

Queen Flies North For Rose Festival

Royalty Goes A-Flying . . . Pretty little Gail Reinhart, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Reinhart, is all a-twitter these days with prospects of flying to Portland Tuesday for early Rose Festival doings. Gail, you'll remember, was last year's junior queen, and will participate in the coronation ceremonies for the new junior royalty next week. On Wednesday, she'll be on a radio broadcast from a Portland station. Accompanying her north will be Mrs. Reinhart and little sister Sue. Doesn't seem possible that it's nearly Rose Festival time again, does it? Dates for the parade and other big doings are June 9-14.

The Wonder Of The Week . . . When first graders at Roosevelt school entertained their mammas at tea, the tots did every bit of the serving with not one drop of tea spilled nor a cookie trampled on!

Papa Comes Into His Own . . . We noted with interest that B. M. Antle was elected president of the Weyerhaeuser Parent-Teacher group. Mr. Antle is something of a precedent-smasher, the first male PTA proxy we've heard of in a long, long time.

Lipsticks Go Gadgets . . . We ventured up to a cosmetic counter the other day in quest of a new lipstick and all at once realized what a change has come over the industry! Since metal cases put in a re-appearance some time ago, the people who design the cases seem to have gone all-out. There is the kind with a flip-flop top that pops up with a slight twist, others with fancy emblems that open the case, and still more with a gold chain affair connecting the cap to the lower part of the case, to mention only a few. Next thing you know there will be a college of lipstickology for designers of the pretty gadgets!

More About Mother's Day . . . Lots of feeling went into this Mother's Day present! A member of the small fry set reported to a neighbor that his mother had gotten "a real nice massage" on the day of days.

Lilacs And Springtime . . . Klamath folks have reveled in the riot of spring color which has decked our town these several past weeks and with the fading of the lilacs goes one of the nicest springs we've ever had. The only cloud in the sky is the fact that rain is needed for our agricultural area and many a wise gardener has mentioned the wonders of such a spring here and in the same breath—"but we should have rain for our farmers."

Which Brings Up Mushrooms! . . . The hunters who have waited patiently for that rousing spring rain that pops the mushrooms out of the ground are having a rough go of it this season. One of our friends took off Thursday afternoon for the Tulelake dike areas and came back, tongue hanging out, with only two baskets of the succulent fungus. Which reminds us—did you ever combine sweetbreads and mushrooms with a flock of home-made noodles. And lots of fresh ground black pepper. There are two schools of mushroomers—those that can and those that freeze. Any way is wonderful for winter storage—oh, oh, that third small voice, the mushroom drying school of thought. They're good, too. Especially dumped into a rich Italian sauce that snacks of rosemary and basil!

Iris Gardens . . . Many iris enthusiasts here think a year poorly spent if they cannot pay at least one visit to the famous Cooley iris garden in Silverton near Salem. Ah me, the gorgeous, colorful catalogue that arrived this week from Mr. Cooley, and in the back of the booklet, tulips and crocus and daffodils. "I like this one," said the youngest, breathing down our neck. We did, too, it was the $20 San Antonio!

Another Theory Downed . . . Another blow to the theory that "blondes are brainless. Look at pretty little Ellen O'Keefe, valedictorian of Sacred Heart academy's senior class.

Time Goes Right On Flying . . . A note from Maryellen Wright at the University of Oregon, in today's mail bag reminds us that in hardly any time at all college students will be coming home for the summer months. Maryellen says there are only slightly over four weeks remaining of school at Eugene.

"NINE LITTLE MAIDS IN SCHOOL ARE WE" might be the slightly revised theme song of these pretty girls. All will troop past an audience of proud parents and friends to receive their diplomas at Fremont Junior high school commencement in just a few short weeks.

Tall, cool glasses of punch are in the offing as Diane Binkley, directly above, does the serving honors. Diane's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Binkley.

In the picture below, Jane Tingley looks concerned over the fate of her ball as Mary Hooker wields the mallet. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Tingley, and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hooker.

Finally, at the bottom left, you see all nine of the girls leaving grade school days behind. Next fall will mark the beginning of a new era in their lives—high school!

Style Show Event Of Last Meeting

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club elected Mrs. Charles Larkin as president for the coming year at a meeting held on Monday afternoon in the main auditorium of the library, the final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Walter Brown administered the charges of office for the newly elected officers. Serving with Mrs. Larkin will be Mrs. John Ashley, vice president; Mrs. Dean Osborn, secretary, and Mrs. Oscar Kittridge, treasurer. Mrs. Brown will remain on the board as second vice president. Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, chairman, gave the nominating committee report. Yearly reports were given by officers and committee chairmen.

An outstanding feature at the afternoon's program was the fashion show presented by Whytal's, with a wedding scene providing a beautiful finale to the show. In addition to the lovely bridal attire, models paraded an enticing array of play and sports outfits, suits, afternoon and evening frocks and negligees.

Participating in the style revue were Pat McMillan, Georgianna Clark, Dorothea Cogdill, In Dorah Moldovan, Marilyn O'Neill, Grace Kinderdick, Agnes Geddes, and Helen Howry as the bride, wearing a rich white satin gown with the newest detail, a detachable train. Joy Evans Rolph acted as fashion commentator and was introduced by Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, program chairman. Background music was played by Mrs. M. L. Shepherd.

Palms, flowers and tapers in tall candelabra made an attractive stage setting, provided and arranged by Kohn's Flower shop, and fur neckpieces for several outfits were provided through the courtesy of Richards Fur company.

During an intermission, Neal Kujac, talented eight-year-old pianist, entertained with two numbers, "Fifth Sonata" by Kulau and "Hungarian Rhapsody" by Franz Liszt. Neal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kulac of this city, and a pupil at Altamont school.

Mrs. Carl Schubert, chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Glen Inman, Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, and Mrs. Walter Brown, arranged a flower display with many flower arrangements entered by Klamath county women. Prizes by popular vote were awarded to Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Merton Brown, Mrs. John Standish, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. Arthur Reinhart, Mrs. Louis Geist and Mrs. L. K. Phelps.

At the close of the afternoon, tea was served by Mrs. Robert E. Hooker, chairman, and her assistants, Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Kenneth Klahn and Mrs. Percy Murray, with Mrs. Walter Brown, retiring president, and Mrs. Charles Larkin, president-elect, pouring.

The Library club does not meet during the summer months, and according to plans the organization will meet as usual in early September for a luncheon. At that time Mrs. Larkin will announce her committees.

Mothers Club

Members of Oregon Mothers club have scheduled an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Andrew M. Collier at Anabaglish in the Pine Grove district next Tuesday afternoon, May 20, at 2:30 o'clock.

Assisting hostess will be Mrs. George Stevenson. Following the meeting tea will be served. Delegates to the state meeting at Eugene this past week-end will tell of plans formulated by the state organization.

Honored

Mrs. James Rogers was honored at a shower on Wednesday afternoon, May 7, at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Scott Warren, of Algona. Mrs. Warren and her sister, Mrs. Harry Ravizza, of Chiloquin, were hostesses for the afternoon. Assisting the hostesses was Mrs. Arthur Blockinger.

The refreshments table, covered with a white lace cloth, was lovely with its arrangement of pink tulips, bleeding hearts, and white baby breath, with pink tapers completing the decorative theme.

Six tables of bridge were in play with high and second high scores going to Mrs. John Hagelstein and Mrs. Sigmond Ellingson.

Presiding at the tea table were the mothers of both Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. John Reber of Malin and Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Klamath Falls.

Gifts were presented from a basket decorated in the pink and blue motif of the party. Assisting the honor guest with opening her gifts were her three little nieces, Janna and Nancy Warren, and Sally Ravizza.

Society Meets

Members of the Junior Girls Friendly society met on Wednesday, May 14, to make patterns for leather "barefoot" sandals, which they'll start at the next meeting. Leaders present were Mrs. Royal Hawke and Mrs. Martin Ramsby.

At the next meeting on May 21, Mrs. Thomas Patty will give special instructions to those girls who want to learn to knit. All girls of the 10 to 12 age group are invited to come to meetings of the group, which are held in the parish hall of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Present at the Wednesday meeting were Shirley Keese, Geraldine Lee, Sue Ramsby, Patsy Lehto, Janice Larson, Darlene Gulley, Sharon Miles, Jane Langset, Marlene Owens, Kathleen McIntee, Nancy Kellogg, Flavia Lee and Cynthia Baker.

Tuesday Affair

Mrs. Dale West and Mrs. Paul Dalton entertained with a delightful bridal shower last Tuesday evening in honor of Maxine Ray, who will wed William Nash next month. The West home in Merrill was the scene of the party.

A buffet dinner at 7 o'clock was followed by cards. Centering the buffet table was a beautiful arrangement of spring blossoms with two large white wedding bells adding a festive touch. At smaller tables about the rooms were centerpieces of tiny candles in brandy glasses encircled in pink and lavender blooms.

Awards in cards went to Mrs. George Clark and Mrs. Neil Black. Others present were Mrs. Bracy Nancy, Mrs. Sam Ritchey, Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. Prentice Yeomans, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. William Serruys, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Lucille Warner, Mrs. Avis McConnell.

Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. Al Hattan, Mrs. C. B. Brown, Mrs. Richard Post, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Dave Liskey, Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. Frank Adams and Mrs. Clara Shaw.

Party Plans

The Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church will sponsor a party the evening of May 21, with husbands of members as special guests.

Refreshments and cards will be features of the evening. For reservations call Mrs. Robert Sprout, 3608, or Mrs. Roy Whytal, 4200. The affair will be held in the church parish house.
