

Twin Sisters Wed In Double Rites

Wedding of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Robin was a social event of unusual interest, for during the double ceremony on Sunday, May 18, at 3 p. m. at the Presbyterian church, five other sets of local twins acted as attendants.

Miss Jean Roberta Robin, exchanged her vows with Harold A. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonald, of Klamath Falls, and Miss Jane Deloris Robin was wed to Samuel M. Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Carter of Sweet Home. The double ring ceremonies were performed by Rev. Holly R. Jarvis in the presence of 300 guests.

Other twins participating in the rites were Faye and Ray Bevan and Jean and Joan Carlson, all bridesmaids; Dorothy and Doris Neustrel, maids of honor; Dale and Delbert Duncan, ring bearers, and Marie and Marion Luack of Albany, candle-lighters.

Baskets of snapdragons, arrangements of peonies and early roses formed a background for the lovely candlelight service. Mrs. Lawrence Page, organist and Mrs. Paul McCracken at the piano furnished the wedding music. R. LeRoy O'Brien sang "I Love You Truly" and "Alway's."

Miss Jean Robin wore a lace gown with full train and fingertip veil. Miss Jane wore white satin similarly styled and both carried white Bibles topped with orchids.

Faye and Ray Bevan, bridesmaids for Jane, wore pink formals, as did Jean and Joan Carlson, bridesmaids for Jean, and all carried nosegays of summer flowers. Dorothy and Doris Neustrel as maids of honor, wore blue formals and carried dainty flower fans. Joyce Van Loh and Louis Blalock were flower girls and train bearers were Judy Wood and Shirley Gay Perry.

Mark Roth was best man for Harold McDonald. Mal Beard acted in like capacity for Samuel Carter. Ushers were Fred Van Loh, Ross O'Brien and Earle Moorehead.

Following the service a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. O'Brien cut and served the cake, and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, sister of the brides, poured. Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. William Austin, Mrs. Justin Wood, Mrs. Fred Van Loh, Mrs. Jean Blalock, Mrs. William Perry and Mrs. Wayne Vogt. The guest books were in charge of Miss Lois Gilbert and Mrs. Roy Peterson. Relatives from Montreal, Canada, Bend, Klamath Falls, Salem and Corvallis, were present.

After their wedding trips, both couples will make their homes in Lebanon. —The Lebanon Express.

Scholarship

The Business and Professional Women's club of Klamath Falls presented its first annual $100 scholarship to Bertha McCoy, an outstanding graduate of Merrill high school. Presentation was made by Ellen Upp, president of the club, at the high school's commencement exercises on Thursday, May 22. The scholarship will be an annual club project. Miss McCoy will study to become a laboratory technician.

A potluck dinner, with outgoing officers in charge of entertainment and the program, is scheduled for the next B.P.W. meeting on Monday, June 2, in the city library club rooms. Laura York, Southern Oregon district chairman, of Medford, and Zepha Pierson, state membership chairman, of Grants Pass, will be speakers.

All members are urged to come to the meeting and are invited to bring guests. They are reminded that dues for the new club year are due, and the program committee promises a surprise award for early payment of dues.

Skating Party

On Saturday, June 7, the Junior Girls Friendly society will sponsor a skating party at the skating rink with the public invited, to raise funds for its work.

The girls met Wednesday in the parish hall of St. Paul's Episcopal church, with Sue Ramsby, president, in charge. They worked on their barefoot sandals, and voted for a "work week" to finish their projects, beginning the week of June 9.

Leader is Mrs. Walter Coons, who was assisted by Mrs. Warren Mason. Present were Sharon Miles, Shirley Kreske, Sue Sessler, Darlene Gulley, Sue Ramsby, Marjorie Owens, Jerry Lee, Patsy Lehto, Jana Langslet, Jean Adams, Janice Larson, Bernice Traiv, Flavia Lee, Cynthia Baker and Nancy Kellogg.

BETTY AND JACK HOPKINS, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins of Klamath Falls, will be graduated from the University of Idaho next Monday. Their parents left yesterday to be present for commencement exercises.

Program

Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet in the Presbyterian church parlors, Monday evening, June 2, at 8 o'clock. The "Program of Memories" will observe the 26th anniversary of the organization of the chapter, June 21, 1922.

All past members, as well as prospective members, are invited. Installation of the recently elected officers, for the coming chapter year will be followed by a reception honoring Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, organizing regent, and chapter regent for the first four years of the life of the chapter. Other charter members will also be honored.

Arrangements for the reception are under direction of Mrs. C. E. McClellan, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Helen Mueller and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke. Mrs. Hugh T. Michelmore will provide musical numbers.

Betrothal

On Saturday, May 24, Ann Carstensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carstensen of Lakeshore drive, was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial tea held at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco. Hostess was Mrs. Rollie B. Watt of San Mateo, California.

Miss Carstensen is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls on June 1 to spend a few days with her family before returning to the bay city to make final plans for her wedding, which will be an event of Sunday, June 22. She will become the bride of Charles E. Kenyon of that city.

Elected

New officers of Sojourners who were elected at the club's last meeting were Mrs. C. G. Hooper, president; Mrs. J. A. Houston, secretary, and Mrs. A. G. Kusler, treasurer.

Mrs. L. Miles opened the meeting and introduced several guests, Mrs. M. W. Poole, Mrs. W. K. Fink, Mrs. H. W. Redmond, Mrs. T. E. Waters and Mrs. Pat Moses.

Officers will be installed at the June 11 meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Erlandson and Mrs. Houston, and bride awards went to Mrs. Hooper and Eldon Hobart.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hemingsen and daughter, Marilyn, will spend the Memorial holiday week-end in Yakima and Tieton, Wash., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Bryant, former residents of Klamath Falls.

Helen Flood of New York City is visiting in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Clement and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Davis. This is her first trip to the West coast, and prior to coming here she visited in Southern California. She will fly east to her home soon. Miss Flood is a cousin of Mrs. Davis.

Ceremony

Spring flowers formed the background for an initiation ceremony and regular meeting held by Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, on Tuesday evening, May 27. Margaret Sheridan, accompanied by Nora Metler, sang vocal selections during the initiation of candidates. Alpha Phelps, grand electa; Alma Coter, representative of Tennessee; Marian Wilson, worthy matron of Prosperity chapter, and Perry Wilson, worthy patron, were escorted to the east. Alpha Phelps gave a brief report on the chapters and reception she visited during her year, which concludes at grand chapter in Portland next month.

After the meeting, Joe Kennedy, worthy patron, presented James Hunter, program chairman, who introduced Larry Baker, Sanford Selby, Jack Schulte and Jack Metler in barbershop harmony and Lawrence Phelps in a comic skit.

Refreshments were served in the dining room under the direction of Jack Murphy. Tables were decorated with vegetable centerpieces.

The next meeting will be on June 24, when officers who attended grand chapter will report.

Commencement

Betty and Jack Hopkins, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins of Klamath Falls, will be graduated on June 2 from the University of Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins left Friday morning to attend commencement exercises.

Both are majors in business administration. Miss Hopkins is a graduate of Klamath Union high school. Her brother continued his schooling at Idaho following his discharge from the navy. While in service he studied at Harvard. The family will return soon after commencement to their home, 625 N. 8th.

Eagles Dance

The Eagles auxiliary drum corps and the aerle drill team are sponsoring a public dance at the armory on Friday, June 20, with music by Gordon's orchestra. Plans were made at recent meetings of the two.

The auxiliary met on Tuesday evening with three candidates initiated. Plans were made for the state convention to be held June 26, 27 and 28 in Salem. Refreshments were served after the business session.

On June 1, there will be a joint installation of auxiliary and aerle officers at the FOE hall. Entertainment and refreshments will be furnished after the meetings.

Entertained

Tall vases of iris and columbine made a charming setting last Friday afternoon, May 23rd, when Mrs. Ed Gowen and Mrs. Fred Fernlund entertained the Bonanza-Lennox Valley Garden club in the Bonanza library. Refreshments were served to 18 members.

Harold Schieferstein, Klamath Falls, gave an interesting talk on weed control and insects injurious to vegetable and flower gardens. He warned the gardeners of the danger of getting eel worm started and urged them to examine plants before transplanting. He stated that he had been experimenting on plots of quack grass, using a formula that can now be easily obtained and, in Mr. Schieferstein's opinion, is proving very effective. The "Klamath weed" was also discussed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Benson Dixon on Friday afternoon, June 6.

Luncheon

Lillian Peterson entertained the 3-R club at her home Tuesday. A delicious luncheon was served to 13 members.

Pinochle was played. High went to Anna McCormack, second to Kathleen Hepburn and special to Elsie Longmire.

It was decided to postpone the first meeting in June and hold one June 24 at the home of Grace Har-

Convention Plans

The Royal Neighbors of America met in the KC hall for a regular meeting. Plans for the coming convention, which will be June 13, were completed.

The yearly memorial services for the deceased members was exemplified.

Several ill members were remembered with fruit, flowers and cards. Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz is home from the hospital, but isn't able to have many visitors.

Alice Hoover won the special prize for the evening.

The drill team practiced, and lodge was closed until the next meeting June 12.
