

Armed Forces Merger Bill Advanced As Answer To Military Training Plea

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Supporters advanced an armed services unification bill today as a partial answer—and probably the only one congress will give this year—to a presidential commission's call for an immediate universal military training law.

With lawmakers sharply split over the training question, Senator Hill (D-Ala.) told a reporter the commission's assertion that American military forces have become "a hollow shell" presents a "powerful argument" for speedy passage of the unification measure.

"I think the report of the commission is statesman-like in its understanding of present conditions and its vision of things to come," the Alabama senator said. "I agree with it in principle and think it should have the immediate attention of congress. But I am afraid there won't be time to act on it in this session."

Helicopter Route Gets CAB Okay

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The civil aeronautics board today authorized Los Angeles Airways, Inc., to operate a helicopter service for pickup and delivery of mail and property in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. It is the first commercial authority of its kind in the United States.

CAB gave the airways a certificate allowing three years of operations over three circular routes totaling approximately 200 miles from the Los Angeles municipal airport to 30 post offices in the city and suburbs.

Hawaii Statehood Debate Slated

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Statehood for Hawaii is tentatively on the program for debate in the house late this week.

Rep. Halleck (R-Ind), republican floor leader, said house consideration of the statehood legislation will depend upon the disposition of a large number of other measures on a crowded house calendar.

Finnigan In Shasta Post

SHASTA SPRING, Calif., June 2 — Matt Finnigan of Klamath Falls, chairman Klamath county council of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association, has been elected vice president of that organization, to represent Blakely county, in conjunction with by-law changes authorized in a special meeting here.

Representatives of the hotel and resort industry through the Wonderland, along with air, bus and rail transportation officials and representatives of the Wonderland association itself met here recently to officially open this lodge and resort for the 1947 season and at the same time, to welcome George T. Thompson, whose organization has taken over the management of the resort.

More than 150 persons were registered for the welcoming ceremonies and the business sessions which accompanied the opening. Major changes in the by-laws, as approved by the directors, will designate a vice president in each of the association's nine counties and will elect the president from the membership at large, rather than from the directorial body itself.

The U. S. navy maintains over 50 service schools to train recruits in their trade before they are assigned to a ship for sea duty.

Although 1149 miles distant, Midland Island is part of the city and county of Honolulu, Hawaii.
