

Merrill
MERRILL, May 14—The office of the city of Merrill water department has been moved to the Merrill library building. Office hours are from 9 to 12 and 1 to 5, and 9 to 12 on Saturdays. Virginia Sharp has been employed by the city to be in charge of this office.

Tulelake
Tulelake grangers will see a motion picture in technicolor, "Red Wagon," distributed by Swift and company, at the next meeting, June 12, depicting the story of the growth of the company. The film was made in Hollywood. Austin Terry is master and the lecturer is Mrs. Leonard Mesheke.

Alex J. Wray, manager of Tulelake Machinery company, returned Tuesday from a business trip to Oakland. Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bronson left Sunday for Grand Rapids, Mich., where Rev. Bronson will attend sessions of the general assembly of Presbyterian churches, representing the Presbytery of Southwest Oregon. The meeting begins May 20. They plan to return the first week in June. Attending the session as a layman is Dr. George Wright, Klamath Falls.

Rev. Francis Chambers, called recently as assistant pastor here, will fill the pulpit next Sunday morning, returning here June 1 for that Sunday also. Mr. McIntyre of Klamath Falls will fill the pulpit the morning of May 26. Rev. Chambers is also expected to preach the sermon for baccalaureate for the graduating class of the high school.

Fred Hardenbrook, Portland, has been added to the office staff of the Klamath Basin Cooperative. Mrs. V. G. Reinmiller, bookkeeper for the past several years, has resigned. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brownfield of the El Rancho Tule left Tuesday morning for a two weeks' stay at Crescent City. The El Rancho has been undergoing extensive interior redecorating and an opening planned for soon after their return. Clarence Shelate is co-owner.

The building occupied for the past seven years by the Lepley Motor company has been vacated and equipment of the garage business has been stored. The building is to be occupied by the Ford-Ferguson agency. It was leased recently to Elmer Balsiger of Klamath Falls.

Tokyo Firms Cut Price Of Items
TOKYO, May 15 (AP)—The Japanese gave increased enthusiasm, mingled with some cynical doubt, to their own "Newburyport plan" for reducing prices today. Labor unions prepared to swing behind the movement, which already has reduced the prices of some commodities and boosted sales considerably. The movement began in Tokyo about a week ago, after Tokyo newspapers publicized the Newburyport, Mass., program of cutting prices 10 per cent.
