

Vows Exchanged In Church Ceremony

Mary Frances Landram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Landram of Klamath Falls, exchanged vows with James Winston Turner of Monroe, in a double ring ceremony read at 12:30, Sunday, May 11, in the First Presbyterian church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Turner of Monroe.

The Rev. David F. Barnett read the nuptials before an altar banked with palms, white spring blooms and lighted tapers.

As guests assembled Carl Hagel sang "Because," and "Through the Years," accompanied by Mrs. Elbert Veatch, who later played the traditional wedding marches.

Especially lovely was the bride's gown of heavy brocade which is an Oriental import and has been in her family for a number of years. It was sent for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Vineyard, her aunt and uncle, of Del Rio, Tex. Its net insert at the neckline was trimmed in a yoke band of net. The gown was fashioned with long fitted sleeves and the skirt ended in a short train with a net frill trim.

Holding her fingertip veil in place was a starched princess crown. Her dusty bouquet was of a single orchid encircled with lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father.

Her sister's only attendant was Clara Ann Landram, who wore a gown of blue organza with pink trim. In her hair she wore a sequined halo. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas. Best man was Ems. Hjalmer Rafter, USNR, and ushers were Bob Penrod and Tommy Thompson.

In charge of the guest book was Inez Johnson.

A reception attended by families of the couple and out of town guests followed the ceremony, at the Landram home. Mrs. Mary Folsom of Santa Monica, Calif., cousin of the bride, served, with Mrs. Andy B. Folsom and Mrs. Irene Wilson assisting.

Out of town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Turner of Monroe, Mrs. Andy Folsom and daughter, Maryette, of Santa Monica, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gowan of Ashland.

The young couple left soon after for a trip on the Oregon coast. For traveling Mrs. Turner wore a dressmaker suit of gray with brown accessories and her orchid pinned at the shoulder. They will make their home in Corvallis.

First Grade

First grade youngsters at Roosevelt school entertained their mothers at tea Friday afternoon, with the assistance of their teacher, Grace K. Rhoads. The tykes presented a program of plays and poems, and highlighting the party was the presentation of recordings of their child's voice to each of the mothers.

Small hosts and hostesses for the affair were Carolyn Newcom, Joyce Dowdy, Sue Traw, Bernard Hardman, Sue Reinhardt, John Albertson, Jimmy Mills, Linda Hunt, Thomas Ankeny, Don Evans, Juddy Brown, Tommy Lassett, Bill Hillis, Kay Blake, Bill Pryor, Walter Pryor, Judy Woodruff, Dene Ross, Sarah Porter, Mary Irvine, Stanley Garvin and Laura Lee Leonard.

SOON TO WED is Gertrude McCollin, who will become the bride of James R. Lorimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clayton of Portland, former residents of this city, on June 1. Miss McCollin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McCollin of Klamath Falls.

Birthdays

It was a joint birthday party for Stephanie and Anthony Bonotto, children of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bonotto, on Friday, May 9. Stephanie was six years old on that day, and her younger brother was five on May 3.

The party, held at the family home on South Sixth had a nursery rhyme theme, and guests received favors of baskets of cookies and candy decorated with Mother Goose characters.

Anthony and Stephanie's guests were Linda, Susan and John Parisotto Jr., Karen and Julie Ann Coleman, Andrea Bonotto, and Eddie and Andrea Lee Silani.

Mothers present were Mrs. John Parisotto, Mrs. Jerry Coleman, Mrs. Andrew Silani, Mrs. Albert Bonotto, and Mrs. Alfred Bonotto.

Jean Is Three

Jean Evaloe Moore celebrated her third birthday on May 9 when a number of her young friends were invited to her home, 335 Newcastle. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Moore.

Spring flowers decorated the rooms and surprise gifts were given to the guests as favors. The party theme was of pink and white.

Youngsters and mothers present were Mrs. Stephen Rose and Christie, Mrs. Herb Graham, Jay and Chrissy, Mrs. De Rose, Mrs. Norman Mott and Kenneth, Mrs. William Terwilliger, Carol, Dick and Don; Mrs. C. Borsting and Barbara, Mrs. Gene Williams and Stevie, Mrs. Innis Roberts, Marian and John.

Mrs. Fred Goeller, Susie and Stevie, Mrs. Neil Black, Janie, Bruce and Charles; Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Jean's grandmother, and her sister, Babs.

Guest Speaker

Mrs. David Campbell of Eugene, was guest speaker at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Campbell spoke in an interesting way of the everyday life of a missionary in China, and told of the experiences in the Chinese civil war.

Supplementing her speech, Mrs. Campbell displayed articles of Chinese embroidery.

Mrs. Marvin Nereth sang "A Forest's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Elbert Veatch. Mrs. W. B. DeWitt gave the devotion.

The hostesses, Mrs. Andrew Collier and Mrs. Alfred Peterstetter, served tea during the social hour at the close of the meeting. Bouquets of tulips and other spring blooms decorated the tea table and were placed about the room.

Chapter Tea

One of the nicest affairs for mothers and guests of the members of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was the annual Mother's Day tea given at the home of Mrs. William Milne, 747 North Ninth on Sunday afternoon.

The tea table was centered with a lovely arrangement of spring flowers and tall white tapers. Bouquets of spring flowers were also used about the room. Pouring during the tea hours were Betty Zirkle and Mrs. Lawrence Slater.

Mrs. Russell Brackman was tea chairman and was assisted by Mrs. Layton Sleight, Mrs. Don Divens, Mrs. James Crapo, and Mrs. Milne. Many members and their guests called during the afternoon.

Nile Meeting

The monthly meeting of Zuleima temple, 13, Daughters of the Nile, was held May 10, in the Masonic temple at Grants Pass.

Attending from Klamath Falls were Mrs. E. W. Moss, Mrs. G. C. May, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, and Mrs. W. E. Scherly.

Klamath Man Weds In Medford Rites

Mrs. Guy Stoddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick of Eagle Point, became the bride of William Allen Spangler of Klamath Falls at a quiet ceremony at St. Mark's Episcopal church May 4.

The service was read at 12:30 o'clock noon by the Rev. George R. Turney, rector, assisted by the Rev. John J. Hancock. Only immediate members of the families were present. They gathered at Dunrobin, the McCormick home on the Rogue river, for a buffet luncheon after the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a slate blue gabardine suit with a white orchid corsage. Her sister, Mrs. Joe Naumes, was her attendant and wore a brown suit with tulleman rosebud corsage.

Thomas N. Stoddard was best man for Mr. Spangler. Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Stoddard, who motored down from Portland, and Mrs. Nell James, the groom's sister from Portland, who flew down for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Spalding, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, drove up from Palo Alto, Calif.

After a two weeks' trip to points in southern California and Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Spangler will be at home at 1925 Manzanita street in Klamath Falls, where the groom is engaged in the lumber business.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Aloha Chapter Meets Tuesday

Baskets of red hawthorne and spirea formed a decorative setting for a meeting of Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, on Tuesday evening. Candidates were initiated, and a special program was given commemorating Mother's Day.

The oldest mother present, Jennie Hurn, the youngest, Ruth Phelps, and the mother of the worthy matron, Jane Swartz, were escorted to the east, and given corsages by the worthy matron, Helen Listoe.

Betty Hunter, program chairman, presented Connie Fay, who played a group of violin selections, accompanied by Elaine Abbott. Paty Ruth Miller gave a group of readings.

Hostesses were Edna Kent and Jennie Hurn, past matrons. Refreshments were served in the dining room where spring blooms decorated the table which was centered with a miniature May pole, encircled with dancing dolls.

The courtesy girls, under the direction of Betty Hunter, had charge of refreshments and the program for the evening. Serving were Reva Snell, Blanche Marks, Beatrice Denison, Irma Miller, Florence West, May Herndon, Ruth Holcomb and Esther Inman.

The next meeting of the chapter will be on May 27, which will be the national philanthropic work and social program.

Alpha Xi Delta alumnae group has held two meetings in the past month to organize an alumnae club in the Klamath area. Mrs. L. E. Juniper of Delta street was hostess at the initial meeting and Mrs. A. V. McVey entertained on Thursday night at her home on Lakeshore drive.

The activities of the group will include service to nearby college chapters as well as assistance with the national philanthropic work and social program.

Alpha Xi Delta's 60 college chapters and 90 alumnae chapters, with more than 20,000 members have adopted the war damaged village of Noordwijk, Holland, for rehabilitation. Noordwijk is located in the heart of Holland's bulb fields, and the village has sent several thousand bulbs to the college chapters for planting around their houses in appreciation for the money the group has pledged to raise this year for the Dutch village.

Alumnae members in and around Klamath Falls are Mrs. L. E. Juniper, Mrs. John Heydon, Mrs. H. H. Ray, Mrs. John T. Taylor, Mrs. Patrick Kirby, Mrs. Ailsa Kuykendall, Mrs. Emaline Fitzpatrick and Mrs. A. V. McVey. Any other Alpha Xi Deltas are urged to contact any of these members.

Celebrates

Margaret Ogilvie celebrated her eighth birthday on May 5 with a party at her home on High street. Guests made copies of their party dresses for Margaret's paper dolls, and enjoyed movies as highlights of the afternoon.

Guests attending were Sharon Zimwalt, Carla Leithard, Linda Murphy, Marilyn Markert, Marilyn Johnson, Gloria Lamb, Nancy Tanner, Judy Zenor, Eleanor Meade and Nancy Lentz.

Margaret and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ogilvie, spent Mother's Day week-end with Harold Jr., at the University of Oregon. On Sunday they attended a family reunion at the W. E. Griffith home in Springfield. Vernon Bowman of Merrill, nephew of Mr. Ogilvie, at the university, also attended the affair.

VERNA DEAN MEGGS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Meggs, of 2618 Kane, will become the bride of C. Jay Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Long, of Medford. Vows will be exchanged at 3 o'clock, June 1, in the First Baptist church.
