

Court Welcomes Grand Officers

At a special meeting on Saturday evening, May 24, in the Masonic temple, several grand officers of the Grand Court of Oregon were welcomed by a large attendance of members and visitors of Friendship court. Festivities began with a potluck dinner at 6:30.

Rooms were decorated with bouquets of snowballs, peonies and iris. Among the grand officers present were Violet Helbeck, grand royal matron; Harvey Aston, grand patron; Edna Manoring, grand conductress; Maude Horton, grand associate conductress; Ruth Heckinger, grand truth; Iva Hewitt, assistant grand lecturer; Lois Hunt, grand fraternal correspondent; Flo Ann Eaton, grand marshal in the west; Bernice Finch, grand associate matron; Fred Helbeck, grand marshal.

Grand representatives were: Marian Dickson to Colorado; Mary Wallman to Oregon from Maryland; Jack Schulze to Washington; Earl Beeson to California; Charles Hicks to New Jersey. Past royal matrons and patrons present were Emma Henderson, Pearl Scobert, Robert Henderson, Frank Scobert, W. Alton Cummings, William C. Laurens and Francis Hurlbert, past supreme royal matron, who is now grand secretary.

Among 1947 royal matrons and patrons were Nadine Jones, Rose City; Emma Wagner, Sunset court; Ann Pierce, Friendship court; Jale Jones, Rose City; Laurence Wagner, Sunset court; William Pritchard, Ionic court; Ted Reeves, Friendship court, and 32 other visiting members from Oregon courts.

Seven new members and the past matrons and patrons were initiated.

After the initiation, honorary memberships were presented to the grand matron and patron, Violet Helbeck and Harvey Aston.

Jack Schulze introduced Flo Ann Eaton, Fannie May Thompson, Eva Lee Long, Marie Metter, Helen Crapo, Mildred Landis, Virginia Bonney, James Hunter and Jack Metter, who presented a floral decree in honor of the grand royal matron and patron. Those honored responded with brief talks.

On Sunday morning at the Winema hotel, the traditional no-host breakfast completed the activities commemorating the eighth anniversary of Friendship court.

Wedding Bells

Madelyn Jane Beals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Beals of Klamath Falls, exchanged vows this morning, Saturday, with Leonard Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alexander of Maupin. The Rev. Hugh T. Mitchellmore read the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at 10:30 o'clock before a gathering of the immediate families of the couple. Mrs. Mitchellmore played the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Beals and Mr. Alexander exchanged vows before the fire-place which was banked with white stock, gladioli and snapdragons. Roses were used about the rooms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a soft white afternoon dress, with a single lavender orchid pinned at the waist. Maid of honor was Frances Smith, who was attired in a frock of gray and wore a corsage of Tailsman roses. Best man was Loyal Pratt. Both Miss Smith and Mr. Pratt are of The Dalles.

Soon after, the bride's parents entertained with a wedding breakfast at home. The bride's table was decorated with bowls of sweet peas and white tapers flanking a wedding cake which formed the centerpiece.

After their return from a wedding trip of several days, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will make their home in The Dalles.

Picnic Today

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseeth and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Raymond are entertaining this afternoon at Moore park their two children, Marvin Nerseeth and Elmina Raymond, hosts at a picnic for both seventh grades of Roosevelt school.

Games were the order of the early part of the evening with supper around the campfire at six o'clock. Party hours were from 4 to 7 o'clock. The affair also gave Sheila Gillen the opportunity to say farewell to her classmates prior to leaving for Corvallis where she will join her mother, Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen.

Mrs. T. A. Jerrow assisted the Nerseeths and Raymonds in serving the fifty children who were guests at the park.

To Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Honzel and daughter, Audrey, plan to leave Tuesday for Portland where they will meet another daughter, Phyllis, student at Marylhurst college at Oswego. The four will return here with the close of school Wednesday afternoon.

Circuit Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg will be in Portland with their daughter, Mary, completing her first year at Marylhurst. Judge Vandenberg is giving the commencement address on the campus. Also going north are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brostherous whose daughter, Barbara, is completing her second year at the college. All plan to return the middle of next week.

Convention

Vows Exchanged In Church Nuptials

Wed in a simple ceremony at the First Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon, May 22, were Viola Hafar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hafar, and Phillip Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heath, all of this city. The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. read the rites at 2 o'clock.

For the nuptials, the bride chose a tailored suit of white linen with yellow accessories. Pinned at the shoulder was a corsage of yellow roses and sweet peas.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Suber, was attired in a suit of light blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Best man was Lloyd Hafar, brother of the bride.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hafar, parents of the bride, entertained for the couple at their home on East Main street. Invited were members of the families.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Heath cut the first piece of their wedding cake at a table decorated with yellow roses. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Heath, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heath and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Heath and son of Chilquin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hafar, Marian Matthews, Mrs. Alice Copozzolo, Lloyd Hafar, Richard Hafar, Michael Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Suber and daughter, and Mrs. J. C. Molton.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Returned

Mrs. Warren Bennett, the former Eileen Hargrave, returned this week by plane from San Francisco. In the bay city, she became the bride of Lt. Warren Bennett on May 24.

Lt. Bennett, serving aboard a transport ship, will return to San Francisco in mid-July. While he is at sea, his bride will remain here with her parents, returning to meet him this summer.
