selection as the piano, for which it originally was written."

Sebastian plays the harmonium.

He learned of the action yesterday from Henri Ekan, representing Debussy's Paris publisher, and the RCA Victor Record company.
