

Bay Rivals Rap Seal Pitchers

Frisco Loses 8-2, Shoved Back To Tie With Angels; Portland Shut Out, 3-0

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Seals were suffering from Oakes-poisoning today. It's because Casey Stengel's Oakland Oaks smacked down the Pacific Coast leaders, 8-2, shoving them back into a tie with the Los Angeles Angels who ousted Sacramento, 8-3.

This is the first time this season that the Seals have entertained Oakland and after two straight losses they probably fervently wish Stengel and company had stayed home across the bay.

Oakland's Tom Hafe, allowing eight hits, bested a quartet of Seals' pitchers, Cliff Melton, whose string of 32 scoreless innings snapped; Al Lien, Frank Rosso and Bob Jensen. The Oaks slapped the apple around for 15 hits.

They acquired a tie for third place with Portland, as the Beavers lost to Hollywood, 3-0. In the first shutout the last-place Stars have manufactured this season in 50 games.

Hugh Orphan handled the Hollywood pitching chore, allowing Portland seven scattered hits. The Stars got 10 off Vince Di Biasi who stayed the whole game. Hollywood scored twice in the first inning on Carl Cuth's single on a triple by Jim Deising who then was erased at the plate as Tony Lupien reached first, and Al Libbe's hit scoring Lupien after the latter stole second. Don Ross homered in the Stars' third run in the seventh.

Seattle swiped a close one from San Diego, 3-2, on the seven-hit pitching of Rex Cecil. Formerly with the Pacific Coast, Cecil was in the sixth round of the Bob Johnson's double and singles by Tony York and Hillis Layne. San Diego's tallies in the fifth came on Vince Shupe's single, Jim McDonnell's triple and Dick Gyselman's single.

Dain Clay, Padre center fielder, made the best outfield catch seen in Seattle this year in the seventh, a leaping glove-smash against the center wall which robbed Lou Novikoff of a hit.

He Always Wins

Umpire George Magerkurth, veteran major league arbiter, listens calmly as Brooklyn Coach Clyde Sukeforth protests the ump's order clearing him off the Dodger bench for razzing. The protest over, Sukeforth took his stroll, as ordered.
