DiMaggio Of Yanks, Mize Of Giants Entertain Customers With Bat Music

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jubilant New York fans, envisioning the possibility of their first Giant-Yankee subway world series since 1937, proudly pointed today to the slugging Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees and Johnny Mize of the Giants as the belting beltedwheers who may lead their respective flocks into the October classic.

Big Jawn leads all major league batters with a mark of .370, is first in homers with 14 and trails Boston's Earl Torgerson by one with 35 runs batted in.

Mize's superior slugging is the number one reason Mel Ott's charges are leading the Chicago Cubs by one-half game, after having been almost unanimously picked to finish in seventh or eighth place.

DiMag banged two round-trippers yesterday, one with the bases loaded, to lead the Yankees to an 11-9 victory over the Cleveland Indians before 47,132 fans at Municipal stadium. With the first game of the double header delayed by rain, the second was halted by darkness.

Mize contributed five hits in eight times at bat as the Giants came from behind to earn a split with the Cincinnati Reds before 45,795 fans at the Polo Grounds. The Reds, aided by Eddie Miller's 10th home run in the ninth inning with one on, won the opener 5-3, but the Giants slugged out a 13-9 victory in the nightcap.

Clyde McCullough's triple after Bob Sturgeon had reached first on Jim Tabor's error in the eighth inning broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Chicago Cubs a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies before 14,841 routers in Philadelphia.

The Boston Braves advanced into third place, one game behind the Giants, by sweeping both ends of a double header, 7-2 and 8-7, with the Pittsburgh Pirates in Boston.

Rookie Righthander Harry Taylor came through with another fine pitching performance, holding the St. Louis Cardinals to five hits in hurling the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-1 win at Ebbets field.

Home runs by Jeff Heath and Vern Stephens, combined with the six-hit pitching of Jack Kramer, gave the St. Louis Browns an easy 7-2 win over the Philadelphia Athletics. Rain washed out the second game of the scheduled double-header in St. Louis.

"The department of the Interior also recognized the necessity of irrigation development, such as that proposed in the Columbia basin," said Bradner's article.

Delay would be asked in the construction of the Arlington, John Day and Dalles dams on the Columbia and the barriers planned for the lower Snake.

The department will present its plan, said Bradner, at a hearing of the inter-agency committee on the Columbia basin in Walla Walla June 25-26.

Lighted Softball Tonight

Softball goes under the lights tonight—barring interruption by the weather—and the first teams to try out the Moore field diamond will be the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Knights of Columbus.

That engagement will start promptly at 7:30, and at 8:30 the Bureau of Reclamation nine plays Ricks.

Fans coming to the inaugural arc-light contests can sit in bleachers back of the diamond or in the grandstand itself. The admission charge will be 25 cents for adults, 10 cents for children and 50 cents for entire families.

From now on through this summer, three nights of softball per week are scheduled for Moore field. Heretofore the squads have been limited to twilight games, two nights a week.

The weather treated sports in the Klamath basin rather roughly over the week-end and Memorial Day. The scheduled baseball games set for yesterday were also washed out. The Klamath Sons and McCloud Loggers, at Recreation field, was cancelled because of rain and wet grounds, and the Junior American Legion baseball game set for yesterday were also washed out.

The Huskies smacked down their opposition Saturday and handed Coach Hee Edmundson his 10th division crown in the meet's 21-year history by grabbing points in every event. The first places were fairly well scattered among the division's six schools, but when all the places were counted, Washington had enough for 52 points and the title.

The division deanship went to Edmundson when the Northwest's grand old man of track, Bill Hayward of Oregon, announced he was retiring after 44 years and this was his last meet.

His Oregon team, handicapped by the loss of two men by pre-meet injuries, tried hard to hand him the division flag as a farewell present, but had to settle for third with 33 points. Washington State took second with 35.

Oregon State, the defending champion, wound up with 20, Montana had 17, and Idaho 7.

Oregon's Dave Henthorne took the honors with a half-point margin when he ran on the third-place relay team, adding the fraction to the 10 counters he got for winning the 100 and 200. Washington's Don Wolf, defending his mile crown and taking over the two-mile diadem, tied with Yovetich for second.

Dawes Cracks AAU Jump Mark

PORTLAND, June 2—Junior division entries hung up the only records and tied marks in the AAU track meet at Portland Saturday.

Portland's Grant high 440-yard relay team was clocked at 46.8 seconds for the first of two new records, and Gary Dawes, the high school sophomore from Klamath Falls, competing unattached, leaped 5 feet 5 1/2 inches for a new junior high jump record.

Three records, all on the track, were tied.

SEPTIMUS? SAN FRANCISCO, June 2 (AP)—Stenhart aquarium's Willie is an odd kind of an octopus. Or maybe he isn't an octopus at all.

Robert Dempster, California Academy of Sciences biologist, discovered that Willie has only seven tentacles instead of the eight common to his breed. There is no stump to show the little fellow ever had an eighth arm.

Does that make him a septimus?

Huskies Take Cinder Title

SEATTLE, June 2 (AP)—The northern division of the Pacific coast conference had a new track champion and a new track dean today, and both could be trailed to the fair of the University of Washington Huskies.

The Huskies smacked down their opposition Saturday and handed Coach Hee Edmundson his 10th division crown in the meet's 21-year history by grabbing points in every event. Pacific Coast League ...

Bay Area Battlers Deadlocked For Lead

By The Associated Press

The Pacific Coast league's most hectic week of the season wound up with the bay boys (both sides)—Oakland and San Francisco—sharing first place today.

The banner crowd lifted attendance for the Angels-Seals series to 72,710, far surpassing the previous one week high of 58,770 at Los Angeles.

The Seals thus took the series, five games to three, and moved up even with the Oaks, who split with Hollywood to nab a 6-2 series verdict.

The two will meet later at Walla Walla for the second of round and were among 20 professionals and one amateur to tee off today in qualifying rounds at Waverly club for the Pacific Northwest national open team of two players.
