WEATHER

OREGON—Partly cloudy today, to night and Thursday, but with morning cloudiness near coast and scattered light showers in extreme south portion today; gentle to moderate westerly winds off coast.

KLAMATH FALLS AND VICINITY—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; gentle to moderate northerly wind. High today 63. Low tonight 52. High Thursday 66.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Mostly clear today, tonight and Thursday except a few showers in extreme northern portion today. Slightly warmer. Gentle to moderate northwesterly wind off coast.

Open Store—Word of the opening of Hosley's Market in San Jose, Calif., has been received here by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hosley, formerly of this city and Chillicothe, and Eddie Hosley, also a former Klamath resident. Eddie is the son of Mrs. Maud Hosley of High street, and Mrs. Ernest Hosley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Templar, now of Brookings. The Hosleys built a structure on Park avenue in San Jose and installed the latest in refrigeration as a special feature. The Hosleys write they have seen numerous Klamath residents including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garcelon, and recently visited with Jimmy Rich, with the Southern Pacific here a short time ago.

Klamath Girls Active—Two Klamath Falls students, active on the University of Oregon campus, are Joan O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill of Montclair street, and Sally Mueller, daughter of Mrs. Helen Mueller, 219 W. 9th. Both are completing their first year at the university. Joan was recently tapped for Kwana, sophomore women's honorary, on the basis of freshman year activities. Sally, who was this year's "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," has just completed work on the committee for the annual Mortar Board dance, the "Coryn's Crystal Ball," held Saturday night at McArthur court.

Veterans Attention—Veterans of Foreign Wars are requested to be at the KC hall at 9:45 a. m. Friday, Memorial Day, to march in a body to Link river to join veterans' groups in the day's ceremonies. Members are asked to wear uniforms or caps showing membership in VFW. The group will participate in services at the bridge, the court-house and Linkville cemetery.

Moved to Eugene—Mrs. Rudy Jeschke, 1511 Pleasant, was moved by ambulance Wednesday morning to Eugene where she will receive further treatment at Sacred Heart hospital there. Mrs. Jeschke, the former Helen Gray, has been quite ill for several weeks and recently was in San Francisco for medical attention. Jeschke is Blake, Moffitt and Town representative here.

Health Report—Oregon Health Bulletin reports show four cases of chicken pox, three mumps and two scarlet fever in Klamath county for the two weeks ending May 17. Also listed for the county during the period were two cases of syphilis, one of gonorrhoea, and one of tuberculosis.

Fire Lookout—Mrs. Alice Hamilton, 1601 Wilford, will leave Monday, June 2, to take charge of the lookout station at Boundary butte for this fire season. The lookout is located in the northern part of the reservation above Sun mountain.

Admitted—Alfreida Roach, 20-year-old Chillicothe resident, was admitted to Klamath Valley hospital at 10 a. m. today suffering from an injury to her right eye which she said she received in an automobile accident earlier in the day near Klamath Agency.

Practice—The Eagles Auxiliary drum corps will practice at 7 p. m. Thursday, at Modoc field, weather permitting. Should there be rain the practice will be held in the lower FOE hall. All members are urged to attend to make final plans for Memorial Day activities.

From Berkeley—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Worcester of Berkeley, Calif., are expected to arrive in town tonight to begin a month's visit with Mrs. Worcester's sister, Mrs. Elsie Siemens, 502 Conger. He is a federal game agent.

Visiting—Marjorie Ongman, 2245 Radcliffe, is visiting with a friend at Pacific Lutheran college at Parkland, Wash. She will return here Monday.

WAGE TALKS—PORTLAND, May 26 (AP)—Wage negotiations between paper mill operators and 15,000 AFL Pacific coast workers were under way here today.

Delegates of the AFL International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers and the International Brotherhood of Paper-makers are attending the annual meeting.

Co-chairman of the sessions are John Sherman, Tacoma, vice president of the pulp, sulphite and paper union, and J. C. Zellerbach, representing the Pacific Coast Association of Pulp and Paper Manufacturers.

Call the navy recruiting station if you are in doubt on any information concerning enlistments of regular navy or naval reserve.
