

Sacred Heart To Present Concert

The Sacred Heart school of music invites the public to its final concert of the year, to be given Sunday afternoon, May 25, at 4 o'clock. The music school is presenting Elaine Abbot and Donna Powers in a piano and voice recital, assisted by the 70-voice choir club.

Miss Abbot is well known as a pianist, accompanist and teacher, and Miss Powers was a student at Oregon State college before coming here to teach and study at Sacred Heart academy.

The chorus is not composed of selected and tested singers, as it is the principle of their instructor, Sister M. Faustina, that every student should have an equal opportunity for voice training.

The matinee musical program is as follows:
 Prelude and Fugue J. S. Bach
 Funeral March from Sonata Op. 35 Chopin

Donna Powers
 Still wie die Nacht Bohm
 Rain and the River Fox
 Menuet du Glee Club

Coming Rites Made Known This Week

TULELAKE—The announcement of the coming marriage of Lorraine Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tanner of Wisconsin to Mr. John Burke, Merrill, was made this week. The wedding is planned for 10 o'clock Saturday, June 21, in St. Augustine's church, Merrill.

The bride-elect has been a member of the faculty of the Tulelake elementary school for four years and head of the music department. She attended the University of Wisconsin and is a graduate of the College for Women, Nashville, Tenn.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke, Merrill, a former lieutenant in the army air corps is a civil engineer and contractor. He attended an engineering school in Oakland.

The bride-elect's parents will come west for the wedding.

Honoring Miss Tanner at a pre-nuptial shower, Mrs. Al Porter, Mrs. William Hutto, Mrs. Ival Wolfe, Mrs. Burris Short, Mrs. Verne Hemstreet, Mrs. W. R. Moore, Mrs. George Yost, Mrs. Melvin McConnell, Mrs. Jack Kelleher and Mrs. Sol Blumenthal entertained in the annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church this week. More than 100 guests were present.

The lace-covered refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of yellow tulips and coral columbine, complemented with yellow tapers. A large, tiered wedding cake was served with Mrs. Ival Wolfe of Tulelake and Mrs. Jack Burke of Merrill pouring from a silver service.

The array of gifts was presented the guest of honor from a lace covered table.

Ty and Karen Keller, small son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Keller were the bride and groom in a mock wedding.

Invitations

Friends have received invitations to the wedding of Gloria Marian Olson, daughter of Mrs. L. J. Olson, and William C. Canton of this city.

Vows will be exchanged in Sacred Heart academy at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday, June 7.

Wedding Bells

Reva Mae Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larson of Klamath Falls, exchanged vows with James Ray Gunn in a double ring ceremony read at 4 o'clock Sunday, May 18, at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. David F. Barnett read the rites. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gunn of this city.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white wool dressmaker suit, with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and forget-me-nots.

Alice Eastman, maid of honor, wore a suit of aqua with a corsage of gardenias at the shoulder. Best man was Ted Salinas.

A reception attended by the families and close friends of the couple followed the ceremony at the Larson home. Mrs. Kenneth Sanders, Brewster, Kas., was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. C. L. Irvin served, with Mrs. Kenneth Sanders assisting.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Tena Ekhoff, grandmother of the bride, of San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Kenneth Sanders, sister of the bride, and son, Randall, of Brewster, Kas., and Kenneth Larson, her
