

Members Honored At Luncheon

Two members of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club were given special recognition at the luncheon meeting Thursday noon at the Pelican party room.

Among the list of outstanding slogans of Soroptimist business women in this country, published in the American Soroptimist, was the name of Vivian Owens of Owens Adjustment. Her slogan is "Adjust or Bust, That's Us."

In a letter of appreciation from the state president of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Esther Lawler was commended as the outstanding chairman of the state in the recent drive for funds. Mrs. Lawler was chairman for the seal and lily sale at Easter time, which was under the sponsorship of the Soroptimist club. Mrs. Lawler has been notified of her appointment as vice president at large of the state organization, an appointment which places her on the governing board of trustees.

Gertrude Moore, president, announced the coming visit of regional director, Claire Nichols, about the middle of June. Ida Odell was appointed chairman for arrangements in her honor.

Present at the meeting was Mrs. Mabel Holt of the Girls and Boys Aid society of Portland, who is making a visit here interviewing those interested in adopting children. Mrs. Holt gave a short resume of the work being done for the furtherance of satisfactory adoption placements. A film was shown on submarine warfare during the war, giving figures on the vast accomplishments of the submarine department.
